Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Wie versprochen gibt es mit der vorliegenden Ausgabe einen Sonder-Newsletter mit ausschließlich amerikanischen Neuankündigungen. Und die sind gleich so zahlreich, dass es wieder einmal den gewohnten Rahmen von maximal 50 Seiten sprengt. Um Sie jedoch umfassend informieren zu können, war dies unabdingbar. Nicht etwa, dass das ein Problem wäre. Schon gar nicht bei der digitalen Version. Doch die Print-Ausgabe macht jetzt leider Handarbeit erforderlich. Denn unser Kopierer kann nicht mehr als 30 Blatt Papier (das sind genau 60 Seiten) automatisch heften. Nun ja, wir sehen das locker. Ein bisschen körperliche Arbeit hat noch niemandem geschadet. Um die Auslieferung des Newsletters nicht noch weiter zu verzögern und damit die Seitenzahl nicht astronomisch hoch wird, haben wir bewusst auf sämtliche Grafiken verzichtet. Dadurch wirkt die neue Ausgabe zwar gestalterisch etwas langweilig, aber der Informationsgehalt ist das was tatsächlich zählt. Und davon ist jede Menge vorhanden. Zu den Highlights gehören Filme wie SHUTTER, PROM NIGHT, THE RUINS, NIM'S ISLAND, LEATHERHEADS, 21, SHINE A LIGHT, MARRIED LIFE, OSS 117, MADE OF HONOR, WHAT HAPPENS IN VEGAS, DEAL, REST STOP 2, ROGUE, NEVER BACK DOWN und STREET KINGS. Aber sehen Sie selbst auf Seiten 5 bis 71...

Satte 66 Seiten also mit US-DVDs. Da kommt es gerade recht, dass "Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog" dieses Mal nur eine einzige Seite in Anspruch nimmt. Aber seit dem letzten Mal ist ja auch nur gerade mal eine Woche vergangen. Gekürzt wurde in dieser Rubrik also nichts. Das nur mal so präventiv gesagt. Denn angesichts der scharfen Zensurschere, die sich augenblicklich gnadenlos durch die Republik schneidet, könnte man schon auf den Gedanken kommen, dass auch unser Newsletter nicht verschont bleibt.

Nochmals der Hinweis darauf, dass wir in der Zeit vom 16. bis 20. Juli 2008 auf dem Bollywood-Filmfestival in Stuttgart sein werden. Daher bleibt während dieser Zeit unser Büro geschlossen und wir werden auch telefonisch nicht erreichbar sein. Wenn nichts unvorhergesehenes passiert, sind wir ab Montag, den 21. Juli, wieder wie gewohnt für Sie erreichbar.

Die LaserDisc: ein Nachruf

"If you're a film fan, collecting video is sort of like marijuana. Laserdiscs, they're definitely cocaine. Film prints are heroin, alright?" – Quentin Tarantino
 Sie ist von uns gegangen, still und würdevoll, schon vor zehn Jahren. Dennoch: kommt es Ihnen nicht auch wie gestern vor, als wir zum ersten Mal von diesem filmischen Kokain Gebrauch machten? Natürlich möchte man als Filmfan am liebsten Filmkopien sammeln, doch nur selten hat man dafür genug Geld und Platz. Also nahmen wir die nächstbeste Droge: Laserdiscs.

Ich weiß noch ganz genau wie es war, als die Laserdisc bei uns Einzug erhielt. Die erste LD, die mein Vater kaufte, war "Blade Runner". Die Kinoversion, die einzige Version, die die Welt bis dahin kannte. Damals gab es noch nicht die Manie, einen Film in mindestens fünf anderen Fassungen herauszubringen als der Kinoversion. Nein, solche Dekadenz gab es bei der LD nicht. Sie war zu kostbar, als dass man es sich hätte leisten können, die Filme auf unterschiedlichste Arten zu verhunzen, frei nach dem Motto: "Schauen wir mal was passiert, wenn wir die paar Szenen herauschneiden und die da, ja, die auf dem Boden, wieder reinnehmen." Mein Vater brachte also dieses Juwel nach Hause und vor meinen neugierigen Augen nahm er die Laserdisc heraus. Sie glänzte silbern und regenbogenfarben. Um sie zu halten brauchte ich beide Hände, so jung war ich damals noch. Es würde einige Jahre dauern, bis es mir erlaubt war, eigenständig eine LD in den Player zu legen und auch dann musste ich Daumen und kleinen Finger spreizen, bis die Hand fast schmerzte.

Ich war stolz auf die Laserdisc. Ich präsentierte sie meinen Freunden, die nicht verstanden, was das für ein Objekt sein sollte. Es sah aus wie eine Mischung aus Vinylplatte und CD, und damit könne man tatsächlich Filme sehen? Wieso benutzten wir dazu nicht unseren Videorecorder, wir hatten doch einen! Sobald aber Ihre Majestät die Laserdisc im Player verschwunden war und das erste Bild den Schirm erhellte, sahen alle, wieso. Die Schärfe und der Ton waren unübertroffen. Schon bald vergrößerte sich unsere Sammlung merklich. Es war, als ob ein Rückschritt Richtung Video uns zuwider geworden wäre. In Deutschland war es zu nächst nicht einfach, LDs zu bekommen. So bestellte mein Vater in den USA und kaufte in Frankreich. Ach, Nizza ... es gab eine Zeit, da schien es mir, als ob unsere Laserdiscs nur von dort kämen. Bis heute erinnere ich mich an den kleinen, versteckten, elegant grau-blauen Laden in der Nähe der Promenade des Anglais, in dem wir stets Nachschub holten, wenn wir meine Großeltern in Cannes besuchten.

Eines Tages, als ich dachte, nichts könne meine heißgeliebten Star-Wars-Filme auf LD (in letterbox!) übertreffen, überraschte mich das Kokain doch noch. Mein Vater hatte, wohl um meiner Mutter eine besondere Freude zu machen, "Die Entführung aus dem Serail" gekauft. Die milchige Hülle knisterte und raschelte und plötzlich zog mein Vater eine LD heraus, wie ich sie noch nie gesehen hatte. Sie war golden! Bis heute habe ich keine Ahnung, was der Unterschied (wenn es überhaupt einen gab) zwischen den silbernen und den goldenen LDs war, aber diese Farbe trug erheblich dazu bei, mich noch mehr für die Oper zu begeistern, als ich es ohnehin schon tat.

Doch mit Ankunft der DVD musste die Laserdisc ihr Schwanenlied singen. Für mich waren LDs so selbstverständlich geworden, dass ich nicht verstand, was die Menschen an der DVD finden konnten. Zum einen war es in meinen Augen unvorstellbar, den Qualitätsstandard der LDs zu überbieten. Zum anderen war ich überzeugt davon, keiner würde mickrige, kleine Hüllen mit noch mickrigeren kleinen CD-Faksimiles erstehen wollen. So viel, wie auf eine Laserdisc-Hülle passte – teilweise waren diese regelrechte Kunstwerke – war auf einer DVD-Hülle nicht unterzubringen. Sicherlich würde keiner diesen Schund wollen! Natürlich irrte ich mich. Heute sind Laserdiscs Reliquien einer verlorenen und geheimen Zeit, von der die meisten Menschen wohl nie erfahren werden, dass es sie überhaupt gegeben hat.

Die letzten Laserdiscs, die wir kauften, waren die Special-Edition-Star-Wars-Filme (noch ohne das Gesicht Hayden Christensens... na, merken Sie was?) in einer großen schwarzen Box. Ein metaphorischer Sarg, für alle Laserdiscs unserer Sammlung, die schon bald durch Hunderte von DVDs ersetzt wurde. Wie sagte schon Cristal Connors in der "Showgirls" Laserdisc? "There's always someone younger and hungrier coming down the stairs after you."

Der dicke Grüne und der lange Schwarze

Montag war ganz offensichtlich
Mainstream-Tag.... ;-)

THE INCREDIBLE HULK (DER UNGLAUBLICHE HULK) (1:2.35, Digital Cinema, PCM 5.1)

Sozusagen als direkter
Fortsetzungsfilm von Ang Lees
HULK-Verfilmung zu verstehen, präsentiert uns Regisseur Louis
Leterrier dieses rasante Action-
Spektakel. Edward Norton als gebeutelter Hulk und Liv Tyler
(endlich wieder auf der Leinwand!) als dessen Freundin kämpfen gegen ein Monster, erschaffen von
Bad Guy William Hurt. Letzterer
allerdings wird seiner Rolle kaum gerecht. Auch sonst hat der Film nicht viel zu bieten: die üblichen visuellen Effekte, die das Bild mehr als überladen. Das tut auch Craig Armstrongs Score, der zu vollem Tutti bläst. Warnung an alle Kinobesucher: hier muss Popcorn in der XXL-Packung in den Kinosaal geschleppt werden ;-). Übrigens:
auch Robert Downey Jr.
Fans kommen beim HULK auf ihre
Kosten.... Bundesstart ist der 10.
Juli 2008. Der Film wird dann in zwei Fassungen zu sehen sein: eine gekürzte 35mm-Version (FSK 12) und eine ungeschnittene Digital-version (FSK 16).

MEET DAVE (MENSCH, DAVE!) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Mit ziemlich gemischten Gefühlen bin ich in diesen Film gegangen, zumal ich vor ein paar Wochen den
Trailer für diesen Eddie Murphy
Film gesehen hatte und der mich
nun alles andere als ansprach. Zu meiner Überraschung erlebte ich jetzt allerdings ein richtig erfreu-liches Stück Kino. Hier halten sich Klamauk und Gefühl richtig schön

die Waage. Und John Debneys
Musik ist eine wahre Fülle von Filmmusikzitat und passt hervorragend zu dieser vergnüglichen SciFi-Geschichte. 90 Minuten perfekte Unterhaltung ist garantiert. Ab 28. August in den Kinos.

Schwimmendes Restaurant

Beim heutigen Film konnte ich nicht anders und habe Hunger be-kommen...

LA GRAINE ET LE MULET (COUSCOUS MIT FISCH) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Der Film des Tunersiers Abdellatif
Kechiche hat dokumentarischen
Charakter. Alle Szenen wirken echt und nicht gestellt bzw. gespielt. Erzählt wird die Geschichte eines einfachen Hafenarbeiters, dessen großer Traum es ist, aus einem schrottreifen Kahn ein schwimmendes Restaurant zu machen. Die vielen Behördengänge und weitere Unwägbarkeiten geht er mit Beharrlichkeit an und es kommt tatsächlich zum Eröffnungs-abend. Als Hauptgang soll Couscous mit Fisch serviert werden....aber es kommt anders als erwartet. Nie hätte ich es für möglich gehalten, dass ein in Doku-Soap-Manier angelegter
Film in der letzten halben Stunde eine derart große Spannung aufbauen kann! Und dass uns der Regisseur dann sogar mit dieser
Spannung aus seinem Film entlässt, ist eine echte Leistung. Sehenswert. Kinostart: 28. August 2008

Rambo(w) kehrt zurück

Der heutige Film war ein Fest für Fans...

SON OF RAMBOW (DER SOHN VON RAMBOW) (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Zwei Teenager, einer in strengem
Glauben erzogen, der andere mit krimineller Energie, machen sich daran, selbst einen RAMBO-Film zu drehen. In diesem rettet der kleine Rambo seinen Vater, den großen Rambo. Wie die beiden das machen, ist absolut köstlich und macht Lust aufs Filmmachen.
Doch SON OF RAMBOW ist nicht nur ein Film über das Filmemachen, sondern auch über eine Freundschaft, die sich bewähren muss. Ein empfehlenswerter Film, der ein gutes Double Feature zu-sammen mit BE KIND
REWIND machen würde.
Ab 21. August im Kino.

101 Dalmatians II: Patch's London Adventure - Special Edition

Jason Alexander, Barry Bostwick

Puppies, puppies and more puppies are packed into this entertaining and exciting sequel to Disney's classic, 101 Dalmatians. And now, the 101 Dalmatians II Special Edition DVD includes even more fun and adventure, with an all-new "Patch's Twilight Adventure" game, music videos, a behind-the-scenes "dog-umentary," and more! The adventure begins when Pongo and Perdita's pup, Patch, who is not satisfied being just one out of 101, gets the chance to meet his TV hero, Thunderbolt, the "One-Of-A-Kind Wonderdog." When Thunderbolt's trusty sidekick Lightning reveals that the show's producers are on the lookout for a new star, Thunderbolt - with Patch in tow - struts out into the real world to perform true acts of heroism. And when puppy-obsessed Cruella De Vil returns, it's Patch and Thunderbolt's teamwork and friendship that will save the day.

Code Geass Lelouch Of The Rebellion: Part 1

On August 10th of the year 2010 the Holy Empire of Britannia began a campaign of conquest, its sights set on Japan. Operations were completed in one month thanks to Britannia's deployment of new mobile humanoid armor vehicles dubbed Nightmare Frames. Japan's rights and identity were stripped away, the once proud nation now referred to as Area 11. Its citizens, Elevens, are forced to scratch out a living while the Britannian aristocracy lives comfortably within their settlements. Pockets of resistance appear throughout Area 11, working towards independence for Japan. Lelouch, an exiled Imperial Prince of Britannia posing as a student, finds himself in the heart of the ongoing conflict for the island nation. Through a chance meeting with a mysterious girl named C.C., Lelouch gains his Geass, the power of the king. Now endowed with absolute dominance over any person, Lelouch may finally realize his goal of bringing down Britannia from within!

Using the power of the Geass, Lelouch has taken his first steps towards vengeance against the Holy Empire of Britannia. He has crafted for himself the alter ego Zero, to destroy the perceptions of his enemies and protect those close to him. Yet still he finds his efforts lacking. One young prince does not a revolution make. Carrying with him this hard learned lesson Lelouch takes the next step in his rebellion. Gathering a small group of willing Elevens about him, Zero founds the Order of the Black Knights, a faction dedicated to the fight for justice. On the battlefield Lelouch encounters a man he once called friend seven years before standing on the opposing side: Suzaku Kururugi, the Eleven pilot of the white Nightmare known as Lancelot. With Zero unable to convince Suzaku to fight along side him and unwilling to use the power of Geass, are the two destined to destroy one another?

Dante's Inferno

James Cromwell, Dermot Mulroney - Dir.
Sean Meredith
Hell goes animated as apocalyptic graphic novel artwork and eerie Victorian toy theater converge in this subversively satiric update of a literary classic. Reinterpreted with the use of intricately hand-drawn puppets and stunning miniature sets, this bizarre travelogue narrated by Dante, a hard-living hoodie-clad twenty-something, will take you on a gritty, violent tour of hell that bears a disturbing resemblance to our own world. Featuring the dark, mood-drenched voice of Dermot Mulroney (Zodiac, My Best Friend's Wedding) as Dante, and the wizened pipes of James Cromwell (L.A. Confidential, Six Feet Under) as his ghostly guide, Dante's Inferno is like nothing you've ever experienced before.

