DIGITAL EDITION

Nr. 269 - April 2010

editorial

Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Sind Sie nicht auch der Meinung, dass nur zwei Arme einfach zu wenig sind? Wer sich auch immer das Design des Homo Sapiens ausgedacht hat, der hat vermutlich nie damit gerechnet, dass ein solches Geschöpf auch einmal umziehen muss. Und dafür dürften es schon ein paar Arme mehr sein, mit denen man kräftig zupacken kann. Sie merken schon, dass wir momentan von muskelbildender Umzugsakrobatik vereinnahmt werden. Aber so ganz ohne einen neuen Newsletter wollten wir uns aus den alten Räumlichkeiten dann doch nicht verabschieden. Zumal die dafür notwendige Infrastruktur nach wie vor fabelhaft funktioniert. Ob das in den neuen Räumen auch von Anfang an so sein wird, das wird sich erst noch herausstellen. So schreiben wir diese wenigen Zeilen quasi auf einer Baustelle. Denn das alte Büro ist nur noch rudimentär vorhanden und die neuen Geschäftsräume bislang nur andeutungsweise eingerichtet. Aber in der Kürze liegt die Würze. Immerhin hat uns unsere Kolumnistin Anna einen schönen Bericht aus dem tschechischen Krnov mitgebracht. Sehr gerne wären wir in diesem Jahr auch dorthin gereist, um das traditionelle 70mm-Festival zu unterstützen, doch die zuvor erwähnten "Baustellen" haben das leider verhindert. Aber Annas Bericht von dort heizt unseren Appetit noch mehr an: 2011 werden wir dabei sein!

Krnov Calling

Hollywood liegt bekanntlich westwärts, doch vom 9. bis 11. April 2010 lag es eindeutig im Osten: in Krnov, in der Tschechischen Republik. Dort fand das fünfte KRRR! Filmfestival statt. Dieses 70mm-Festival ist eine Schöpfung von Pavel Tomešek, dem Chef-Vorführer des Mir 70 Kinos in Krnov, und Jakub Klíma, einem genauso jungen wie leidenschaftlichen Filmstudenten.

Krnov liegt an der Grenze zu Polen. Als ich die Anreise plante, stellte sich schnell heraus, dass man einfacher nach Australien kommt als in diese kleine Stadt von 25000 Seelen. Schließlich brachte das Auto meine Familie und mich dorthin. In Krnov erwartete uns eine kuriose, mahnende Mischung aus verfallenden, verlassenen Sowjet-Bauten und renovierten, quietschbunten Häusern, die an Zuckerbäckerei erinnerten. Das Kino Mir 70 hat eine buttercremefarbene Fassade, die nach Hochzeitstorte aussieht.

Am Vorabend trafen wir uns zum Essen mit den wichtigsten Festivalleuten: Jakub Klíma, Pavel Tomešek und François Carrin (der mehr als 1500km mit der Kopie von Operation Crossbow gereist war). Die Runde, ergänzt von alten und neuen Freunden, war lustig. In Karlsruhe ist das Abendessen im Wolfsbräu vor dem Festival immer eines meiner Highlights des Wochenendes, hier war es das fröhliche, aber nicht sehr kulinarische Abendessen im Hotel Pepa. Wir Ausländer hatten uns alle "tschechische Spezialitäten" ausgesucht: Wildschweinschnitzel ohne Beilage und Lendenbraten mit püriertem Kürbis, süßem Sahnehäubchen und Marmelade. Jakub und seine Freunde aßen alle Steak mit Pommes. Kommentar meiner Frau Mama: "Steak mit Pommes. Tja, die sind halt nicht blöd." Das Bier schmeckte aber allen. Ich selbst hatte allen Grund zum Lachen, da ich von François das LaserHotline T-Shirt mit dem "70mm, we love it!"-Aufdruck bekommen hatte. Dieses T-Shirt ist von den heiligen LaserHotline-Hallen nach Bradford gereist, von dort nach Valenciennes und schließlich nach Krnov. Da es im Oktober ebenfalls noch nach Karlsruhe reisen soll, wird es am Ende des Jahres alle wichtigen 70mm Stationen Europas besucht haben! Vielleicht sollte ich das T-Shirt mal eine Kolumne schreiben lassen. Für mich begann das Festival schon am Donnerstagabend: Ich wurde von Jakub und François ins Mir 70 mitgenommen, wo ich den Vorführraum besichtigen durfte und wir "nur mal die erste Spule von Operation Crossbow anschauen müssen, um die Untertitelung zu überprüfen". Am Ende haben sich alle den ganzen Film reingezogen. Diese ersten Momente im Mir 70 waren überwältigend! Schon im Vorführraum quietschte ich vor Freude; beim ersten Betreten des Kinosaals kriegte ich Gefühle, die ich besser nicht näher benenne. Jakub und die anderen kriegten einen Lachanfall, aber im Ernst: Der Saal ist atemberaubend. Er ist riesig, mit einer Kaskade von gepolsterten, geräumigen Sitzreihen – danach werden Sie nie wieder in Bradford sitzen wollen – und einer hinter grünem Samt verborgenen, leicht gekrümmten, 14m breiten Leinwand. Der Saal ist gänzlich grün: lindgrün, flaschengrün, tannengrün. Herrlich.