Dead Fury

Dir. Fsudol
From the director of the hugely successful animated zombie film City Of Rott comes his long awaited follow-up feature Dead Fury, an eighty-two minute animated parody of such horror classics as Evil Dead and The Hills Have Eyes. Led by the wisecracking Max, a group of hunters accidentally stumbles into the forested realm of a family of demonic freaks. The freaks are hungry to possess anyone who trespasses on their sacred land, so Max and his friends must fend off the evil enemy with whatever weapons they have at hand. Shotguns, pick-axes, knives, rotary saws, weapons of every description are enlisted to dice, slice and sever. Dead Fury is a fun-filled world of gut-crunching blood and violence! Edgar & Ellen: Season One - Volume One

Meet the masters of mischief, the prince and princess of practical jokers! In the first 13 episodes of their ghoulishly great series, twisted twins Edgar and Ellen use their fiendishly funny skills to create chaos for the residents of the quaint town of Nod's Limbs - and no one is safe from their hilarious hijinks! From their booby-trapped 13-story mansion, Edgar and Ellen seek to cure their perpetual boredom by inventing a robot who's a cleaning freak, playing „Hide, Seek and Subdue“ with their neighbors, entering Pet in a dog show, making Ellen's nemesis Stephanie look ridiculous, and staging an alien invasion! And when the clever twins try to out-prank each other, that's when life really gets kooky!

Immortal (Steelbook)

New York City, year 2095. A floating pyramid has emerged in the skies above, inhabited by ancient Egyptian Gods. They have cast judgment down upon Horus (a falcon-headed god), one of their own. With only seven days to preserve his immortality, he must find a human host body to inhabit, and search for a mate. In the city below, a beautiful young woman, Jill, with blue hair, blue tears, and a power unknown even to her, wanders the city in search for her identity aided by a doctor who is fascinated by this mystery of nature. Reality in this world has a whole new meaning as bodies, voices and memories converge with Gods, mutants, mortals and extra terrestrials. Stunning visual effects meld with poetic surrealism of comic-book creator Enki Bilal's fantastic epic story. A ground-breaking step into the future of film-making.

The Minerva docks at a ZAFT base, where they are met by Chairman Durandal. Over a quiet dinner, he talks with Athrun, Shinn and other members of the crew. This conversation leads Shinn to reflect on the past, and the events that brought them to where they are now. But understanding does not bring peace, and after another argument with some of his shipmates, Shinn heads ashore to clear his head. There he meets a beautiful girl, and watches her fall into the ocean. He dives in to rescue her, and in turn then must wait to be rescued. Meanwhile, the Alliance Forces gather, along with their Orb Allies, to launch an attack on ZAFT. The Minerva scrambles and prepares for battle. But unknown to either side, far beneath the waves, another group is going to try to put an end to the fighting.

Piano: The Melody Of A Young Girl's Heart - Volume 1

Unlock the music within your heart! Miu Nomura once loved to play the piano. As a little girl, the music made her heart soar, and she eagerly shared her songs with all of those around her. Now an introverted teenager, Miu has become too shy to express her feelings - even through her music. Her playing has suffered, and her piano teacher, the moody Mr. Shirakawa, has become impatient with her inability to reach the next level. When Miu develops a crush on upperclassman Takahashi, her best friend Yuuki is the first to notice. Unfortunately, Yuuki's too distracted with her own emotional troubles: She's fallen hard for third-year track star Takizawa! However, Mr. Shirakawa has also noticed something... a sudden and remarkable change in Miu's playing. Can he help her rediscover the joy of the piano and find the courage to share her heart and music once more? Contains episodes 1-3.

Piano: The Melody Of A Young Girl's Heart - Volume 2

Summer vacation is here, and that means it's almost time for Yuuki's birthday! Since it's over summer break, her birthday is usually a nonevent. But this year, Yuuki has decided that things are going to be different: She's going to confess her love to Takizawa! But will the handsome and popular third-year track star reject her? The very thought has Yuuki in turmoil. Her best friend, Miu, is doing all she can to support her, but watching Yuuki struggle only reminds Miu of how troubled her own heart is. Meanwhile, Mr. Shirakawa is frustrated at the lack of growth in Miu's playing. Trying to inspire her, he nominates her to be his sole representative at the Spring Piano Recital. Not only that, but she'll also be the only student who will have to compose and play her own original piece! If she refuses, Mr. Shirakawa won't even have a single student participating. Should she play in the recital, even though her heart really isn't in it? Contains episodes 4-7.

Piano: The Melody Of A Young Girl's Heart - Volume 3

New Year's has arrived, but the seasonal festivities don't seem to be lifting Miu's spirits at all. With the spring recital fast approaching, Miu is under a lot of pressure to complete her piano composition in time, but she's having trouble finding any inspiration. To make matters worse, when she returns to school, Miu learns that Takahashi has pushed himself too hard studying over the break and has become very ill. Distracted by everything that's going on and lacking any motivation to finish the song, Miu is dreading having to face Mr. Shirakawa with the piece still not completed. Meanwhile, Mr. Shirakawa continues to push Miu toward the spring recital. Will his unrelenting drive finally cause her to give up the piano altogether? Contains episodes 8-10.

Spookley The Square Pumpkin

In a world where „The only good pumpkins are round pumpkins!“ Spookley The Square Pumpkin is often teased by the other pumpkins because of his odd shape. Soon, Spookley is befriended by Edgar, Allan and Poe, three hilarious spiders, who convince Spookley that square or not, he has a right to be the „Pick of the Patch“ on Halloween. „A square pumpkin the Pick of the Patch?“ Not if mean round pumpkins Big Tom and Little Tom can help it. These two bullies tease and taunt Spookley because of his square roots. Encouraged to continue to become the „Pick of the Patch“ by kindly Jack the Scarecrow and his bat sidekicks, Boris and Bella, Spookley isn't sure he has what it takes until a mighty storm threatens to destroy the entire patch. As the storm rolls the round pumpkins uncontrollably across the patch towards a raging river, Spookley realizes „it's fine to be round while the weather is fair, but there are times it's better to be a square!“

Tide-Line Blue: Anime Legends Complete Collection

After the catastrophe known as the 'Hammer of Eden' struck, 90% of the Earth's surface was flooded, killing over 6 billion people in the process. 14 years later, despite this tragedy, mankind perseveres. With the vast majority of land now submerged, groups of survivors soon band together amongst the world's scarcely available land masses and establish independent political states, slowly moving forward the machinations of society. As these island politicians gather to establish a new United Nations, man's fangs are once again brought to bear upon his brothers. The U.S.S. Ulysses, one of the few remaining nuclear submarines in service has gone rogue, attacking the coalition and declaring war on the world. In the ensuing pandemonium, Keel, a 14 year old gambler and his secret love, Isla, a local girl who has just given birth to a new baby, end up on board this monstrous submarine. Under the command of the battle hardened Captain Gould, this desperate young family is benignly accepted into the crew. Meanwhile, the UN naval fleet begins its vengeful hunt, chasing the Ulysses with formidable fire power.

Z-Mind

Dir. Yasuhiro Matsumura
Sisters Saving The World.... It's the 1970s, and Ayame, Renge, Sumire, and Satsuki are doing their best to grow up amidst roller skating, disco dancing, and life in Asakusa, Japan. But if that weren't hard enough, the Earth comes under attack by an alien force. In the grand tradition of Giant Robot anime, the mysterious giant robot Z-Mind (and its component robots Z-1, Z-2, and Z-3) is all that stands between Earth and total devastation. And the pilots? Of course, they're the three older sisters. Untrained and uncertain, the three sisters will have to make it up as they go along, but they soon find themselves making battle plans and shouting attacking slogans like most seasoned anime pilots. But will it be enough? Z-Formation!

An Autumn Afternoon: The Criterion Collection

Shima Iwashita, Kyoko Kishida, Chishu Ryu - Dir. Yasujiro Ozu

Yasujiro Ozu's final film is also his final masterpiece, the gently heartbreaking story of a man's dignified resignation to both life's ever-shifting currents and society's gradual modernization. Though widower Shuhei Hirayama (Ozu's frequent leading man Chishu Ryu) has been living comfortably for years with his grown daughter, a series of events leads him to accept and encourage her marriage and departure. As elegantly composed and achingly tender as any of the Japanese master's films, An Autumn Afternoon (Sanma no aji) is one of cinema's fondest farewells.

masterpiece Napoleon and his anti-war classic J'accuse. But this touching and tortured document of the legendary Beethoven's creative genius deserves equal tribute and attention. Like Napoleon, Beethoven is Gance's portrait of a great mind, a giant of history, here crafted as a Romantic vision of the artist. The film chronicles the years of Beethoven's greatest successes and his struggles against overwhelming adversity — poverty, the onset of deafness and his unrequited passion for his „Immortal Beloved.“ Writer/director Gance conducts a symphony of images set to an Expressionistic score, depicting not only the events but the spirit of the composer's life. The sequence where the afflicted maestro first recognizes his deafness is one of the most brilliant and visually daring in film history. Hail as one of the greatest character actors of his generation, French screen great Harry Baur is masterful in his touchingly human portrayal of

The heat is on in this fast paced action-comedy starring Eddie Murphy as Axel Foley, a street smart Detroit cop tracking down his best friend's killer in Beverly Hills. Axel quickly learns that his wild style doesn't fit in with the Beverly Hills Police Department, which assigns two officers (Judge Reinhold & John Ashton) to make sure things don't get out of hand. Dragging the stuffy detectives along for the ride, Axel smashes through a huge culture clash in his hilarious, high-speed pursuit of justice. Featuring cameos by Paul Reiser, Bronson Pinchot and Damon Wayans, Beverly Hills Cop is an exhilarating, sidesplitting adventure.

Joe Franklin, Jacki Vogel, Debbie D, Tony Rugnetta - Dir. John Orrichio

Famous writer Kenneth Richardson (Tony Rugnetta) gets a strange inclination to write his next work on an authentic typewriter. After purchasing the antique writing device, he begins to write feverishly. Little does he know, this typewriter was once owned by Jeffrey Blackwood; a sadist and Satan worshiper who abducted women and brutally tortured them during satanic rituals. With each stroke of the key, the gates of hell open up more and more while Kenneth becomes possessed by the soul of Jeffrey Blackwood. With the aid of a mentally challenged man (Rudy Altner), the demonic Kenneth Richardson abducts Emily Harrison (Debbie D) and tortures her in his basement, preparing for the „Black Mass“ which will bring Satan back into the world of men!

Laugh Your Head Off!. Will a secret Egyptian ritual lead detectives Joe Blocker and Sweeney Birdwell to the serial killer terrorizing the city? Probably not. Our two inept buddy cops will bicker, stumble, and clown their way through Pittsburgh, until dryly-hilarious Deedee Taylor drops in. The trio guesses their way into major trouble, descending into the very pit of danger and depravity. Suspects creep out of the shadows-Ninjas, humpbacks, slave girls, suave shysters and chainsaw-wielding weirdos! It's all a putdown on those silly big-studio cop-buddy movies and ridiculous no-budget chainsaw horror flicks! But in the process of burying once and for all those tired filmmaking clichés, genius writer-director Dean Tschetter and a gifted cast of comic character talents (including Jake Dengel, Joe Sharkey, Susann Fletcher, Beverly Penberthy and Jane Hamilton) weave a hysterical satire any film buff will treasure!

The Boys In Company C

Andrew Stevens, R. Lee Ermey, Stan Shaw
- Dir. Sidney J. Furie

Set in 1967, The Boys In Company C follows the lives of five Marine inductees from their training in boot camp through a tour of duty in Vietnam that quickly devolves into a hellish nightmare. Disheartened by futile combat, appalled by the corruption of their South Vietnamese ally, and constantly endangered by the incompetence of their own company commander, the young men discover a possible way out of the war. They are told that if they can defeat a rival soccer team they may spend the rest of their tour playing exhibition games safely behind the lines. But, as might be expected, nothing in Vietnam is as simple as it seems. Andrew Stevens was nominated for a Golden Globe award for his performance as Private Billy Ray Pike.

The Charterhouse Of Parme

Tullio Carminati, Albert Remy, Maria
Casares, Lucien Coedel, Renee Faure,
Louis Seigner, Gerard Philipe, Louis Salou
A lethal mix of church and flesh!. This classic of French literature tells the tale of Fabrice Del Dongo (Gerard Philipe), a young archbishop, who gives his heart and soul to romance rather than to the Church, creating complications for everyone involved. The Countess of Sanseverine (Maria Casares), is but one of the many women who love him. In turn, she incurs jealous retributions from those in high places who want and desire her. From his prison window, Fabrice falls in love with the jailer's daughter who takes a vow to the Virgin Mary to never see him again even if his daring escape succeeds.

Children Of A Lesser God (I Love The 80's)

William Hurt, Piper Laurie, Marlee Matlin, Philip Bosco - Dir. Randa Haines
One of the most critically-acclaimed films of the 80s, Children of a Lesser God garnered four Academy Award nominations and a Best Actress Oscar for Marlee Matlin. Based on the hit Broadway play, it's the uplifting love story of John Leeds (William Hurt), an idealistic special education teacher, and a headstrong deaf girl named Sarah (Marlee Matlin). At first, Leeds sees Sarah as a teaching challenge. But soon their teacher/student relationship blossoms into a love so passionate it shatters the barrier of silence that keeps them apart.