Am nächsten Tag holten wir so früh wie möglich unsere Wochenendpässe, was sich als sehr weise herausstellte, da eine Stunde später plötzlich Horden von Filmstudenten mit Dreadlocks und Campingausrüstung Schlange standen. Meine gänzlich festivalunerfahrene Frau Mama: "Übernachten die im Kino?" Nein, Jakub Klíma hatte die Idee gehabt, mit einer benachbarten Schule eine Vereinbarung zu treffen: Die Schule stellte ihre Sporthalle als Campingplatz für die Filmstudenten aus Brno zur Verfügung. Genial, denn so hat man auf einen Schlag circa 100 Gäste mehr und die jungen Leute, auf deren Schultern irgendwann die Weiterführung der 70mm-Tradition lasten wird, können das beste aller Filmformate ganz unkompliziert kennen- und liebenlernen. Kurz vor dem offiziellen Festivalbeginn gab es als Schmankerl für meinen Vater und mich die Premiere des KRRR! Trailers, der dann auch vor jedem Film lief. Der Trailer ist kurz, knackig und sehr lustig. Jakub ist zu Recht stolz darauf.

Wir starteten ins KRRR! mit einem meiner Lieblingsfilme: Superman. Die Kopie war gefadet, aber das tat dem Film keinen Abbruch. Ich war so glücklich, ihn endlich auf einer Kinoleinwand sehen zu können! Meine ganze kindliche Verliebtheit für Christopher Reeve sprudelte wieder aus mir heraus: ich heulte Rotz und Wasser bei der Rede, mit der Jor-El seinen Sohn auf die Reise schickt. Nur der Ton war in den Höhen nicht optimal geregelt, was dazu führte, dass das ganze Kino sich plötzlich mit schmerzverzerrtem Gesicht an die Ohren fasste, als Lex Luthor eine Spezialfrequenz benutzt, um mit Superman zu reden. Der Ton war auch das ganze Wochenende über nicht perfekt, es war immer ein wenig zu laut. Nach Aliens war ich fast taub. Wir müssen Clemens Scherer, der für den wunderbaren Ton in der Schauburg mitverantwortlich ist, mal an die Regler im Mir lassen.

Das filmische Wochenende bestand hauptsächlich aus 70mm Blowups, was aber dem Charme und der Energie des Festivals nichts nahm. Mit einer Ausnahme: Am Freitagabend war Patton der Star. Das Bild bei dieser Kopie ist jedes Mal so scharf, dass ich fast weinen muss. Vor Freude, versteht sich. À propos weinen: ich musste bei diesem Festival sehr darauf achten, nicht zu dehydrieren. Jor-El, Patton, Ghandi, Ripley, Hicks und Vasquez – ich habe mehrere Packungen Taschentücher verbraucht. Ebenfalls Teil des Charmes waren die Einführungen vor jedem Film. Diejenigen, die des Tschechischen nicht mächtig waren, wurden nicht ausgeschlossen. Alles wurde ins Englische übersetzt. Da lachte der Saal bei den zahlreichen Witzen immer zweimal! Die Filme hatten alle tschechische Untertitel, welche aber diskret und professionell auf die Leinwand projiziert wurden. Und das sagt Ihnen jemand, der Untertitel eigentlich hasst. Diese Lösung mit den Untertiteln war sehr schön: in den letzten Jahren hat es sowohl in Bradford als auch in Karlsruhe zu viele synchronisierte Kopien gegeben. Von KRRR! könnte man sich da in Zukunft gerne etwas abgucken.

Am Sonntagmorgen um 2 Uhr war das Festival für mich zu Ende, da wir am Sonntag zurückfahren, um am Montag wieder arbeiten zu können. Dennoch habe ich keinen Film verpasst: KRRR! ist so programmiert, dass man am Samstag etwas ausfallen lassen kann, das man am Sonntag nachholt. So kann man sich ein paar Pausen gönnen und etwas essen gehen. Diese Kolumnistin hatte diesen Luxus nicht und ging für zwei Nächte mit böse knurrendem Magen zu Bett.

Alles in allem war das fünfte KRRR! Festival eine wunderbare Erfahrung, die ich sicher wiederholen werde. Alle waren liebenswürdig, geradezu fürsorglich und wie bei jedem 70mm-Festival ist es herrlich, alte Freunde wiederzufinden und neue in der Gemeinschaft willkommen zu heißen. Hut ab, Pavel und Jakub, für ein überaus gelungenes, wenn auch taubmachendes, Festival. Na shledanou (auf Wiedersehen)!

Das Leben geht weiter und David Lynch wird demaskiert

Zwei spannende Geschichten hatte der Dienstag für mich im Gepäck...

DIE BESCHISSENHEIT DER DINGE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: De Helaasheid Der Dingen
Verleih: Camino (Neue Visionen)
Land/Jahr: Belgien 2009
Regie: Felix Van Groeningen
Darsteller: Johan Heldenbergh, Koen De Graeve, Wouter Hendrickx
Kinostart: 20.05.2010

Der 13jährige Gunther lebt zusammen mit seinem Vater, einem Alkoholiker, und dessen drei Brüdern bei seiner liebenswürdigen Großmutter. Nicht nur sein Vater, auch die drei Onkels machen sich nicht allzuviel aus Arbeit. So lebt die gewohnungsbedürftige Gemeinschaft stets mit dem sozialen Abstieg Auge in Auge. Als Gunther auch noch Probleme in der Schule bekommt, soll er in ein Internat kommen. Das lehnt er anfangs zwar ab, sieht jedoch für sich selbst bald keinen anderen Ausweg mehr... Auf drei Zeitebenen erzählt das Melodram die Geschichte einer verkorksten Jugend, wie es dazu kam und wie es schließlich weitergeht. Als junger Mann schafft Gunther den gesellschaftlichen Aufstieg als Schriftsteller. Immer wieder werden sein philosophischen und wahrhaft zutreffenden Betrachtungen im Film zitiert. Da heisst es z.B. "Das Leben geht weiter. Aber genau das ist das Schwierige daran!". Wenn Gunther selbst dann am Ende des Films als Vater seinem unehelichen Kind das Fahrradfahren beibringt und dieses immer wieder umfällt und von Neuem beginnt, so ist dies eine sehr schöne Metapher für jenen tiefgründigen Satz. Bevor es allerdings soweit ist, dürfen wir als Zuschauer bei allerlei derben, schwarzhumorigen und stets alkoholisierten Späße teilhaben, wie sie nur unsere belgischen Nachbarn ersinnen können.

DAVID WANTS TO FLY (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Neue Visionen
Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Schweiz, Österreich 2009
Regie: David Sieveking
Kinostart: 06.05.2010

Transzendente Meditation – was genau ist das eigentlich? Als sich sein großes Idol David Lynch zur sogenannten TM-Bewegung öffentlich bekennt, weckt dies das Interesse des Filmstudenten David Sieveking. Zusammen mit seiner Freundin Marie macht er sich auf den Weg in die

USA, um sein Vorbild auf einem Kongress für TM zu treffen. Der versichert ihm schließlich, dass er all seine Kreativität dem Guru Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, dem Begründer der TM, zu verdanken hat. Der Filmstudent unterzieht sich einem Selbststudium und beginnt eine teure TM-Ausbildung. Allerdings ohne dabei das große Ganze aus den Augen zu verlieren. Denn schließlich soll ja ein Film darüber entstehen. Je mehr er sich mit der Materie auseinandersetzt, desto klarer sieht er: auch bei der TM-Bewegung geht es nur ums liebe Geld! Ähnlich seinem amerikanischen Kollegen Michael Moore gelingt es ihm, ehemalige TM-Angehörige vor die Kamera zu locken und ihnen hochinteressante Statements zu entlocken, welche die Machenschaften der TM-Bewegung sehr deutlich als die einer Sekte entlarven. Entstanden ist dabei eine faszinierende Dokumentation, die sich Fans von David Lynch besser nicht anschauen sollten! Hinweis: leider hielt es der deutsche Filmverleih nicht für nötig, für eine Pressevorführung eine 35mm-Kopie bereitzustellen. So wurden wir leider mit einer in Bild- und Tonqualität suboptimalen DVD abgespeist.