A Christmas Visitor (Blu-ray)

Meredith Baxter Birney, Reagan Pasternak, William Devane, Dean McDermott - Dir. Christopher Leitch
In the small American town of New Chatham, Christmas is approaching for the Boyajian family. But father George (Emmy® and Golden Globe® nominee William Devane, Knots Landing), mother Carol (Emmy® nominee Meredith Baxter, Family Ties), and their daughter, Jean (Reagan Pasternak, Jailbait), have lost the desire to celebrate. Immersed in grief since the death of their son on Christmas Eve 1991, in the Persian Gulf War, George and Carol have forgone the familial comfort and pleasures of the holidays. But this year, George's annual visit to his son's grave has renewed faith in a heartsick father. Splitting logs for a Yule fire and retrieving old ornaments from the attic, George is determined to bring his family together. His wish comes true in ways none of them could have anticipated. It begins when George picks up a young man named Matthew (Dean McDermott, Brian's Song), a hitchhiker presumably without a place to stay. Accepting the generous invitation to spend the night at George's house, Matthew also agrees to a well-intentioned charade: to pretend, for Carol's sake, that he knew their beloved son in the

Constantine's Sword

This astonishing exploration of the dark side of Christianity follows former priest James Carroll on a journey of remembrance and reckoning. Carroll, a National Book Award winner, is a practicing Catholic whose search for the truth leads him to confront persecution and violence in the name of God - today and in the Church's past. He discovers a terrible legacy that reverberates across the centuries: from the Emperor Constantine's vision of the cross as a sword and symbol of power, to the rise of genocidal antisemitism, to modern day wars sparked by religious extremism. At its heart, Constantine's Sword is a detective story, as Carroll journeys into his own past (his father was a U.S. Air Force General who helped prepare for nuclear war) and into the wider world, where he uncovers evidence of church-sanctioned violence against non-Christians. At the Air Force Academy, he and director Oren Jacoby expose how some evangelicals are proselytizing inside our country's armed forces and reveal the dangerous consequences of religious influence on American foreign policy. Warning of what happens when military power Comedy for Civilians!. Four years fighting Rommel in the desert is a piece of cake compared to their return to civilian life! Griff Rhys Jones (Porterhouse Blue, Not the Nine O'Clock News) and Martin Clunes (Saving Grace, Shake-speare in Love) star in this hit comedy drama as two English war buddies determined to hang on to their battlefield camaraderie- and the dream of show business they concocted in the trenches. The war was sometimes terrifying, sometimes boring, but they got through it by entertaining their buddies with a homemade stage routine of songs, jokes and banter. Now, travel papers in hand and resplendent in their ill fitting „demob“ suits, they part ways and return home to their old lives. However, the lure of the footlights is too much to resist and invites them to resurrect their old stage act at a local nightclub. When the act becomes a surprise hit, their lives head off in a dramatic new direction.

The Diamond Arm

Nonna Mordyukova, Svetlana Svetlichnaya, Nina Grebeshkova, Andrei Fait, Anatoly Papanov, Stanislav Chekan, Alexander Khvyliya, Andrey Mironov, Yury Nikulin - Dir. Leonid Gaiday

The plot of this eccentric comedy is based on a newspaper article, found by script co-writer Yakov Kostykovsky, about the arrest on the Italian border of a criminal who had hidden „gold and diamonds“ in the plaster cast. The movie became the absolute box-office leader of 1969 in the Soviet Union. The thrilling adventures of Semyon Gorbunkov, a modest economist, accompanied by a swindler named Count, have captivated several generations of moviegoers. The smugglers' comic dialogues were picked up for quotations and catchwords.

Would You Reveal Your Most Personal Secrets... To A Group Of Total Strangers?. Actor-comedian Richard Lewis and Academy Award winners Faye Dunaway and Dianne Wiest lead an all-star cast that includes Amanda Plummer, Parker Posey, Spalding Gray and Calista Flockhart in this poignant story of friendship, survival and redemption. The first film to take an in-depth look at the inner workings of a twelve-step program, Drunks is a probing journey into the lives of a diverse group of recovering alcoholics who gather in a Times Square church basement for an AA meeting. Collectively they share their hopes, fears, triumphs and frailties — keeping their faith even as a dramatic upheaval threatens the life of a man they all admire.

The Earrings Of Madame De: The Criterion Collection

Danielle Darrieux, Charles Boyer - Dir. Max Ophuls

French master Max Ophuls's most cherished work, The Earrings of Madame de... is an emotionally profound, cinematographically adventurous tale of false opulence and tragic romance. When the aristocratic woman known only as Madame de... (the extraordinary Danielle Darrieux) sells her earrings, unbeknownst to her husband (Charles Boyer), in order to pay personal debts, she sets off a chain reaction, the financial and carnal consequences of which can only end in despair. Ophuls adapts Louise de Vilmorin's incisive fin de siecle novella with virtuoso camera work so elegant and precise it's been called the equal to that of Orson Welles.

Essential Art House: Volume I

Dir. Jean Renoir

Jean Renoir's pacifist masterpiece stars Jean Gabin as a French World War I POW held by Erich Von Stroheim's German captain. One of the greatest antiwar films ever made, as well as a rousing prison-escape adventure, Grand Illusion is an exemplar of the 1930s poetic realist movement. Jean Cocteau reinvented the fairy tale for the cinema with this enchanting, exquisitely realized vision of Mme Le Prince de Beaumont's fantasy romance. With all manner of unparalleled visual effects and photographic tricks, Cocteau makes the spellbinding tale of transformative love both ethereal and tangible, and his indelible images haunt the cinema like no others. Under the direction of Peter Brook, William Golding's classic fable, about a swarm of young boys who, without adult supervision, devolve into chaos after crash-landing on a remote island during wartime, becomes an unforgettable work of cinematic horror. Shot with almost verite camera work, Lord Of The Flies takes a radical approach to Golding's metaphor, grounding it in a terrifying reality. Weaving a tapestry of memory and dreams, Ingmar Bergman delves into the Mystery, Polish, Romance, Swedish, Thrillers, War, World War I, Adventure, Art House, Boxed Sets, British, Classics, Drama, Fantasy, Feudal Japan, Foreign, French, Japanese 570min.

The Fall

Dir. Tarsem Singh

From the director of The Cell comes a visually stunning epic fantasy about a bedridden man who entertains a curious little girl by telling her a fantastical story of exotic heroes and far off places which reflects his state of mind. The central story takes place in a remote 1920's hospital where a small girl named Alexandria (Catinca Untaru) is recovering from a severe looking shoulder injury incurred in a fall while trying to pick oranges. One day she happens to meet Roy (Lee Pace) - a stunt or „gag“ man for the „flickers“ or moving pictures - who seems to have injured himself out of a future in a particularly reckless stunt, even for those times. He is a clearly unhappy man who - through his own carelessness - unwittingly leads Alexandria to believe that he intends to entertain her with a lavish, epic story of exotic heroes and far off places. As the stuntman's health reaches to the point of peril - so does the story he is telling her...with potentially fatal consequences.

In 1977, an innocent family was brutally murdered in cold blood and the case was never solved. Now, some thirty years later, detective Lee Southward (Brian Anthony) is sent on assignment to infiltrate an illegal underground fighting tournament and bring in the organizers. As Lee battles his way to the top of the tournaments, he begins to piece together clues that lead him to the case closed decades ago. However there is a problem: The organizers (led by Professional Wrestling superstar Blue Meanie & erotic cinema icon Darian Caine) are undead and crave human blood! Lee must fight his way through all the sex, drugs, and violence of the underworld while trying to piece together evidence with the help of an undercover officer (Cheyenne King) and find a way to stop the undead!

A Four Letter Word

A Four Letter Word is an endearing romantic comedy filled with razor-sharp one-liners and plenty of eye candy. The film's sparkly centerpiece is Luke (Jesse Archer), a promiscuous „gay cliché“ who works in a Chelsea sex shop. While Luke chases sexual oblivion his coworker Zeke engages in social activism and a running commentary on Luke's moral shortcomings. Then Luke falls hard for macho man Stephen (Charlie David) and considers giving monogamy a chance. But everything is not as it may seem - and being true to oneself may be the best way to deal with the many complications of A Four Letter Word.

Fraulein

A story of the friendship among three women from Yugoslavia. Reza left Belgrade more than 30 years ago to seek a new life in Zurich. Now in her fifties, she has completely detached herself from the past. She owns a cafeteria and maintains an orderly, joyless existence. Mila, a waitress there, is a good-humored Croatian woman who also emigrated decades ago. But unlike Reza, Mila dreams of returning to a house on the Croatian coast. Both of them receive a jolt when Ana, a young, itinerant woman who has fled Sarajevo, breezes into the cafeteria looking for work. Reza hires her but is annoyed by Ana's impulsive and spirited efforts to inject life into the cafeteria. But the acrimony dissipates as Ana begins to thaw Reza's chill.

Geek Mythology

Two friends, Tim and Steve couldn't be more different. Tim is a lonely but ambitious inventor while Steve is a suave musician with a beautiful girlfriend Renee. After getting dumped by his trashy ex-girlfriend, Tim is thrust into a desperate quest to make more of his life. Inspired by the sexual prowess of his upstairs neighbor Wallace, Tim adopts a simple and demented approach to serenity - having sex with beautiful women. He doesn't take into account one major setback - women think he's a bumbling idiot. When Tim discovers that the secret to success with women lies in the possession of a mystical statue, his luck changes...for the worse. It seems the statue is attracting Renee and he realizes his secret lust for her. Now Tim is really caught in a mess. Laughs abound as Tim sorts out his predicament and finds success by looking in the one place he never expected to find it...in himself.

David Jason
Jack Hardy (Jason David, A Touch of Frost) is the sole survivor of a mysterious submarine disaster in World War II. Now, in 1981, the ill-fated submarine has resurfaced, miraculously intact, but what's waiting for the new crew under the grey waters of the Baltic Sea turns out to be much worse than the Russian submarines they were expecting. Hardy fights for his life as the forgotten events of 1943 start to have deadly consequences for the modern day crew of the submarine. Wherever this submarine has been all this time, it's brought some bad luck back with it.

The Godfather: Part II - The Coppola Restoration

Robert Duvall, Al Pacino, Diane Keaton, Talia Shire, Mariana Hill, Morgana King, Robert De Niro, John Cazale, Lee Strasberg - Dir. Francis Ford Coppola

This brilliant companion piece to the original The Godfather continues the saga of two generations of successive power within the Corleone family. Director Francis Ford Coppola tells two stories in Part II: the roots and rise of a young Don Vito, played with uncanny ability by Robert De Niro, and the ascension of Michael (Al Pacino) as the new Don. Reassembling many of the talents who helped make The Godfather, Coppola has produced a movie of staggering magnitude and vision, and undeniably the best sequel ever made. Robert De Niro won an Oscar; the film received six Academy Awards, including Best Picture of 1974.

The Godfather: Part III - The Coppola Restoration

Al Pacino, Andy Garcia, Diane Keaton, Bridget Fonda, Talia Shire, Sofia Coppola, Eli Wallach, George Hamilton - Dir. Francis Ford Coppola

One of the greatest sagas in movie history continues. In this third film in the epic Corleone trilogy, Al Pacino reprises the role of powerful family leader Michael Corleone. Now in his 60's, Michael is dominated by two passions: freeing his family from crime and finding a suitable successor. That successor could be fiery Vincent (Andy Garcia)...but he may also be the spark that turns Michael's hope of business legitimacy into an inferno of mob violence. Francis Ford Coppola directs Pacino, Garcia, Diane Keaton, Talia Shire, Eli Wallach, Sofia Coppola, Joe Mantegna and others in this exciting, long-awaited film that masterfully explores the themes of power, tradition, revenge and love. Seven Academy Award nominations for 1990 were the result, including Best Picture.

The Godfather: The Coppola Restoration

Robert Duvall, Al Pacino, Diane Keaton, Sterling Hayden, Talia Shire, John Marley, James Caan, Marlon Brando, Richard Conte, Richard Castellano - Dir. Francis Ford Coppola
Francis Ford Coppola's epic masterpiece features Marlon Brando in his Oscar-winning role as the patriarch of the Corleone family. Director Coppola paints a chilling portrait of the Sicilian clan's rise and near fall from power in America, masterfully balancing the story between the Corleone's family life and the ugly crime business in which they are engaged. Based on Mario Puzo's best-selling novel and featuring career-making performances by Al Pacino, James Caan and Robert Duvall, this searing and brilliant film garnered ten Academy Award nominations, and won three including Best Picture of 1972.

God's Little Acre

Fay Spain, Vic Morrow, Jack Lord, Aldo Ray - Dir. Anthony Mann

*This rollicking look inside the rural Deep South brings to life the primitive, ribald rustics of Erskine Caldwell's steamy bestselling novel. Both humorous and heartrending, this critically acclaimed film reveals the hidden passions heating up beneath the hot Southern sun, as well as the warmth and humor of everyday life. A poor sharecropper's family struggling to survive is nearly torn apart as the patriarch stubbornly pursues his belief that gold is buried somewhere on his land. Nothing will stop him as he goes to outrageous lengths in his efforts to find the treasure. Directed by Anthony Mann (Cimarron, El Cid), Robert Ryan (The Wild Bunch) gives a stunning performance as the rugged family patriarch. The star-packed cast also includes Tina Louise before being marooned as Ginger on „Gilligan's Island“ as the sultry Griselda; „Bonanza's Little Joe, Michael Landon, playing the albino farmhand Dave Lawson; Jack Lord before „Hawaii 5-0“ and funnyman Buddy Hackett. The Good Boy

The story follows Angel, twenty years old and barely employed, a guy of few friends and a not-too-promising boxing career. Angel and his mother scrape out a living in Madrid. Enter Vidal, a professional bank robber and a real charmer, just back from Argentina. A former boxer with past ties to Angel's mother and Angel's deceased father, he offers Angel a way out of his dead-end life. Along the way, Angel will have to decide who he truly wants to be and, more importantly, what he's willing to give up. Starring Alex Gonzalez, who was nominated for a Goya Award (Spanish equivalent of the Oscar) for Best New Actor for his portrayal of Angel, as well as Dario Grandinetti of Pedro Almodovar's Talk To Her, the film also won the award for Best Director at the prestigious Valladolid (Spain) International Film Festival.

The Grapes Of Wrath: Cliffs Notes Edition

John Qualen, Joe Sawyer, Darryl Hickman, Jane Darwell, John Carradine, Ward Bond, Charles Middleton, Eddie Quillan, Grant Mitchell, Frank Faylen, Frank Sully, Frank Darien, Russell Simpson - Dir. John Ford
One of the most influential directors in the history of cinema, John Ford helmed more than 140 films and received countless awards for his extensive craftsmanship, including four Best Director Academy Awards. Setting the standard for excellent filmmaking in every genre he touched, Ford remains an icon, a legend and an inspiration to anyone who's ever made a film... or watched one. This remarkable film version of John Steinbeck's novel was nominated for seven Academy Awards and won two. Following a prison term he served for manslaughter, Tom Joad returns to find his family homestead overwhelmed by weather and the greed of the banking industry. With little work potential on the horizon of the Oklahoma dust bowls, the entire family packs up and heads for the promised land - California. but the arduous trip and harsh living conditions they encounter offer little hope, and family unity proves as daunting a challenge as any other the Joads face in this acclaimed classic.

The Great Escape: Special Edition

Steve McQueen, Charles Bronson, Richard Attenborough, James Garner, James Donald - Dir. John Sturges

In 1943, the Germans opened Stalag Luft North, a maximum-security prisoner-of-war camp, designed to hold even the craftiest escape artists. In doing so, however, the Nazis unwittingly assembled the finest escape team in military history brilliantly portrayed here by Steve McQueen, James Garner, Charles Bronson and James Coburn who worked on what became the largest prison breakout ever attempted. One of the most ingenious and suspenseful adventure films of all time, The Great Escape is a masterful collaboration between director John Sturges (The Magnificent Seven), screenwriters James Clavell (Shogun) and W.R. Burnett (Little Caesar), and composer Elmer Bernstein. Based on a true story, The Great Escape is epic entertainment that „entertains, captivates, thrills and stirs“ (Variety).