Schwergezwichtig

Pure Langeweile versprühte meine letzte Pressevorführung vor der Abreise nach Bradford...

GORDOS (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Gordos
Verleih: Arsenal
Land/Jahr: Spanien 2009
Regie: Daniel Sánchez Arévalo
Darsteller: Antonio de la Torre, Raúl Arévalo, Fernando Albizu
Kinostart: 01.07.2010

Dreh- und Angelpunkt dieser skurrilen Dramödie aus Spanien ist eine Gruppentherapie für dicke Menschen – oder solche, die meinen sie wären dick. Da ist z.B. der Schwule, der seinen Partner ins Koma befördert hat. Oder das streng religiöse Paar, das Probleme mit dem vorehelichen Sex hat. Dann ist da noch die eingeezelte Informatikerin, die eine ungesunde Fernbeziehung aufrecht erhält. Und so geht das immer weiter. Der Film widmet sich allen Einzelpersonen und versucht zu ergründen, warum sie so viel essen. Einher geht das Ganze mit sehr viel nackter Haut, die natürlich auch bei den Geschlechtsteilen nicht halt macht. So eine Geschichte kann ziemlich lustig sein – sie muss es aber nicht, wie Daniel Sánchez Arévalo in seinem Film unfreiwillig beweist. Der um mindestens eine Stunde zu lange geratene Film beginnt irgendwann extrem zu nerven, was sicher zum großen Teil an der Fahrstuhlsäuselmusik liegt, die den Film fast nonstop untermalt. Untermalen ist hier genau das richtige Wort, denn eine dramaturgische Funktion nimmt der Score leider nicht wahr! Nicht jeder Film kann ein Meisterwerk sein.

Griechische Mythologie und skurrile Animation

Zurück aus Bradford ging's wieder fast direkt ins Kino...wohin auch sonst?

DER FANTASTISCHE MR. FOX (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Fantastic Mr. Fox
Verleih: Fox
Land/Jahr: USA 2009
Regie: Wes Anderson
Kinostart: 13.05.2010

Nachdem der Fuchs Mr. Fox zusammen mit seiner Frau knapp einer Fuchsfalle entkommen ist, verspricht er ihr, nie wieder Tauben oder Hühner zu stehlen. Als die beiden zusammen mit ihrem Sprössling ein neues Heim in unmittelbarer Nachbarschaft zu einer Hühnerfarm beziehen, überkommt es Mr. Fox wieder. Heimlich plant er einen letzten Raubzug... Was Filme des Regisseurs Wes Anderson wohlthuend von den Arbeiten seiner Kollegen unterscheidet, ist die Skurrilität, mit der er seine Geschichten erzählt. Und was läge da näher als eine jener skurrilen Geschichten von Roald Dahl als Vorlage zu nehmen und sie in Form der Stop-Motion-Animation zu erzählen! So entwickelt Anderson die Geschichte herrlich absurd und trotzdem absolut faszinierend. Die Technik überzeugt und selbst die deutschen Synchronsprecher passen perfekt. Wenn dann in einer kleinen, eigentlich vollkommen unbedeutenden Szene, die Füchse eine Art Baseball-Spiel spielen, bei dem es keinen Ball, stattdessen aber einen brennenden Tannenzapfen gibt, gelingt es Anderson sogar mir einen lang anhaltenden Lacher zu entlocken! Mein Tipp: unbedingt anschauen – an diesem Film führt kein Weg vorbei!

KAMPF DER TITANEN (1:2.35, 2K Digital, 3D, PCM 5.1)

OT: Clash of the Titans
Verleih: Warner
Land/Jahr: USA 2010
Regie: Louis Leterrier
Darsteller: Sam Worthington, Gemma Arterton, Mads Mikkelsen
Kinostart: 08.04.2010

Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog

Weil sich die Menschen von ihm abgewandt haben, schickt Griechengott Zeus seinen Bruder Hades auf die Erde, um Aufruhr zu stiften, damit sich die Menschen ihm wieder zuwenden. Doch Zeus hat die Rechnung ohne seinen Sohn Perseus gemacht... Schaut man sich diese gigantische Special-Effects-Orgie an, so weiß man wieder, was man an dem Original aus dem Jahre 1981 hatte. Seinerzeit sorgte Altmeister Ray Harryhausen für stimmige Stop-Motion-Effekte, ohne dabei die griechische Mythologie aus den Augen zu verlieren. Regisseur Louis Leterrier und seinen Kollegen jedoch ist weitaus mehr an den Effekten gelegen, als an einer guten Inszenierung. Liebe zum Detail erkennt man hier an keiner Stelle – auch nicht bei der Besetzung, die mehr Staffage als Darstellerriege ist. Selbst die dritte Dimension lässt arg zu wünschen übrig. Sie gibt dem Film an keiner Stelle Tiefe und führt letztendlich nur dazu, dass man sich der lästigen Brille entledigt. Obendrein wird das Langeweile versprühende Spektakel mit einem Score zugepflastert, der alles andere als präzise ist und infolgedessen als beliebig erscheint. Diesen Film darf man bedenkenlos meiden.