Hard Gore: Sinistre / House of Carnage (Grindhouse Double Feature)

Director/writer/editor Ronnie Sortor (Ravage) presents this film about three criminals whose bid to pull off the perfect heist goes horribly wrong. First, one of the three is shot during the robbery, leaving the young couple, Simon and Lisa, to fend for themselves. The two decide to separate and rendezvous in a deserted house. Simon arrives first, and proceeds to spend the night there, waiting for Lisa. During the night, Simon comes face to face with the dark presences of an axe murderer and his victims, who attempt to claim him as one of their own. An ultra low budget gore film, Sinistre is an entertaining and inventive combination of the crime/slasher/zombie film. This is the bizarre and tragically gruesome account of what happened to two young friends one summer afternoon in the rural areas of Pennsylvania. Here in these woods, they were stalked by a menacing ax wielding maniac and his demented family... a bizarre cannibalistic clan with blood on their mind and mission to bring demon babies into the world. Their only chance to live is to escape from the House Of Carnage.

Neuankündigungen DVD USA (Regionalcode 1)

Heavy Metal (with Digital Copy)

Harold Ramis, John Candy - Dir. Gerald Potterton
Louder and Nastier Than Ever!. Based on the fantastical illustrated magazine Heavy Metal, producer Ivan Reitman enlists the world's greatest comic book artists to create the otherworldly tale of a glowing green orb from outer space that spreads destruction throughout the galaxy. Only when encountered by its one true enemy - to whom it is inexplicably drawn - will goodness prevail throughout the universe. Lavishly drawn, the vignettes of the orb's dark victories include the character voices of John Candy and Harold Ramis plus a pounding soundtrack by Black Sabbath, Blue Oyster Cult, Cheap Trick, Devo, Donald Fagen, Don Felder, Grand Funk Railroad, Sammy Hagar, Journey, Nazareth, Stevie Nicks, Riggs, and Trust. A highly imaginative and full of surprising special contemporary animation. An intoxicating experience not to be missed.

Hoosiers

Dennis Hopper, Barbara Hershey, Chelcie Ross, Sheb Wooley, Fern Persons, Gene Hackman - Dir. David Anspaugh

It'll go straight to your heart... It's 1951 in Hickory, Indiana - a place that takes its basketball as seriously as its religion. Into this tiny town strolls Norman Dale (Hackman), a college coach, taking up the unenviable task of coaching Hickory High's eight-man hoop squad. Dale has been down on his luck for the last ten years and hopes this could be a fresh start. But several people have something to say about his suspicious training methods and unorthodox bench manner...the school's vice-principal (Hershey), who is keeping his best player in the classroom, the town drunk (Hopper), who is ruffling Midwestern feathers as the new assistant coach, and Dale's team, who are short on both height and discipline. The school and the town want him fired. But Coach Dale believes in two things - himself and his team. Amazingly, kids become captains...players become a team...losers become winners...has-beens become once-agains. Together they make history in Hoosiers.

Shey Bland, Eric Halsell, John Patrick McCauley - Dir. Matt Yeager
In the year 2012, three years after the rise of zombies, a seedy underworld of exploitation and violence exists in a maze of alleyways and speakeasies just outside the city walls; where life is cheap and the drugs are cheaper. Surviving to a ripe old age has become an urban myth. At the center of it all is Johnny Sunshine, a porn-snuff star and killer for hire. She stalks the night like a tempest of sex and violence, much to the pleasure and profit of her producer, Max, and his entertainment empire. As the body count rises, Johnny becomes a victim of her own success. A secret plot is hatched to orchestrate her downfall and capture it all on camera to create the greatest snuff film ever made.

Journey To The Center Of The Earth

Treat Williams, Bryan Brown, Jeremy London

Based on Jules Verne's classic science fiction novel, Journey to the Center of the Earth is a fantastical trip into the realms of the unknown. In a desperate search for her husband, Casper (Bryan Brown, Along Came Polly), Alice Hastings hires guide Jonas Lytton (Jeremy London, Gods and Generals) to help track his last whereabouts. What they discover on their expedition is spellbinding: an undiscovered world flourishing with exotic creatures and strange plant life deep within the center of the planet. There, evidence of Casper's presence is unmistakable, but he's nowhere to be found, and danger lurks at every turn.

Lisa Kudrow, Teri Garr, Christine Taylor, Conchata Ferrell, Chris Parnell, Jeffrey Dean Morgan, Scott Prendergrast - Dir. Scott Prendergrast
In this offbeat, hilarious comedy that proves life can always get a little worse, Lisa Kudrow stars as Leslie, a struggling army wife trying to balance work, two out-of-control kids, and a never-ending pile of bills on her own. At her wit's end, she begrudgingly asks her out-of-work brother-in-law, Salman (Scott Prendergrast), to move in and lend a hand until her husband comes home. But if dealing with his two rowdy nephews isn't hard enough, Salman also takes a part-time job as the faceless blue corporate mascot for a dying Internet company. Between the boredom, the sweltering heat of his post, and the unique challenges of his „uniform,“ life for Salman is a constant struggle to maintain his sanity.

Aki Kaurismaki's Proletariat Trilogy: Eclipse From The Criterion Collection

Dir. Aki Kaurismaki
The poignant, deadpan films of Aki Kaurismaki are pitched somewhere in the wintry nether lands between comedy and tragedy. And rarely in his body of work has the line separating those genres seemed thinner than in what is often identified as his „Proletariat Trilogy,“ Shadows In Paradise, Ariel, and The Match Factory Girl. In these three films, something like social-realist farces, Kaurismaki surveys the working-class outcasts of his native Finland with detached yet disarming amusement. Featuring commanding, off-key

King David, starring Richard Gere, follows the real-life story of the lowly shepherd boy whose shrewdness and bravery helped him ascend to the throne of ancient Israel. But this film is much more than just another Biblical epic. Richard Gere and a fine supporting cast present a fresh new look at the people who actually lived the events that have become legend-from David's battle with Goliath to his self-destructive yearning for Bathsheba.

The Last Englishman

Cheryl Hall, Tony Haygarth, Matthew

Ashford - Dir. John Henderson

A True Life Story Of Real Heroes & Villains. Jim Broadbent (The Avengers, Bullets Over Broadway) immerses himself in the role of the eccentric and moralistic British hero, Colonel Alfred Wintle, renowned for single-handedly capturing an entire French village during World War I. After the war, while serving in British Intelligence, a quarrel with his superiors ended with confinement in the Tower of London. A maverick figure with a brilliant mind and intense convictions, Wintle was regarded by many as slightly batty, but not to himself. Inflexible, outspoken and chauvinistic to the end, he proclaimed to all who would listen that he thanked God every night for making him English. A fascinating tale of pride, strength and the ultimate cost of personal conviction.

Thandie Newton, Harriet Walter, Patricia Hodge, Diana Quick, Anna Galiena, David Warner, Lambert Wilson, Barry Humphries - Dir. John Dugan
As opening night approaches, the theater world holds its breath. Now life begins to imitate art, and the lethal violence scripted to end the play may become all too real. A brash young American, Robin Grange (Jon Bon Jovi), comes to London to star in a major new production - and becomes the central character in a mystery fueled by intrigue and passion. Celebrated playwright Felix Webb (Lambert Wilson) asks the charismatic leading man to seduce his wife, Helena (Anna Galiena), freeing Felix to carry on his illicit romance with beautiful actress Hilary Rule (Thandie Newton). But Robin soon reveals an ominous dark side, a fondness for firearms, and a taste for other men's women. Now playwright and actor are locked in a bitterly personal two-man show, which threatens to explode in a deadly climax.

Lucky Break

Christopher Plummer, Olivia Williams, Timothy Spall, James Nesbitt, Lennie James - Dir. Peter Cattaneo
An escapist comedy form the director of „The Full Monty“. Small-time crook Jimmy Hands (James Nesbitt) fears his luck may have run out. After a botched bank robbery, Jimmy finds himself in prison with a 12 year sentence. But Jimmy's fortunes turn when the warden (Christopher Plummer), an amateur playwright, asks Jimmy to recruit prisoners to act in a musical that he's written and plans to stage in the prison's chapel. Realizing that the chapel offers the perfect escape route, Jimmy throws himself into the job. But Jimmy's plan is threatened when the warden casts Jimmy as the leading man opposite the prison's beautiful psychologist (Olivia Williams, The Sixth Sense). Now Jimmy and the cast run the risk of being caught in both the stage's spotlights and the prison's searchlights.

Married Life (Blu-ray)

Patricia Clarkson, Rachel McAdams, Pierce Brosnan, Chris Cooper, David Richmond Peck - Dir. Ira Sachs
A strong blend of suspense, star-crossed romance and wry comedy of manners, Married Life is an unconventional human drama about the irresistible power and utter madness of love. Harry (Chris Cooper) decides he must kill his wife Pat (Patricia Clarkson) because he loves her too much to let her suffer when he leaves her. Harry and his much younger girlfriend Kay (Rachel McAdams) are head over heels in love but his best friend Richard (Pierce Brosnan) wants to win Kay for himself. As Harry implements his awkward plan for murdering his wife, the other characters are occupied with their own deceptions. Like Harry, they are overwhelmed by their passions, but still struggle to avoid hurting others. Married Life is an uncommonly adult film that surprises and confounds expectations. While it plays with mystery and intrigue, its ultimate concern is: What is Married Life? In its sly way, Married Life poses perceptive questions about the seasonal discontents and unforeseen joys of all long-term relationships.

All new adventures of Dickens' beloved character!. The optimistic Mr. Wilkins Micawber is a man fond of large words and never uses one when several will do. Set in Victorian England, this delightful comic miniseries, starring David Jason (The Darling Buds Of May) is inspired by the character from Charles Dickens' David Copperfield. Set in the years before his encounter with Copperfield, we meet Micawber and his ever-increasingly family as he struggles to keep up appearances. Even with the creditors banging on the door, the ever-cheerful man of the house fully expects „something to turn up“ in the way of employment. Despite threats from the local moneylender, disapproving in-laws, less-than-honest employers and his own astoundingly bad timing, Micawber will not be discouraged. He enthusiastically hurls himself into any opportunity that presents itself, whether stage-managing (badly) a theatrical melodrama or serving as a butler to eccentric aristocrats. Filmed on location in the English countryside and featuring an array of colourful Dickens-like characters, Micawber is an imaginative lark through the

Mishima: A Life In Four Chapters - The Criterion Collection

Ken Ogata - Dir. Paul Schrader
Paul Schrader's visually stunning, structurally audacious collage-like portrait of acclaimed Japanese author and playwright Yukio Mishima (played by Ken Ogata) investigates the inner turmoil and contradictions of a man who attempted an impossible harmony between self, art, and society. Taking place on Mishima's last day, when he famously committed public seppuku (ritual suicide), the film is punctuated by extended flashbacks to the writer's life as well as gloriously stylized evocations of his fictional works. With its rich cinematography by John Bailey, exquisite sets and costumes by Eiko Ishioka, and unforgettable, highly influential score by Philip Glass, Mishima: A Life In Four Chapters is a sincere tribute to its subject and a bold, investigative work of art in its own right.

Riccardo Scamarcio - Dir. Daniele Luchetti

The violent political unrest of 1960s Italy brings simmering tensions between two feuding brothers to the boiling point in this critically acclaimed film. Eager to distance themselves from each other, Accio (Elio Germano, Do You Like Hitchcock?, Respiro: Grazia's Island) and older brother, Manrico (Riccardo Scamarcio, Romanzo Criminale, Three Steps Over Heaven), join opposing political parties but are tied together by their dysfunctional working-class family...and a beautiful girl named Francesca. As the turbulent decade comes to a close, the brothers slowly discover they're more alike than they thought, but that realization might come too late.

Never Back Down

Djimon Hounsou, Amber Heard, Sean Faris,
Cam Gigandet - Dir. Jeff Wadlow

Jake (Sean Faris) is the new kid in school. When a beautiful girl (Amber Heard) befriends him, Jake thinks he's set. But instead, her fight-club boyfriend, Ryan (Cam Gigandet), smacks Jake a bloody, black-eyed welcome. Humiliated, Jake then turns to a mixed martial arts (MMA) master (Djimon Hounsou), who teaches him how to fight...and how to walk away. But it becomes obvious that a brutal re-match is inevitable if Jake wants to stop Ryan and his bullying, once and for all.

OSS 117

A box-office sensation in France, comic star Jean Dujardin stars as secret agent Hubert Bonisseur de la Bath, a.k.a. OSS 117 who in the tradition of Maxwell Smart and Inspector Clouseau somehow succeeds in spite of his ineptitude. After a fellow agent and close friend is murdered, Hubert is ordered to take his place at the head of a poultry firm in Cairo. This is to be his cover while he investigates Jack's death, monitors the Suez Canal, checks up on the Brits and Soviets, burnishes France's reputation, quells a fundamentalist rebellion and brokers peace in the Middle East. A blithe and witty send-up not only of spy films of that era and the suave secret agent figure but also neo-colonialism, ethnocentrism and the very idea of Western covert action in the Middle East.

The Outlaw Josey Wales

Clint Eastwood, John Vernon, Sondra Locke, Bill McKinney, Chief Dan George - Dir. Clint Eastwood
As The Outlaw Josey Wales, Clint Eastwood is ideal as a wary, fast drawing loner, akin to the „Man With No Name“ from his European Westerns. But unlike that other mythic outlaw, Josey Wales has a name - and a heart. The heart opens up as the action unfolds. After avenging his family's brutal murder, Wales is pursued by a pack of killers. He prefers to travel alone, but ragtag outcasts are drawn to him - and Wales can't bring himself to leave them unprotected. Time called it one of 1976's best movies. Over time, The Outlaw Josey Wales has secured a placed as one of the top Westerns ever.

The Outsiders

Matt Dillon, Patrick Swayze, Ralph Macchio, Thomas Howell, Diane Lane, Tom Cruise, Rob Lowe, Emilio Estevez, Leif Garrett - Dir. Francis Ford Coppola
They grew up on the outside of society. They weren't looking for a fight. They were looking to belong.. In 1966 Tulsa, teenagers come two ways. If you're a „soc,“ you've got money, cars, a future. But if you're a „greaser,“ you're an outsider with only your friends...and a dream that someday you'll finally belong. Francis Coppola's powerful film of S.E. Hinton's classic novel captures how it feels to be caught between childhood's innocence and adulthood's disillusionment. The ensemble is a Who's Who of young talents of the past two decades: Matt Dillon, Tom Cruise, Emilio Estevez, C. Thomas Howell, Diane Lane, Patrick Swayze, Rob Lowe and Ralph Macchio. Movingly and in an intensely visual style, Coppola has made these street rats and their struggle heroic - and unforgettable.

The Picture Of Dorian Gray

Years change, handsome Dorian Gray does not. He remains youthful-looking. But a portrait of him tells another story. It changes with the years, revealing the horrific effects of Gray's life of debauchery and evil. From Oscar Wilde's novel and filmed in a rapturous, deep-focus style that earned a Best Cinematography Academy Award, this chilling tale remains unchanging in its power to entertain. Hurd Hatfield plays the rakish title character in this morality tale, also featuring George Sanders as a Wilde-like dandy who leads Gray to perdition, Best Supporting Actress Oscar nominee Angela Lansbury as a music-hall thrush victimized by Gray, plus Donna Reed and Peter Lawford. Every picture tells a story. But none tells as haunting a tale of terror like The Picture Of Dorian Gray.

Plain Jane

Celia Imrie, Corin Redgrave, Emma Cunliffe, Keith Barron, Lesley Manville, Jason Hughes - Dir. John Woods
The Father. The Son. The Maid. A Love Triangle That Can Only Lead To Tragedy.. 1911 London is the setting for this dark drama of sexual obsession and murder. Kevin Whately (Inspector Morse, Peak Practice) stars as David Bruce, a newly prosperous gas inspector who moves to London with his new wife and their infant daughter. Their new station in life affords them the luxury of a life-in maid named Jane. Penned by award-winning writer, Lucy Gannon (Peak Practice, Hope and Glory, Soldier Soldier), the turbulent story follows the collapse of David's mental health as the pressures of his new job take a terrible toll. As David's work creates more and more stress, he forces his attentions on his new maid, unaware that his adult son from a previous marriage is wooing the same woman. The façade of respectability begins to erode and what follows is a tale of secret love, addiction, lies, violence, murder and madness. The only hope of redemption exists in the character of a poor servant girl, Plain Jane!

Brittany Snow, Jessica Stroup, Johnathon Schaech, Scott Porter - Dir. Nelson McCormick
Three years ago, Donna (Brittany Snow, John Tucker Must Die) watched in horror as an obsessed predator (Johnathon Schaech, That Thing You Do!) murdered her family. Tonight is her senior prom and although she's anxious about the past, she's excited to celebrate her future with her friends. What Donna doesn't know is that the deranged psychopath has escaped from the asylum. He's returned to hunt her down, intent on killing anyone who gets in his way. As the night races towards its heart-pounding conclusion, the question becomes not who will be prom queen, but who will survive the killer's rampage.

The Proposition (Steelbook)

Nick Cave, Chiara Menage, Cat Villiers, John Hillcoat - Dir. John Hillcoat
The Proposition. In the harsh, unforgiving landscape of the Outback, Charlie Burns is presented with an impossible proposition by local law enforcer Captain Stanley; the only way to save his younger brother Mikey from the gallows is to track down and kill Arthur, his psychotic older brother. Meanwhile, Captain Stanley has other problems to contend with. Having given up their comfortable life, he is desperate to shield his innocent wife Martha from the brutalities of their new surroundings. He also faces mounting pressure from renegade natives and his superior Eden Fletcher to bring order to the region. An uneasy sense of foreboding grows as events close in and each character faces a punishing moral dilemma that leads to a murderous climax.

Racing With The Moon (I Love The 80's)

Sean Penn, Elizabeth McGovern, Nicolas Cage - Dir. Richard Benjamin
Artfully directed by Richard Benjamin, Racing with the Moon is a film so tender, so insightful, so full of heart that you'll never quite forget it. This is the story of Henry „Hopper" Nash (Sean Penn) and his buddy Nicky (Nicolas Cage) enjoying their last boyish exploits before they enter the Marines. Elizabeth McGovern portrays Penn's mysterious girlfriend. What ensues is a tender, bittersweet tale of lost innocence and the trauma of growing up too fast. The result is a magic moment, brilliantly captured within the emotional crosscurrent of America's most dramatic time.

Anthony Valentine, Christopher Strauli - Dir. Alan Gibson
The first step. Based on the character created by E.W. Hornung, Anthony Valentine stars as the gentleman burglar, A.J. Raffles. Raffles is a gentleman by every definition: a man of good social position, of wealth and leisure. He is young, popular with the ladies and moves in the best social circles, but behind the gallant facade of this well-bread bachelor is a more ominous side. This perfect gentleman is equally at home lurking in the fog and creeping through the gas-lit shadows of London's maze of tiny streets and alleys or breaking into some rich dowager's bedroom and 'lifting' priceless jewellery by torchlight. Whether he is showing up a braggart or defending England's honor, nothing is safe from the irrepressible Raffles. From the Italian Embassy to the British Museum, the game begins as Raffles reunites with his old schoolmate, Bunny and plays cat and mouse with his nemesis, Inspector

Raffles 2

Anthony Valentine, Christopher Strauli - Dir. Alan Gibson
To catch a thief. England at the turn of the century...the golden era of moneyed aristocracy, champagne parties and long summer weekends in the country. A.J. Raffles, a gentleman by every definition, is in constant demand as a houseguest at some of the grandest country estates and as the darling of the cricket fraternity. Little do his high-class friends know that the debonair, top-hatted man-about-town cracks safes and burgles ladies' bedrooms. Behind the public image of this well-bread bachelor is a master thief. He steals stealthily through the immaculate shrubbery of stately houses, scales the ivy-clad walls and clammers cat-like across rooftops with the same panache that he takes onto the dance floor. Whether he is teaching an unscrupulous moneylender a lesson or avenging the honor of Her Majesty, the Queen, Raffles, together with schoolmate, Bunny, sets forth on his most extraordinary adventures to date. From Members of Parliament to the rich and beautiful, the game is afoot as Raffles battles his nemesis, Inspector Mackenzie and f

Reds (I Love The 80's)

Diane Keaton, Maureen Stapleton, Jack Nicholson, Warren Beatty, Paul Sorvino,

Jerzy Kosinski - Dir. Warren Beatty

Warren Beatty's award winning epic mixes drama and interviews with major social radicals of the period. Reds tells the story of the love affair between activists Louise Bryant and John Reed. Set against the backdrop of the tumultuous start of the twentieth century, the two journalists' on-again off-again romance is punctuated by the outbreak of WWI and the Bolshevik Revolution. Louise's assignment in France at the outbreak of the war puts an end to their affair. John Reed's subsequent trip to Russia, and his involvement with the Communist party, rekindles their relationship. When Louise arrives in Petrograd, she finds herself swept up in the euphoria of the Revolution. Reed, however, eventually becomes disillusioned with Communism when he sees his words and intentions augmented and controlled by the growing Soviet propaganda machine.

Lili Taylor, Sean Astin, Ned Beatty, Charles S. Dutton, Robert Prosky - Dir. David Anspaugh
All his life, people have told Rudy he’s not good enough, not smart enough, not big enough. But nothing can stop his impossible dream of playing football for Notre Dame. From the time he’s a young boy, Rudy (Sean Astin) is determined to join the Fighting Irish. But his blue-collar family only laughs at his ambitions - they know Rudy will follow his father and brother to the local steel mill. And, for four long years after high school, he does just that. But some dreams won’t die, as Rudy proves when he goes to heroic, occasionally hilarious, lengths to win admission to Notre Dame. Once there, he becomes a walk-on player, serving as little more than a human tackling dummy against the startling players. Bloodied but unbeaten, Rudy wins the respect of legendary coach Ara Parseghian and the other Irish players, who give him one shot at gridiron glory. An incredible, true story from the creators of Hoosiers, Rudy is an unforgettable testament to the power of dreams and the triumph of the common man.

Rustlers’ Rhapsody (I Love The 80’s)

Andy Griffith, Marilu Henner, Tom Berenger, Fernando Rey, G.W. Bailey - Dir. Hugh Wilson
An amusing spoof of the good ‘ole westerns back in the halcyon days when all the cliches were held up as icons, this parody by Hugh Wilson works best for savvy audiences. Rex O’Herlihan (Tom Berenger) is a singing cowboy with a wardrobe straight out of the Hollywood westerns of the ‘40s — he worships his horse, and has a trusty sidekick too. Every town he wanders into has a sheriff on the dole, a shady cattle rancher, a prostitute with a heart of gold, an innocent young damsel, a town drunk, and the standard bad guys in black hats and long coats (Spaghetti-western style) who brutalize the poor sheep ranchers. After setting things straight in each identical town as he goes, Rex is beginning to feel like a re-run junky when he saunters into a town that is slightly different — and the parodies continue.

Sarah Landon And The Paranormal Hour

Far away from home, in the small town of Pine Valley, Sarah Landon (newcomer Rissa Walters) finds herself all alone, staying in the guesthouse of her late friend’s grandmother. When she promised to visit, she didn’t realize she wouldn’t be staying in the main house, and she didn’t realize that the guesthouse was haunted. Or at least it seems that way with all the strange things that are going on in there. But that soon becomes the least of the 17-year-old’s worries. When she learns of the town’s dark secret, she finds herself in the middle of a haunting mystery that involves two brothers, the local psychic, and an evil spirit. The big question soon becomes, what will happen between midnight and 1 A.M.?

Self Medicated

Based on true events. On the edges of Las Vegas, 17-year-old Andrew's life is spiraling out of control, his descent into drugs and violence rapidly gaining momentum in what Variety calls „an especially blistering performance by Monty Lapica.“ His mother (Golden Globe nominee Diane Venora) is helpless to control her son and fighting an addiction of her own, but she refuses to watch her only child destroy himself. In a desperate last resort, she hires a private company to kidnap and confine him in a locked-down and corrupt psychiatric hospital. As Andrew is subjected to the secret physical and emotional abuses of the program, he realizes he must do whatever it takes to get free. But first he must face his own demons head-on.

Sex And Death 101

Patton Oswalt, Sophie Monk, Winona Ryder, Leslie Bibb, Julie Bowen, Mindy Cohn, Simon Baker, Neil Flynn - Dir. Daniel Waters
Less than two weeks before his wedding, good-guy Roderick Blank (Simon Baker of The Devil Wears Prada) receives a mysterious email listing every girl he's ever had sex with...and the 70+ names of everyone he ever will have sex with. But as Roderick begins enjoying all the strippers, porn stars, stewardesses and celebrity lesbians on the list, he discovers that his ultimate date with destiny may lay with the serial killer known as 'Death Nell' (Oscar nominee Winona Ryder). Is the luckiest man in the world now doomed to face the final position of the Karma Sutra? Leslie Bibb (Talladega Nights), Patton Oswalt (Ratatouille), Neil Flynn (Scrubs), Julie Bowen (BOSTON LEGAL), Sophie Monk (Date Movie) and Mindy Cohn (The Facts Of Life) co-star in this sexy black comedy written and directed by Daniel Waters, creator of the legendary cult classic Heathers.

Simone Barbes Ou La Vertu

Ingrid Borgoin, Michel Delahaye, Martine Simone

A walk on the wild side of Paris between sensation and survival. Where Eyes Wide Shut explored sexual themes on a bizarre journey through New York City, Simone Barbes ou la Vertu blazes its own risqué path on a fascinating tour through the seamier side of Paris. Simone is a quirky usherette who works at a Paris porno theater where she and a jaded, wise-cracking friend pass the time making fun of the theater's embarrassed clientele. When Simone isn't working, she watches her lesbian lover perform an elaborate burlesque parody at a seedy nightclub where intimacy is a commodity to be bargained for. But when Simone embarks on an erotic adventure of her own, her cynical urban façade is stripped away, revealing a vulnerable young woman adrift in an emotional wasteland where sex is a dangerous game strictly for kicks.

European War 2 Pack. From the same production team as the critically acclaimed Das Goot, this film brings the bloodiest battle in the history of warfare to the screen - the legendary battle of Stalingrad. With German forces following Hitler's orders to neither retreat or surrender, over 2 million Russians and Germans lost their lives in what came to be a turning point in the defeat of Germany in the Second World War. Pulling no punches in revealing the gritty reality of combat, the viewer is put in the trenches with the young soldiers as they face the harsh elements and brutal fighting conditions. Considered in the company of such anti-war classics as Pubs of Glory, Platoon, and Apocalypse Now, Stalingrad stands alone in its searing unforgettable imagery... Two young boys, Halil, a Muslim, and Milan, a Serb, watch the inauguration of the new Brotherhood and Unity Tunnel in their neighborhood in 1980. Twelve years later, Milan lies in a hospital bed, badly injured. Wounded Serbs and Muslims recover in the same hospital. Talladega Nights: The Ballad Of Ricky Bobby - Unrated (Widescreen with Digital Copy)

The fastest man on four wheels, Ricky Bobby (Will Ferrell) is one of the greatest drivers in NASCAR history. A big, hairy American winning machine, Ricky has everything a dimwitted daredevil could want, a luxurious mansion, a smokin' hot wife (Leslie Bibb) and all the fast food he can eat. But Ricky's turbo-charged lifestyle hits an unexpected speed bump when he's bested by flamboyant Euro-idiot Jean Girard (Sacha Baron Cohen, TV's Da Ali G Show) and reduced to a fear-ridden wreck. Losing his wife and job to best bud and fellow fool, Cal Naughton, Jr. (John C. Reilly), Ricky must kick some serious asphalt if he's to get his career back on the track, beat Girard and reclaim his fame and fortune. "Cause as Ricky Bobby always says, IF YOU AIN'T FIRST, YOU'RE LAST!

Tierra De Pasiones

A beautiful valley dotted with wineries and vineyards serves as the backdrop for this tale of love, hate, passion and intrigue. Valeria San Roman (Gabriela Spanic) is strong, rebellious, and a constant thorn in the side of her father, Don Chema (Hector Suarez), an ambitious man who acquired his wealth through treachery. Soon after leaving her fortune-hunting fiancée at the altar, she meets Francisco Contreras (Saul Lisazo), recent heir to his bankrupt father's winery. They decide to form a business partnership, which would not only save the Contreras family business, but also make Valeria independent of her unloving father. Initially, their strong personalities clash, but as they get to know and respect each other, a love develops between them that must withstand the forces that are trying to tear them apart. Among them are Don Chema and Francisco's young stepmother, Marcia (Catherine Siachoque), who become both lovers and allies as they conspire to take control of the Contreras ranch; also Roberto (Arap Bethke), Francisco's troubled son, and Belinda (Geraldine Bazan), Valeria's spoiled, capricious daug

Time After Time

Malcolm McDowell, Mary Steenburgen, David Warner - Dir. Nicholas Meyer
H.G. Wells Races Through Time To Catch Jack The Ripper!. London 1893 is home to a killer with a macabre nickname... and also to a visionary genius who would write The Time Machine. But what if H.G. Wells' invention wasn't fiction? And what if Jack the Ripper escaped capture fleeing his own time to take refuge in ours - with Wells himself in pursuit? From writer/director Nicholas Meyer, Time After Time is a marvelous entertainment of shivery suspense and sly social comment. In modern-day San Francisco, the Ripper (David Warner) finds our violent age to his liking. Wells (Malcolm McDowell) dislikes the brave new world of fast food and television, far from the utopia he envisioned. But he is cheered by the emancipation of women, particularly one irresistible banker (Mary Steenburgen). For mystery, romance and excitement, Time After Time is time well spent.