Altbacken und nochmal aufgeköcht

Es gab nur zwei Pressevorführungen in dieser Woche. Und beide waren nicht der Hit!

COP OUT – GELADEN UND ENTSICHERT! (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Cop Out

Verleih: Warner

Land/Jahr: USA 2009

Regie: Kevin Smith

Darsteller: Bruce Willis, Tracy Morgan, Juan Carlos Hernandez

Kinostart: 15.04.2010

Zwei Cops, von denen jeder in privaten Schwierigkeiten steckt, ermitteln auf eigene Faust in einem Raubüberfallsdelikt, bei dem einem der beiden ein wertvolles Baseball-Sammelbild entwendet wurde... Es ist schon erstaunlich, dass derartige Filme auch heute noch produziert werden. Gemeint sind damit Cop-Komödien im Stile von BEVERLY HILLS COP. Und das waren die 80er-Jahre! Dass COP OUT recht altbacken wirkt, liegt insbesondere an der synthetischen Musik aus der Feder von Harold Faltermeyer, der bereits für BEVERLY HILLS COP den Score schrieb. Man würde sich auch gar nicht wundern, wenn in jedem Moment Axel Foley alias Eddie Murphy den Tatort betreten und ein paar coole Sprüche ablassen würde. Nur schade, dass das nicht passiert. Denn das Gespann Willis/Morgan hat es einfach nicht drauf. Und genau das dürfte auch dem Publikum nicht verborgen bleiben.

BAARIA – EINE ITALIENISCHE FAMILIENGESCHICHTE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Baaria - La Porta Del Vento

Verleih: Tobis

Land/Jahr: Italien 2009

Regie: Giuseppe Tornatore

Darsteller: Francesco Scianna, Margareth

Madè, Nicole Grimaudo

Kinostart: 29.04.2010

Mit opulenten Bildern ausgestattete Chronik einer sizilianischen Familie, die sich von den 1930er Jahren bis in die 1980er Jahre erstreckt. Politische Ereignisse fließen in die Geschichte ebenso ein wie persönliche Schicksalsschläge, Kindheitserinnerungen, die erste Liebe und natürlich die große Liebe zum Kino. Fast scheint es so, als ob Regisseur Giuseppe Tornatore, der mit CINEMA PARADISO die wohl schönste Liebeserklärung an das Kino selbst geschaffen hat, sein eigenes (Film)Leben auf der großen Leinwand ausbreitet. Denn die vielen kleinen Episoden, die liebevoll gezeichneten Charaktere und die Magie der Piazza kennt man schon hinlänglich aus seinen früheren Werken. Vieles wirkt so, als ob die 150 Minuten nicht ausgereicht hätten, um alles zu erzählen und so würde es mich nicht wundern, wenn es eine längere Fassung des Films gäbe. Insgesamt ein eher enttäuschender Film, der einzig davon zeugt, dass sich sein Regisseur keinen Zentimeter weiter entwickelt hat. Auch Ennio Morricones Musik hilft nicht weiter, könnte es sich bei der Partitur doch wahrhaftig um bislang nicht verwendetes Material des Meisterkomponisten handeln.

Darf's ein bisschen schwanger sein?

Die einzige der beiden Pressevorführungen, die ich in dieser Woche besucht habe, stellte sich leider als Flopp heraus...