War Live

Based on true characters and events. A producer named Sergei and his crew are in a desperate situation. Money for the project has run out, the accounts are frozen and Yugoslavia is expecting a NATO air raid. On top of that, Mileta, a member of the state secret service, shows up at the studio looking for co-producer Harvey. In an effort to salvage things as best he can, Sergei calls a press conference to announce that the best retort to the falling bombs would be a new patriotic film with his American friend Harvey acting the lead. The state takes over sponsorship of the film and Mileta naturally becomes the filmmakers' right hand man. He soon realizes that 'his filmmakers' are not concerned about the fate of the country and that most of them aren't too thrilled with Slobodan Milosevich's regime. The shooting is in jeopardy and the crew looks for a solution to finishing the film. Only now does Sergei finally begin to realise that it simply isn't possible to compromise with a totalitarian power.

We're No Angels (I Love The 80's)

Sean Penn, Demi Moore, Bruno Kirby, Robert De Niro, James Russo, Hoyt Axton - Dir. Neil Jordan
There's something funny about those two new priests. In fact, there's something downright hilarious. Because Robert DeNiro and Sean Penn aren't clergymen at all. They're escaped cons whose only prayer is to pass themselves off as men of the cloth — and pass right by a police blockade at the border and into the safety of Canada. Demi Moore joins DeNiro and Penn in the clever romp scripted by David Mamet. The cons are loose and the comedy is on. It'll be a sin to miss it!

Anne Sofie Von Otter, Paul Groves - Dir. Brian Large

Robert Wilson's production of Gluck's 1776 French version of „Alceste“ is striking with theatrical symbols. The intriguing visual arena is complemented by the fact that the piece is conducted for the first time with a period instrument ensemble, the English Baroque Soloists. The excellent Monteverdi Choir provides the chorus, with dancers taking their place on stage. Together, they give a magnificently persuasive expression to the horror and compassion demanded by Christoph Willibald Gluck's most elevated and sublime works

Bach's Mass In B Minor: Neubeuern Choral Society

The inspired fusion of both vocal and sacred music makes Bach's monumental Mass in B Minor the most sublime manifestation of the composer's spirit. Completing and perfecting the Mass preoccupied him till virtually his dying breath. The performance of the work was recorded in the magnificent setting of the Wieskirche, the pilgrimage church of Steingaden Abbey in Bavaria. Conductor Enoch zu Guttenberg and the Neubeuern Choral Society have won widespread acclaim for their interpretations of Bach's great choral works. They perform with soloists Anna Korondi (soprano), Iris Vermillion (contralto), Deon van der Walt (tenor), Dietrich Henschel (baritone), Albert Dohmen (bass) and the Orchester der Klangverwaltung.

Maurice Bejart's The Nutcracker

Dir. Ross MacGibbon

A little boy sits by a feeble Christmas tree from which salvaged garlands sadly hang. Suddenly, in a dream or by magic, his dead mother appears and places a small gift at the foot of the tree. An enchanted night begins in which a miraculous icon, friends, angels and light fill the room along with laughter and awe-inspiring dance. Is it a dream or is it reality? Maurice Bejart's version of the well-loved Christmas ballet is magical. His staging transforms the piece into an enchanting autobiography and a loving homage to the choreographer's mother and his creative hero, Marius Petipa. The stage is flooded with allusions to Bejart's actual and imaginary history, including both real and symbolic characters mixed with childhood memories to create a universe of feeling that reaches its peak in a faithful recreation of the original Pas de Deux — a true declaration of love.

Berlioz Symphonie Fantastique/ Nuits D'Ete

Classical music was forever changed with the premiere of SYMPHONIE FANTASTIQUE on December 5, 1830, introducing audiences to the exhilarating sounds of a modern orchestra. Exciting and innovative, the work influenced every subsequent composer because of the power and novelty of the melody, its form, harmony and orchestration. Under composer Hector Berlioz's direction, the orchestra ventured places musically that had never been explored, soaring with the freedom, fantasy and originality that were the hallmarks of the Romantics. MONTPELLIER PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA The Montpellier Philharmonic Orchestra has emerged in a brief period of time as one of the outstanding French musical ensembles. The Blues: The Soul Of A Man

Dir. Wim Wenders

A Film By Wim Wenders. In The Soul Of A Man, director Wim Wenders looks at the dramatic tension in the blues between the sacred and the profane by exploring the music and lives of three of his favorite blues artists: Skip James, Blind Willie Johnson and J.B. Lenoir. Part history, part personal pilgrimage, the film tells the story of these lives in music through an extended fictional film sequence, rare archival footage, present-day documentary scenes and covers of their songs by contemporary musicians such as Shemekia Copeland, Alvin Youngblood Hart, Garland Jeffreys, Bonnie Raitt, Marc Ribot, The Jon Spencer Blues Explosion, Lucinda Williams and T Bone Burnett. Says Wenders: „These songs meant the world to me. I felt there was more truth in them than in any book I had read about America, or in any movie I had ever seen. I've tried to describe, more like a poem than in a 'documentary', what moved me so much in their songs and voices.“

Mass In C Major K 317 „Coronation Mass“ Mozart. Stabat Mater Pergolese. Created in 1986 by conductor Bernard Le Monnier, this group performs both as a chamber orchestra with 17 instruments and as a full orchestral ensemble with 30 to 40 instruments, which gives it wide latitude in terms of repertoire, running from the baroque period to contemporary works. All of the musicians have won honors from the National Conservatory of Paris or from national conservatories in France's provinces. The ensemble has performed in the prestigious concert halls in Europe and has won an enthusiastic following, thanks to its dynamism, unity of tone, and the quality of its musical resonance.

Coppelia: Lyon National Opera Ballet

Dir. Thomas Grimm
The story of Coppelia explores a young man's passion for a beautiful girl who actually is a mechanical doll, exploring mythological theme of creating a being who is more beautiful, more perfect and more tantalizing than any human counterpart. From start to finish, Maguy Marin's Coppelia is a hugely entertaining and constantly surprising piece of dance theater. Marin transposes the piece from its original rustic setting to a modern run-down urban environment and adds an edgy new twist to the story.

Roger Daltrey: A Celebration

Roger Daltrey
With Pete Townshend And The Music Of The Who. The irony of celebrating his 50th birthday with an electrical musical extravaganza at New York City's Carnegie Hall was not lost on Roger Daltrey, the extraordinary voice of rock's most powerful band, the Who. Daltrey, the angry young man who once sang „Hope I die before I get old,“ is in exceptional form throughout this special evening of music featuring performances by fellow Who members Pete Townshend and John Entwistle, as well as special guest appearances by the Chieftans and saxophonist David Sanborn. The DVD presentation of A Celebration also includes songs not released on the earlier compact disc version, among them „You Better You Bet,“ „I Can See For Miles,“ „Love Reign O'er Me,“ „Behind Blue Eyes,“ „Amazing Journey,“ „I'm Free,“ and „See Me, Feel Me.“

Dance Theatre Of Harlem

*The Dance Theatre of Harlem, America's first outstanding classical ballet company of black dancers, started out as a ghetto experiment that quickly reached world-class level. It was created by Arthur Mitchell, a School of American Ballet student who had broken through ballet's color barrier by becoming the first black dancer to join an internationally renowned company, the New York City Ballet. In 1968, Mitchell opened a school: its first location was a disused garage in the heart of Harlem; the doors were kept open to admit air and anyone who looked in was invited to enroll. Within a year the first class of thirty students had grown to over four hundred. Their training embraced modern and ethnic as well as classical dance. Today the almost exclusively black company is known for its warmth and vitality. Mitchell consistently tries to foster black choreographic creativity, and the company has proven itself equally able to handle jazz-oriented and ethnic pieces as well as the classics. In this special studio production, the Dance Theatre Of Harlem performs a selection of its most popular works: Troy Sports, Ballet, Music 1989 FF S 59min.

Grieg: Piano Concerto / Symphonic Dances / In Autumn (Blu-ray)

In his own words, Grieg aspired to paint Norwegian nature, Norwegian folk-life, Norwegian history and Norwegian folk-poetry in music. In Autumn sees Grieg take inspiration from the forces of nature, both life-giving and destructive, whether it be from the farmers harvest celebrations or the ensuing death and decay, while the Symphonic dances make extensive use of Norwegian folk-melodies. Indeed it has often been said that the famous Piano Concerto has an element of untamed wildness in its opening timpani roll followed by the cascading chimes of the piano. Whatever its inspiration, this cornerstone of the piano repertoire remains one of the most enduringly-popular of all concertos on account of its profusion of inspired melodies, noble eloquence and poetic vitality. Grieg's spectacular music appears in the Blu-ray DTS-HD Master Audio lossless multichannel format. Watch photographs of lakes, rivers, mountains and forests enhanced with the superb high definition and surround sound music. The

Hansel and Gretel: Humperdinck - Opera Australia

Elizabeth Campbell, Christine Douglas, Suzanne Johnston, Margaret Haggart, Kathryn McCusker, Gail Robertson, Malcolm Donnelly
Hansel and Gretel, based on the story by the Brothers Grimm, is an opera which successfully bridges the generation gap. Elijah Moshinsky's critically acclaimed, wittily updated English production for the Australian Opera is truly theatrical blend of the once-upon-a-time and the here-and-now. Mark Thompson's ingenious designs take the familiar homely objects which furnish Hansel and Gretel's impoverished home and magnify, distort and reorder them in the surreal world in which the children get lost. Irreverent and refreshingly original, this production is an absolute delight with its rare blend of charm and style

Gustav Mahler: Das Lied Von Der Erde/Kindertotenli

Mahler began to compose DAS LIED BON DER ERDE (The Song Of The Earth) at Schluderbach in the Tyrol in the summer of 1907. His elder daughter had just died at the age of 4, and a specialist had diagnosed the seriousness of his own heart condition. A friend had earlier given him Han Bethge's The Chinese Flute for holiday reading, and this collection of German Translations and adaptations of Chinese poetry now suited his state of mind. BASS NORMANDY ORCHESTRAL ENSEMBLE Over the past 10 years, the Bass Normandy Orchestral Ensemble has strived to achieve its reputation as an innovative musical group. Its composition is ample proof of its originality: 12 string instruments, five wind instruments and two keyboard instruments. An unusual combination. Its originality also comes from the diversity of its repertoire, which covers a wide range of music in a spirit of open-mindedness. DOMINIQUE DEBART After directing the Lyon Opera Choirs, participating in numerous performances as a conductor and the greatest international conductors at the Aix-en-Provence Festival, Dominique Debart in 1984 was appointed director of Sam Moore, one half of the famous R&B duo Sam and Dave, has earned seven gold and platinum records and a 1967 Grammy Award. One of Stax Record's most successful groups, Sam and Dave were known for their trademark call and response style and emotional intensity, which echoed Sam's early years as a gospel singer. Supported by the songwriting talents of David Porter and Isaac Hayes, and with tracks punctuated by Stax Record's Memphis Horns they produced a string of hits starting with „You Don't Know Like I Know“ in 1964, and followed by such classics as „Hold On, I'm Coming“, „Soul Man“, „Soul Sister, Brown Sugar“ and „When Something Is Wrong With My Baby“. Since the early 1980's Sam Moore has won new acclaim as a solo artist, appearing in concert or on recordings with such fans as Phil Collins, Annie Lennox and the Eurythmics, Elvis Costello, Bonnie Raitt and Lou Reed.

Organs, Toccatas & Fantasias

This program can best be described as a journey across Baroque Europe in the company of Johann Sebastian Bach and one of the leading personalities of the world of organ music,

Marie-Claire Alain. Bach traveled little during his lifetime, but director Bruno Monsiegeon extends the geographical scope of Bach's activities by including organs best suited to his music. The instruments featured here, at venues including Haarlem, Groningen, Rotha and Dresden are ones which Bach himself would have played, or which were built to his specifications.

The Parsons Dance Company

Thomas Grimm, Thomas Grimm - Dir. Thomas Grimm

David Parsons is one of the golden boys of American dance. A witty terseness and probing intelligence mark his choreography, which conceals its difficulty behind silky casualness. In his program, seven of Parsons' works are featured, demonstrating the diversity of his influences and mastery of a wide scope of styles. The music he chooses ranges from Mozart and Rossini to King Crimson's Robert Fripp and specially-commissioned scores. Parson introduces each piece and it is easy to see why his charm, energy and integrity have won him a considerable following.

Gioacchino Rossini: Il Barbiere Di Siviglia - The Barber Of Seville

Jennifer Larmore, Richard Croft, Simone Alaimo, David Malis, Renato Capecchi

The Netherlands Opera. For his first opera production, Dario Fo, the theater director known for his brilliant wit, chose to stage Rossini's comedy The Barber of Seville as a joyful carnival for the Netherlands Opera. First mounted in 1987, it was a huge success, and a live recording of its revival in May 1992, the 200th anniversary of Rossini's birth, has been made. Fo has said that "Rossini is the musician of eating and love. He composes music rich in herbs and aromas, in which you find olives, tomatoes, fish, grapes, roses and rosemary, sheets and tablecloths, dry wine and the laughter of girls." His Barbiere is a joyful carnival. During the overture, he fills the stage with carnival revellers, and immediately the commedia dell'arte origins of opera buffa are restored. Visual theatrics abound, never at the expense of the music, but highlighting it, engaging the eye as well as the ear. Fo addresses the heart more than the intellect, and Rossini's comedy comes up dazzling and vital.

Sounds Magnificent: Berlioz - Symphonie Fantastique - Andre Previn

Andre Previn - Dir. Herbert Chappell
In this series of films, Andre Previn conducts the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in some of the most popular works from the concert repertoire — symphonies by Mozart, Hayden, Beethoven, Brahmas, Berlioz, Tchaikovsky and Shostakovich. Each program is introduced by Andre Previn, who discusses the piece to be performed and the lives of the composers who created these masterpieces by giving illustrations of aspects of their music with a variety of orchestral excerpts. In Paris, on September 11, 1827, the composer Hector Berlioz fell madly in love with an Irish actress, Harriet Smithson. The intensity of his infatuation became inextricably tangled with a symphony he was to compose, a composition that broke new ground with the lavish virtuosity of its orchestration. Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique is acclaimed as one of the most extraordinary and truly original works ever written.

Stabat Mater Box Set: Jubilaum Collection

Katia Ricciarelli, Maria Dragoni, Corrado Giuffredi

This Stabat Mater Box Set is a collection of the sacred musical works of Rossini, Pergolesi and Boccherini. The Stabat Mater, or "sorrowful mother," is represented in three distinctly different styles, beautifully performed by Maria Dragoni, Katia Ricciarelli and the Philharmonic di Busseto. These three separate works were filmed live in Rome, Italy. Gioacchino Rossini's "Stabat Mater" is the fourth concert in the renowned Jubilaum Concert Series commissioned by Pope John Paul II and the Vatican. Filmed by Carlo Di Palma at the Basilica di San Pancrazio Fuori le Mura in Rome. Rossini's "Stabat Mater" has long been considered the most beautiful arrangement of this classic work. Conducted by Corrado Giuffredi. A wonderful addition to the Jubilaum Collection, this concert filmed on location in Rome, Italy features world-renowned Soprano Katia Ricciarelli and the Benedetto Marcello Orchestra on the Good Friday performance of Giovanni Pergolesi's Stabat Mater. The Edgar G. Ulmer Collection #2

Marsha Hunt, Frank McHugh, William

Prince, Joseph Buloff, Hans Yaray

Carnegie Hall. In the tradition of Fantasia, Amadeus, and Shine, Edgar G. Ulmer's Carnegie Hall is an epic-length cinematic love letter to classical music. This was the first film ever permitted to be shot at Carnegie Hall, which was painstakingly restored to its original 1891 opening night splendor for the production Actress Marsha Hunt said that Carnegie Hall was „probably the most exciting film experience I've ever had.“ Although Hunt receives top billing, the real stars of the picture are the musicians: 2. Rise Stevens 3. Lily Pons 4. Ezio Pinza 5. Gregor Piatigorsky 6. Arthur Rubinstein 7. Jan Peerce 8. the Vatican Choir 9. Harry James 10. and others conducted by Leopold Stokowski, Bruno Walter and Arthur Rodzinski! It took the filmmakers three years of delicate scheduling to bring these luminaries together on screen. When Carnegie Hall was Later shown on TV, its 134 minutes length had to be trimmed to accommodate commercials, so broadcasters cut out many of the dazzling musical sequences. Ralph Vaughan William's: Riders To The Sea

Riders to the Sea is Vaughan Williams' most successful operatic achievement. It is short, but musically and emotionally on a grand scale. The setting is the rugged and stormy west coast of Ireland, where Irish dramatist J.M. Synge spent several summers, and where the primitive life of the inhabitants, whose existence depended almost entirely on the sea, provided him with the material for his great tragic play Riders to the Sea.

Vito Acconci In Conversation At Acconci Studio, New York

Vito Acconci in Conversation at Acconci Studio, New York. Vito Acconci (born 1940) currently lives and works in New York. His early work took the form of fiction and poetry; his last poems reduced words to indices of the writer's and reader's travel across the page. In the late 1960's and the early 1970's, his artworks used performance, photos, film and video as instruments of self-analysis and person-to-person relationships. His audio and video installations of the mid-1970's turned exhibition-spaces into community meeting-places, and his architectural games of the early 1980's made performative spaces for viewers. In the mid 1980's, his work crossed over into architecture, landscape, and industrial design, and in 1988 he started Acconci Studio, a theoretically-oriented design workshop. The studio treats architecture as an occasion for activity, making spaces fluid, changeable, and portable.

All Roads Film Festival: 5th Anniversary Collection

There are so many great stories that haven't yet been told and the All Roads Film Festival each year showcases the very best of these remarkable, little-known stories. Now in its 5th year, National Geographic continues its tradition to provide a forum for breakthrough films from underrepresented minority cultures from around the world. This compelling new collection takes the best of this year's pictures which interweave powerful, personal storytelling with unique cinematic perspectives. This 2-disc DVD release will coincide with the beginning of the festival's tour in three major U.S. cities beginning in September.

America's Railroads Box Set

Relive the thrill of journeying aboard old-time passenger cars and watching the changing American landscape as you trace the colorful histories and the actual operation of our nation's great rail lines. Step aboard the New York, New Haven & Hartford's famous „Yankee Clipper,“ and a New York Central Steam train pulled by a mighty Hudson locomotive. Witness the Pennsy's world-class trains that set new operating standards, and the elegance and service of early rail travel on the Baltimore & Ohio. Then head westward behind the powerful locos of the Southern Pacific, and learn how the steam engine and four Sacramento merchants created a major transportation empire after a golden spike united East and West in an epic railroading achievement.

The Best Of Tromadance Film Festival: Volume 5

Tromadance is the first film festival wholeheartedly devoted to filmmakers and film fans. Unlike every other film festival, Tromadance does not charge filmmakers to submit their films, nor charges an entry fee for public screenings or has special VIP reservations or preferential treatment regarding films, panels or parties of any kind given. Taking place at the same time as Sundance in Park City, Utah, Tromadance has established itself as the truly independent alternative that gives art back to the people! Tromadance features a range of films made independently, usually without big stars and big money, and far away from the Hollywood studio system. Tromadance selections have been made with passion, courage, integrity and raw talent.

Anthony Bourdain: No Reservations - Collection 3

Anthony Bourdain
In a food-obsessed world, best-selling author Anthony Bourdain stands apart as the consummate culinary adventurer. This globe-trotting hedonist known as the „gastronomic Indiana Jones“ scrupulously explores a locale's cuisine like no other TV traveler - in this all-new, complete Season 3 collection, he nibbles caviar and goes clubbing in Moscow, samples the finest Thai Town noodles in Los Angeles, investigates rumors of cannibalism and tests hangover antidotes in French Polynesia and so much more. Russia: Tony and his guide, Zamir, enjoy some shopping and a hearty meal of shashlyk, (a cousin of the kabob), stop to take in the grandeur of the Red Square and meet a former spy who was known to infiltrate the enemy lines and is now infamous throughout Russia. Los Angeles: Anthony cruises the city's fringes in a vintage Delta Royale, visits L.A. institution Roscoe's Chicken and Waffles for fried chicken, waffles, grits and chicken livers; rolls with the punches in a private lesson with the L.A. Derby Dolls; and enjoys fresh goat tacos in historic Boyle Heights. New York: After a traditional Russian

Breaking The Maya Code

For almost 2000 years, the ancient Maya of Central America recorded their history and ideas in an intricate and beautiful hieroglyphic script, carved on stone monuments and painted on pottery and bark-paper books. Then, in the 16th century, Spanish invaders burned their books and ruthlessly extinguished hieroglyphic literacy. By the 18th century, when stone inscriptions were discovered buried in the jungles of Central America, no one on earth could read them. Breaking The Maya Code is the story of the 200-year struggle to unlock the secrets of the hieroglyphs. Based on archaeologist Michael Coe's book, called by The New York Times „one of the great stories of twentieth century scientific discovery,“ and filmed in nine countries, this amazing detective story is filled with false leads, rivalries and colliding personalities. It takes us from the jungles of Guatemala to the bitter cold of Russia, from ancient Maya temples to the dusty libraries of Dresden and Madrid. The heroes of the story are an extraordinary and diverse group of men and women: linguists and mathematicians, artists and adventurers, arche

Chicago 10

Dir. Brett Morgen
From Brett Morgen, director of The Kid Stays In The Picture, comes a highly-stylized and wildly original documentary film, chronicling the real-life events surrounding the anti-war protest of the 1968 Democratic National Convention held in Chicago and the charismatic protest organizers brought to trial by the city. Told through a visually-arresting animation style and a bold use of archival footage and music, Chicago 10 channels yesterday's voices for peace in a manner that speaks peace for today.

Dali In New York

Salvador Dali - Dir. Jack Bond
Filmmaker Jack Bond and Salvador Dali got together at Christmas 1965 to make Dali In New York, a highly entertaining film. Dali devoted two weeks of his life to creating extraordinary scenes for the film, performing „manifestations“ with a plaster cast. A thousand ants and one million dollars in cash. When he confronts the feminist writer, Jane Arden, sparks fly. „You are my Slave! I am not your slave. Everybody is my slave.“ Dali recalls his meeting with Freud. „The last human relationship ever“ About his wife, „But for Gala I would be lying in a gutter somewhere covered with lice“ Jim Desmond's dazzling cinematography captures the great artist painting as Flamenco virtuoso Manitas de Plata performs. Dali in New York is a rare treat for anyone who loves film and the living theatre of Dali's surreal universe.

Deadly Beauty: Snow's Secret Life

A Documentary By Steve Kroschel. A low rolling thunder. A flash of light. In less than a few seconds, a massive mountain top slips from its perch of a thousand years. Within a minute the mountain's snowy blanket has unwrapped itself and obliterated everything in its path. Never before has the true fury and power of the avalanche been captured on film. In Deadly Beauty: Snow's Secret Life, filmmakers risked life and limb to photograph the most awesome display of icy devastation. This spectacular 90-minute documentary includes interviews with scientists and never-before-seen footage to provide an incomparable visceral and educational experience contrasting the destructive chaos of the avalanche with the geometric precision and brilliance of the snowflake. Deadly Beauty: Snow's Secret Life explores snow's multitude of formations as scientists explain the recklessly random events that must occur to create each of these apparitions of deadly beauty known as the avalanche.

Democracy And Disappointment: On The Politics Of Resistance - Alain Badiou And Simon Critchley In Conversation

Democracy and Disappointment. Alain Badiou (1937) taught philosophy at the University of Paris VIII from 1969 until 1999, and then at the Ecole Normale Supérieure (ENS). Much of Badiou's life has been shaped by his dedication to the consequences of events of May 1968. Long a leading member of Union des Jeunes Communistes de France (marxistes-léninistes), he remains with Sylvain Lazarus and Natacha Michel at the center of L'Organisation Politique, a post-party organization concerned with direct popular intervention in a wide range of issues (including immigration, labor, and housing). He is the author of several successful novels and plays as well as more than a dozen philosophical works. In the 1980s, Badiou published a series of technical and abstract philosophical works such as Théorie du sujet (1982), and his magnum opus, Being and Event (1988). In the last decade, an increasing number of Badiou's works have been translated into English, such as Ethics, Deleuze, Manifesto for Philosophy, and Metapolitics. Director's Cut

Where do you go if you are searching for the hottest, sexiest Peach DVD scenes ever put on film? You go to the source.

And that's just what we did when we sat down with the award winning Peach directors Jim Monroe (Crusin' Jennaville, Hotel Decadence, Alley Dogs) and The Dirty Partnership (Lesbionage, Look of Passion, Roller Booty). We asked them for their choices for a directors cut edition DVD and also to give us a little commentary on the scenes they selected. The result is some of the most scintillating and bulge inducing scenes Peach has ever released. This is the best of the best, stunning sets, lush locations, and of course, some of the most gorgeous women in the world. Peach is proud to present The Director's Cut.

Edvard Grieg: What Price Immortality?

Dir. Thomas Olofsson
Narrated by Derek Jacobi. Renowned Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg was a restless, complex character forever on the move, constantly searching for peace, happiness and, above all, perfection. In a series of flashbacks, Grieg as an older man returns home and summons up the essential stuff of his life—relationships, school, loneliness, death and the achievement of fame. Pianist Staffan Scheja takes the role of Grieg in this fully dramatized film about his life. The only narrative is voice-over monologues by Grieg, spoken in the English version by the acclaimed classical actor Derek Jacobi. In a series of flashbacks, Grieg as an older man returns home and summons up the essential stuff of his life - relationships, school, loneliness, death and the achievement of fame. The Aurny Quartet is featured and full performances of Grieg's Ballade in G Minor Op. 24 and String Quartet No. 1 in G Minor Op. 27 are central to director Thomas Olofsson's film about the elusive genius.

IMAX: The Alps - Climb Of Your Life (Blu-ray)

In the air above Switzerland, on the sheer rock-and-ice wall known as the Eiger, an American climber is about to embark on the most perilous and meaningful ascent he has ever undertaken: an attempt to scale the legendary mountain that took his renowned father's life. Against a backdrop of overwhelming natural beauty, The Alps is a true-life story of extraordinary courage. It's the intensely personal journey of a man who has every reason not to climb the deadly Eiger North Face, yet climb it he must. Featuring some of the most spectacular giant-screen imagery yet seen, the film celebrates the unsurpassed beauty of the Alps and the indomitable spirit of the people who live there.

The Last Great Adventure

Dir. Garfield Kennedy

Achieving the Impossible: Aviation's ultimate challenge to fly nonstop around the world by balloon. As they float across oceans and smash into the ground, steer around hostile territories and barely survive killer storms, the daredevils who stake their claim to be the first to circumnavigate the Earth in a hot air balloon persistently cheat death. This thrilling documentary of the gripping voyage behind The Last Great Adventure of the 20th century includes special behind-the-scenes footage of the substantial failures and constant disappointments the brave challengers experience in order to achieve this nearly impossible record. Enjoy exclusive interviews and an intimate look into every attempt made by the three main challengers, Steve Fossett, an American businessman, Bertrand Piccard, Swiss psychiatrist and grandson of the first man to enter the stratosphere.

Annie Leibovitz

Dir. Rebecca Frayn

Annie Leibovitz's works stand as some of the most vivid and memorable documents of our time. "The Los Angeles Daily News. For the past twenty year Annie Leibovitz has been one of the world's highest-profile and most sought-after photographers. This documentary focuses on her life and career, ranging from Rolling Stone and a drug addiction that began on tour with the Rolling Stones to a new career at Vanity Fair and Leibovitz's current status as one of the highest-paid photographers working today. Join her in Hawaii and Los Angeles as she follows up her infamous cover portrait of a naked, pregnant Demi Moore with another photo shoot of the actress clad only in body paint. In a frank interview, Leibovitz shares how she became a photographer and reveals the deep passion that drives her work. Celebrated writer Hunter S. Thompson and Rolling Stone editor Jann Wenner also contribute to the program.

The Long Ride Home

Every May, hundreds of motorcyclists depart Ontario, Cali. For a ten day journey across the heartland of America. These veterans, their families, friends, and supporters travel to Washington, DC to participate in the Rolling Thunder Motorcycle Rally where half a million people gather at the Pentagon parking lot to honor the memory of America's POW/MIAs. From the first bike to roll out of Ontario to the first tear shed at the wall, The Long Ride Home chronicles the day-to-day journey of a Run for the Wall, a yearly event founded by Vietnam veterans who ride for those who cant. This 5 hour documentary features intimate and compelling interviews with veterans from WWI, WWII, Korean, Vietnam, Desert Storm and Iraq.