PLAN B FÜR DIE LIEBE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Back-Up Plan

Verleih: Concorde

Land/Jahr: USA 2010

Regie: Alan Poul

Darsteller: Jennifer Lopez, Alex O'Loughlin, Eric Christian Olsen

Kinostart: 13.05.2010

Just in dem Moment, als sich Single-Frau Zoe nach reiflicher Überlegung künstlich befruchten lässt, lernt sie per Zufall ihren Traummann kennen. Nach den handelsüblichen Anlaufschwierigkeiten werden die beiden ein glückliches Paar – allerdings nur bis Zoes künstliche Befruchtung Früchte trägt und sie ihm die Wahrheit sagen muss... Müssen amerikanische Komödien eigentlich immer so dümmlich sein? Von der weltfremden Selbsthilfegruppe für schwangere Singles über anzügliche Dialoge (das Wort "Vagina" muss in einem amerikanischen Film als anzüglich bewertet werden!) bis hin zu derbem Fäkalhumor wird wieder einmal die ganze Palette unwitziger Karten gezückt in der Hoffnung auf ein Millionenpublikum. Dass Humor (ich weiß wovon ich spreche!) dabei auf der Strecke bleibt und die stattdessen praktizierte Langeweile zu einem langsamen Einschlafen des Publikums führt, scheint dabei Nebensache zu sein. Zu befürchten ist, dass das Konzept der Filmemacher wieder einmal aufgehen wird und schon alleine Jennifer Lopez als Umsatzgarant genügt, um die Kassen klingeln zu lassen. Mein Tipp daher: man greife zu Plan B und gehe in einen besseren Film.

Gintama: Collection 2

Let's face it; a „typical day“ in alien occupied feudal Japan is still going to be strange by any normal standards, but at Gintoki's Odd Jobs agency, the freelancers have learned to expect the weirdest of the weird when it comes to assignments. Of course, when your company specializes in doing the oddest of odd jobs, the odds are that that oddness is bound to rub off on you, but the really bad part about the job is that it pays so little for the near-terminal risk to life and limb that almost every mission inevitably ends up entailing.

Unfortunately for our favorite group of Freelance Oddballs, they're usually underemployed, which besides making them UFOs, means that they have to take just about every job they can find. Escorting a runaway princess? Check. Driving a cab. Check. Cross-dressing samurai bar? Swallow the pride and check. If you thought the final collection of Japan's mega-hit series seemed like the bizarre love child of Akira Kurosawa and Monty Python, you won't believe the insanity that ensues in Gintama - The Second Collection! Thrillers, Adventure, Anime, Drama, Fantasy, Foreign, International TV, Japanese, Science Fiction 325min. Alex Rocco, Sharon Gless, Tiffany Bolling, Robin Mattson, Scott Brady, Timothy Brown, Steve Sandor as small town sisters who murder their pervert stepfather and flee to the big city, where they'll tangle with horny private eyes, predatory lesbians, $400,000 in stolen mob money, and a bantering pair of black and white hitmen (Alex Rocco of The Godfather and Timothy Brown of Nashville) that historians cite as a key inspiration for Pulp Fiction. Steve Sandor (The Ninth Configuration), famed tough-guy actor Scott Brady (Johnny Guitar) and Sharon Gless (in her film debut) co-star in this notorious 'drive-in noir' from writer/director Arthur Marks (Detroit 9000, Bucktown), now fully restored in HD from the original 35mm negative with an all-new featurette for the first time ever on DVD.

Get ready for one of the true lost classics of '70s exploitation cinema: Tiffany Bolling (The Centerfold Girls) and Robin Mattson (All My Children) deliver eye-popping performances

Internationally revered Iranian filmmaker Abbas Kiarostami (Taste of Cherry, Ten) has created some of the most inventive and transcendent cinema of the past thirty years, and Close-Up is his most radical, brilliant work. This fiction-documentary hybrid uses a sensational real-life event - the arrest of a young man on charges that he fraudulently impersonated well-known filmmaker Mohsen Makhmalbaf - as the basis for a stunning, multilayered investigation into movies, identity, artistic creation, and existence, in which the real people from the case play themselves. With its universal themes and fascinating narrative knots, Close-Up continues to resonate with viewers around the world.

Communion

Lindsay Crouse, Christopher Walken
Christopher Walken stars as novelist Whitley Strieber in this tense alien abduction thriller. Vacationing at his family's home in the woods, Whitley is awakened one night by bright lights outside his window. The next morning he believes he dreamed of being taken by aliens to a spaceship. As the frequency of these „dreams“ increase he wonders: are these encounters just hallucinations, or is this really happening? In desperation he seeks out a therapist who believes hypnosis may expose the truth. Based on Strieber's own experiences, this eerie precursor to the X-Files delivers some genuine chills and adds fuel to the debate about whether we are alone in the universe. This disc includes a newly-recorded commentary by director Philippe Mora.

Clint Eastwood: The Man With No Name Trilogy (Blu-ray)

Clint Eastwood

The Sergio Leone „spaghetti westerns“ did not simply add a new chapter to the genre...they reinvented it. From his shockingly violent and stylized breakthrough, A Fistful Of Dollars, to the film Quentin Tarantino calls „the best-directed movie of all time,“ The Good, The Bad And The Ugly, Leone's vision did for westerns what talkies did for all movies back in the 1920s: it elevated them to an entirely new art form. Fully restored, presented in high definition with their best-ever audio, and including audio commentaries, featurettes and more, these films are much more than the definitive Leone collection...they are the most ambitious and influential westerns ever made. Lusty tango bars, the salsa music of the La Boca sidewalks, and a hypnotic visit to the nearby Iguazu Falls give further dimension to the tensions growing between the two lovers. How I Got Lost

To most New Yorkers, 9/11 was more than pivotal, it was „the day the world ended“ or at least the way they viewed it. None of it made sense... not to Jake (Jacob Fishel, TV's Without a Trace), an aspiring novelist eking out a living as a sports writer, who always does the right thing... And not to his best friend Andrew (Aaron Stanford, X-Men: The Last Stand, The Hills Have Eyes), a hard-drinking Wall Street wannabe, who lives for the thrill. When the volatile Andrew hijacks the dutiful Jake for a mysterious, late-night road trip ñ dragging his reluctant (and shoeless) friend away from his typewriter and a poisonous „relationship“- they are halfway through nowhere before Andrew reveals they are enroute to his estranged father's funeral in rural Ohio. As the service looms, Andrew's tailspin worsens and he does what he always does—runs. Once again, Jake stays behind to pick up the pieces, encountering a waitress at the local diner (Rosemarie DeWitt, The Company of Men, Rachel Getting Married). Fate conspires to end their friendship, but puts them each on a new path. Though no one knows what comes next, bo

The Leopard: The Criterion Collection (Blu-ray)

Leslie French, Paola Stoppa, Claudia Cardinale, Ida Galli, Lucilla Morlacchi, Burt Lancaster, Alain Delon, Ivo Garrani, Marino Mase, Pierre Clementi, Romolo Valli, Serge Reggiani, Mario Girotti

Making its long-awaited U.S. home video debut, Luchino Visconti's The Leopard is an epic on the grandest possible scale. The film recreates, with nostalgia, drama, and opulence, the tumultuous years of Italy's Risorgimento, when the aristocracy lost its grip and the middle classes rose and formed a unified, democratic Italy. Burt Lancaster stars as the aging prince watching his culture and fortune wane in the face of a new generation, represented by his upstart nephew (Alain Delon) and his beautiful fiancée (Claudia Cardinale). Awarded the Palme d'Or at the 1963 Cannes Film Festival, The Leopard translates Giuseppe Tomasi di Lampedusa's novel, and the history it recounts, into a truly cinematic masterpiece. The Criterion Collection is proud to present the film in two distinct versions: Visconti's original Italian version, and the alternate English-language version released in America in a newly restored special edition.

A twisting, turning, cloak-and-dagger delight, Night Train To Munich is a gripping, occasionally comic confection from writers Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat (Hitchcock's The Lady Vanishes) and director Carol Reed (The Fallen Idol, The Third Man). Paced like an out-of-control locomotive, Night Train To Munich takes viewers on a World War II-era journey from Prague to England to the Swiss Alps, as Nazis pursue a Czech scientist and his daughter (Margaret Lockwood, of The Lady Vanishes), who are being aided by a debonair British undercover agent, played by Rex Harrison (Major Barbara, My Fair Lady). This captivating, long-overlooked adventure - which also features Casablanca's Paul Henreid - mixes comedy, romance, and thrills with enough skill and cleverness to give the master of suspense himself pause.

Red Desert: The Criterion Collection

Monica Vitti, Richard Harris, Carlo Chionetti
Michelangelo Antonioni's 1960s panoramas of contemporary alienation were decade-defining artistic events, and Red Desert, his first color film, remains one of his greatest. This provocative look at the spiritual desolation of the technological age - about a disaffected woman, brilliantly portrayed by Antonioni muse Monica Vitti (L'avventura), wandering through a bleak industrial landscape beset by power plants and environmental toxins, and tentatively flirting with her husband's coworker, played by Richard Harris (This Sporting Life) - continues to exert force over viewers. With one startling, painterly composition after another - of abandoned fishing cottages, electrical towers, overwhelming docked ships - Red Desert creates a nearly apocalyptic image of its time, and confirms Antonioni as cinema's preeminent poet of the modern age.