Mike Mentzer's Hit Exercise Bodybuilding

Witness history in the making as Mike Mentzer's HIT - High Intensity Training - exercise DVD shows you the real thing with the world's leading HIT authority (the only man to win Mr. Universe with a perfect score) and who single-handedly perfected HIT Theory. Mike guides muscular phenomenon Markus Reinhardt through three different high-intensity workouts as Markus is captured just a couple of weeks away from one of the most prestigious bodybuilding competitions held in Miami, Florida. You'll see Markus' Herculean physique struggling under mind blowing weights, while Mike advises him on proper exercise performance, keeps him motivated, and discusses relevant points of interest to millions of bodybuilders around the world. Also included is rare historic footage of Mike in various stages of pumping up in preparation for posing on the beach in Marina Del Ray, California. Here you have the opportunity to watch one of history's greatest physiques in breathtaking close-ups and full body posing. Mike Mentzer has packed 25 years of bodybuilding experience, training, study and contemplative thought into this incre

Mike Mentzer's Underground Seminar Bodybuilding

Mike Mentzer is a former world-class bodybuilder - he won the 1978 Mr. Universe with the first perfect score in history. But Mike's greatest achievements were to be his intellectual pursuits and teaching skills. This DVD is the only recording of one of Mike's legendary Underground Seminars: nearly two full hours of Mike discussing exercise fundamentals, their relationships, and stories of past clients. You'll hear Mike discuss exercise theory, applying that theory to bodybuilding and answering audience questions. He even explains the mistakes made by nearly everyone who picks up a weight, and much more. This DVD is a must for any fan of Mike Mentzer.

Degrees Could Change The World (Blu-ray)

By the year 2100, many scientists believe that the Earth's average temperature could rise by as much as six degrees Celsius. In a compelling investigation, National Geographic leads a degree-by-degree journey to explore what each rising - and critical - degree could mean for the future of our people and planet. Through powerful filmmaking and intimate profiles, this special illustrates how global warming has already affected the reefs of Australia, the ice fields of Greenland, and the Amazonian rain forest. With a sobering look at the effects of our world's insatiable appetite for energy, Six Degrees Could Change the World explains what's real, what's still controversial, and how existing technologies and remedies could help dial back the global thermometer.

Plan 9 From Syracuse

How far are you willing to go for a dream? On August 15th, 2006, filmmaker Ryan Dacko set out to get a 30-minute meeting with a major Hollywood producer by running on foot from Syracuse, New York to Hollywood, California. Plan 9 from Syracuse documents all the events surrounding Dacko's historical trek across the United States of America. In an ultimate example of reality filmmaking, every piece of footage is placed in chronological order as the events of Plan 9 from Syracuse are shown exactly as they happened. Watch as one man fights, with pure heart and determination, through blizzards, sandstorms, injuries, and an uncertain outcome. Plan 9 from Syracuse „presents a stunning portrait of bravery and dedication“ (Phil Hall, Film Threat Magazine). The result is a truly inspirational, and in-your-face look into the reality of independent filmmaking in the 21st century. Through intense video footage, brilliant still photography, and a haunting soundtrack by the acclaimed band, The Lost Patrol, another chapter is written in history as one man continues the classic pursuit of the American Dream: Plan 9 from

Quest For Sunken Warships

Hidden deep beneath the sea lies the wreckage of mighty war machines, each with untold stories of battles, glory and demise. Join us on the hunt for these antiques of the deep, and unlock the mysteries and the history waiting on the ocean floor. Each episode of Quest For Sunken Warships features authentic historical footage, CGI illustrations and archival materials of the battles being investigated, along with hi-resolution underwater images and live-action, on-site explorations of the sunken wrecks by our team of courageous divers. In 1942 German U-boats turned the waters off Cape Hatteras, North Carolina, into a sea of death. For six months the marauding U-boats patrolled the area unchallenged, sinking countless ships and littering the ocean and beaches with oil, cargo and bodies. Through the eye of an underwater camera we embark on an epic journey into shark-infested waters to reveal the evidence of war and the battle that took place right at our doorstep. As World War II raged in the South Pacific, Allied Forces faced one of the most formidable

Raise The Song: The History Of Penn State

This 60-minute documentary produced by Penn State Public Broadcasting (WPSU-TV) examines the people and events that have taken the Commonwealth's land-grant university from its humble roots as the Farmers' High School to an internationally recognized place of learning. Since the charter of the Farmers' High School was adopted in 1855, America has seen 30 presidents, a civil war, the women's suffrage movement, the Great Depression, two world wars, the civil rights movement, the Vietnam War, the Cold War, and the September 11 terrorist attacks, but through it all, Penn State has become one of the world's foremost teaching and research institutions, touching nearly every important era and event in American history.

The Search For Mengele

Josef Mengele, the 'Angel of Death,' was the most notorious SS doctor at Auschwitz. He sent hundreds of thousands of Jews to their deaths and performed appalling experiments on adults and children. After the end of World War II, Mengele was one of the world's most wanted war criminals - yet for the next forty years he escaped justice. Narrated and co-written by world-famous TV legend David Frost, The Search For Mengele traces Mengele's escape through Germany to Italy, then to Argentina, Paraguay and Brazil, where he finally met his end. It examines Mengele's life through the eyes of those who knew him, revealing how the infamous Nazi doctor lived out his last years, hiding out (in perverse irony) in a multi-racial society. And it confronts the fact that to simply dismiss Mengele as a solitary monster may be too convenient. Was Mengele alone responsible, or was he the product of a warped system of values? Can this dark moment in human history be repeated in the future? Why was he never caught? Filmed in ten countries including Germany, Israel, Poland and Brazil and featuring numerous interviews and photo

Secrets Of War: WWII Battle Set

Narrated by Charlton Heston. Discover the most daring covert operations, ingenious spy gadgets and cunning military deceptions that forever changed the course of history... Painstakingly researched with previously classified footage from private sources and government archives all over the world, Secrets Of War exposes the real stories of the 20th century's greatest conflicts! The struggle for the Atlantic pitted Germany's lethal U-boat fleet against every weapon the Allies could muster to protect their vital supply routes to Great Britain. The story of naval intelligence, code breaking and code stealing in the Battle of the Atlantic. June 1940, England stands alone against brutal aggression. The Germans have yet to be stopped in their lightning thrust across Europe. The British are outnumbered, but they have a secret weapon four years in the making. There were only 500 RAF fighter pilots in the Battle of Britain, but behind them, deep in the shadows of war, over 10,000 special men and women fought the battle of „Ultra," which helped mak

Shooting Henry Hill

Shooting Henry Hill is a documentary film focused on the life of mafia turncoat Henry Hill. Henry Hill's life of crime was forever immortalized in the 1990 film Goodfellas. But Henry's life continues on as he finds himself in the small Nebraska town of North Platte. For the first time, Shooting Henry Hill goes beyond romanticized mob tales. Henry's life has been anything but boring. He is the same guy portrayed by Ray Liota; but now, 62 years old. A lot has happened in the 25 years since testifying against the mob. He has been in and out of jail and still struggles with his addiction. This is a one of a kind glimpse into the life of the best known real mobster ever to be portrayed in American film. Ron Silver and the rest of the film crew are in for far more than they ever expected. This documentary is about more than telling Henry's story. It's about the experience of shooting Henry Hill.

Snuff

A Documentary About Killing on Camera is a feature film examining the existence of films in which people are murdered on camera and the culture surrounding them. Through interviews with former FBI Profilers, Cultural Academics, and Film Historians the documentary delves into the disturbing history and myth of Snuff Films. The FBI claims there is no evidence to prove the existence of Snuff and, therefore, Snuff Films are a myth. This documentary analyzes the relationships between war, cult films, serial killers and pornography to prove whether or not this pervasive myth is, in fact, reality.

Soul Prints: Your Path To Fulfillment

Elaine Werner, Sven Nebelung, Bob Marty - Dir. Bob Marty

Using the power of ancient and modern myth along with the wisdom of his own personal experiences, inspirational religious leader and philosopher Marc Gafni reveals an extraordinary approach to living happier, fuller lives. Addressing the age-old desire to feel „connected,“ Gafni offers advice on how to form bonds based in truth and love by identifying our true, unique selves — what he calls our „Soul Prints.“ According to Gafni, each person has a unique Soul Print, which, like a fingerprint, marks their individuality. Once you come to know your Soul Print, you will be able to connect on a far deeper level with yourself, others and the world around you. In this insightful program, Marc Gafni explains how to find your Soul Print, how to receive the Soul Print of another, and how to share your Soul Print with those you know. These life-enriching tools will empower you to overcome loneliness and enjoy life to its fullest.

Star Wars vs. Star Trek: The Rivalry Continues

For years, Star Wars fans have squared off against Star Trek fans over which space fantasy is the better choice. As a result, both franchises have been embroiled in a continuing battle for merchandise sales, publicity and box-office receipts. The science-fiction genre has never seen anything like it and, as these fictional universes continue to expand, the competition seems to be never ending. Star Wars vs. Star Trek: The Rivalry Continues compares the space opera worlds of George Lucas and Gene Roddenberry for a one-of-a-kind intergalactic documentary. It traces the origin and development of Star Trek from conception to the spinoffs and film series. It also takes an in-depth look at Star Wars from its sci-fi influences in the past to its continuing box-office clout. Interviews with such stars as William Shatner, George Lucas, Leonard Nimoy, Anthony Daniels, Billy Dee Williams, Carrie Fisher, James Doohan and many more help to explain the amazing phenomenon. Whether you're a Trekkie or a Jedi Knight, this is one show you won't want to miss! Collectors' bonus! Enjoy the comprehensive coverage o

The Story Of Top Gun

The True Story Of The Elite Fighter Pilot School. In 1968, American Air Force and Navy fighter pilots found themselves losing the air battle over the skies over North Vietnam. Even with their superior equipment, U.S. pilots were gunning down enemy jets at a meager two-to-one ratio, which was unacceptable. The Navy called on nine of its best fighter pilots to form a special graduate school to teach advanced air combat maneuvers to a select class of pilots. This was the beginning of the Top Gun school in Miramar, California. The inspiration for the major motion picture, the Top Gun school has been an elite training and testing ground for our nation's upper echelon of fighter pilots. It is a story of life and death — a story of a group of men who on sheer guts alone rebuilt the United States' approach to air-to-air combat.

Superbike World Championship 2002

The Official Superbike World Championship Review 2002. Some of the best riders, the fastest bikes and most prestigious tracks on the planet all add up to one thing: The World Superbike Championship. In 2002, Troy Bayliss and Colin Edwards put on a show of epic proportions in an all-out battle for one of the most sought-after titles in motorcycle racing. The first half of the season belonged to Bayliss. Six straight victories put the Australian firmly in the lead and he was beginning to look invincible. The chasing pack, including impressive Brit, Neil Hodgson, could only stand back and admire as the reigning champion dominated proceedings. Edwards came out of nowhere to win six in a row and edge into a single point lead after Bayliss had let it slip. The final round at Imola saw a top-class encounter of technique and bravery worthy of the legendary circuit. Both riders gave everything in a frantic tussle to decide who was the true champion of 2002. Great on-bike and trackside footage from every race, plus post-race interviews with the biggest names, make this official review the only way to see the act!

Taxi To The Dark Side

Dir. Alex Gibney
Oscar-nominated director Alex Gibney (Enron: The Smartest Guys In The Room) investigates the torture and killing of an innocent Afghani taxi driver in this gripping probe into reckless abuses of government power. Disturbing and incisive, the Academy Award-winner Taxi To The Dark Side incorporates rare and never-before-seen images from inside the Bagram Air Force Base in Afghanistan and Abu Ghraib and Guantanamo Bay prisons into its exposure of the Bush administration's „global war on terror.“ This stunningly crafted narrative demonstrates how this one man's life and death symbolizes the erosion of our civil rights and how what it means to be an American has changed forever.

Elizabeth Taylor: England's Other Elizabeth

Elizabeth Taylor - Dir. Chris Bould
Narrated by Nigel Hawthorne. Elizabeth Taylor is possibly the most famous woman in the world, remembered for her eight marriages, vast jewelry, multiple illnesses and flamboyant lifestyle. Born in London but raised in the old Hollywood studio system, the actress remains an icon, practically the last of Hollywood's royalty. It is a role she discusses openly, charmingly and with great good will in this authorized biography. Highlighted by interviews with Shirley MacLaine, Rod Steiger and Angela Lansbury, the ever-glamorous star shares reminiscences about Richard Burton, Montgomery Clift, Rock Hudson, James Dean, and Paul Newman, the pleasure of three Oscars® (two for Best Actress and one Humanitarian), and her dawning sense of responsibility at the onset of the AIDS crisis. Also featured are extended sequences from a number of her most famous films, including Cat On A Hot Tin Roof, Who's Afraid Of Virginia Woolf? and A Place In The Sun. To': Day Of Days - White Knuckle Extreme

From letting go of the tow rope to rocketing into the channel in a gale of compressed air and spray, the apex of one man's life all came together in a mere ten seconds which shook the surfing world. In August of 2000, Hawaiian big wave waterman Laird Hamilton, one of the creators of tow surfing, was pulled into the largest wave of the day by jet ski in the sleepy town of Teahupo'o. Broadcast internationally by CNN, Reuters and AAP news feeds, Hamilton's feat including being sling shot over a thick ledge where the wave hit the reef and almost tripled in size, which would have ended in severe injury or death if not successfully executed. The entire story of this amazing trip to Tahiti is documented a film The Surfers Journal hails as „the greatest combination of soul surfing and cutting edge futuristic surfing like never before seen!“

Too Much For TV Presents: Young Blonde And Naked

It's time to get to the root of that age old question...Do blondes really have more fun? We're having more than a few blonde moments, and for these bombshells, their hair is not the only thing bouncing, but it's definitely the only thing behaving! Does the carpet match the drapes? Who cares! It's real, raw and extremely uncensored. It's Too Much For TV, hosted by expert Scott Potasnik. Don't get us wrong, we've got nothing against brunettes or redheads, but if you want to have more fun, all you non-blondes out there should hit the bottle and all you blonde lovers should not miss this episode of Too Much For TV: Young, Blonde & Naked

Vlado: Thirty Years Later

This documentary tells the story of journalist Vladimir Herzog, nicknamed Vlado, who was tortured and murdered during the repression years of Brazilian military dictatorship. Vladimir Herzog is called to present himself at a police station in Sao Paulo on October 25, 1975. Vlado, with the firm belief he had nothing to hide, goes to the DOI-CODI police station. A few hours after arriving at the police station, the news of his death becomes public and announced as suicide. Director Joao Batista now attempts to uncover the events that took place at that time.

Young @ Heart

Dir. Stephen Walker
Get ready to rock out with the most entertaining „golden oldies“ you will ever meet, a fun-loving senior citizen's choir called Young@Heart. To prepare for a show in their hometown that is only weeks away, the lovable seniors must learn a slate of new songs, ranging from James Brown to Coldplay. The chorus' tireless musical director leads the group through a series of hilariously chaotic rehearsals, proving that hard rock can be hard work - especially when you're hard of hearing! Climaxing in a triumphant performance that will leave you cheering, their inspiring story celebrates the unbreakable bonds of friendship and the life-affirming power of music!