Robert Vaughn, David Niven, Virna Lisi, John Cleese
Bolt (David Niven), a British linguist, develops a universal language, so he's a sudden sensation and receives a Nobel prize. An ambitious diplomat (Robert Vaughn), capitalizing on Bolt's celebrity, arranges for the U.S. to commission a statue for a London square to honor Bolt's achievement. Bolt's Italian wife (Virna Lisi), a renowned artist, sculpts an 18-foot nude of Bolt. In a pique, because he's neglected her for years to do his work, she gives the statue a spectacular phallus, telling Bolt that he wasn't its model. Thinking he's a cuckold, Bolt goes on a jealous search for a man matching the statue. The diplomat, too, wants changes in the statue to protect his conservative image. Can art and love reconcile? This outrageous comedy co-starts Monty Python's John Cleese and Bolt's best friend and a cameo by Graham Chapman.

The Wind Journeys

For most of his life, Ignacio Carrillo travelled the villages of northern Colombia, playing traditional songs on his accordion, a legendary instrument said to have once belonged to the devil. He eventually married and settled in a small town, leaving the nomadic life behind. But after the traumatic death of his wife, he vows to never play the accursed accordion again, and embarks on one last journey to return the instrument to its rightful owner. On the way, Ignacio is followed by them, a spirited teenager determined to become his apprentice. Tired of loneliness, Ignacio accepts the young man as his pupil and together they traverse the vast Colombian terrain, discovering the musical diversity of Caribbean culture. Hardened by a life of solitude, Ignacio tries to discourage them from following in his footsteps, but destiny has different plans for them.

This documentary charts the entire history of My Chemical Romance from their earliest days spent playing to a local following, to their signing with a major label, to the taking of their music and message to a global audience, to becoming the blueprint for a hundred tame copycats. The film gives the inside story of this extraordinary act through exclusive interviews, location shoots, previously unpublished photographs and footage, and a wealth of other material, which all at once makes for a fluid and focused insight into the past, present and future of MCR. Njinga: The Queen King Njinga ruled 17th century Ndongo - now Angola - as 'king' because tribal custom forbade her to rule as a woman. Flowing freely between time periods, the play traces the diaspora of Njinga's people to Brazil and the United States. Oliveros' score along with the use of electronics and spatialization, provides an environment for the traditional African music, heightening the drama. As storytelling is a deeply-rooted element of African culture, Njinga features two Kilunda (spirit) characters who step in and out of the action, leading the viewers through the play. The final element in the mix is capoeira, the liquid, hybrid movement form - self-defense as dance - which has its roots in Angola and flourishes today in Brazil. This recording is based on the BAM (Brooklyn Academy of Music) Next Wave Festival performances of 1993.

Collapse

Can this man predict when your world will crumble?. It's the shattering documentary that has been called „superb“ (Entertainment Weekly), „hypnotic and haunting“ (Time Magazine) and „so masterfully made it's impossible to look away“ (AllMovie.com). Collapse is the story of Michael Ruppert, former Los Angeles police officer turned rogue reporter whose eerie prediction of the current financial crisis shocked millions. Now Ruppert is warning of a new meltdown, one rooted in oil, economics, and covert U.S. policies that are leading us all towards unprecedented global disaster. Is he a prophet who can clearly see America's terrifying future, or a conspiracy theorist fueled by fear and paranoia? And if Ruppert is right, can this slide into catastrophe be stopped? Experience this sometimes harrowing, often poignant and always riveting look into the mind of 'the ultimate outsider' from filmmaker Chris Smith, the award-winning director of American Movie and The Yes Men.

Defamation

Intent on shaking up the ultimate 'sacred cow' for Jews, Israeli director Yoav Shamir embarks on a provocative - and at times irreverent - quest to answer the question, „What is anti-Semitism today?“ Does it remain a dangerous and immediate threat? Or is it a scare tactic used by right-wing Zionists to discredit their critics? Speaking with an array of people from across the political spectrum (including the head of the Anti-Defamation League and its fiercest critic, author Norman Finkelstein) and traveling to places like Auschwitz (alongside Israeli school kids) and Brooklyn (to explore reports of violence against Jews), Shamir discovers the realities of anti-Semitism today. His findings are shocking, enlightening and - surprisingly - often wryly funny.

Dodo

Bobs autobiographical story is about a struggling working class Pittsburgh family with 10 children and an authoritarian father who drank a little too much. Athletic abilities were valued more than brains and artistic talent was not understood, especially, by his father. The uniqueness of this docu/comedy is that the journey through his childhood is not only shown through a series of real life clips, but through his portrayal of his brothers and his father. You will both laugh and cry as he miraculously transforms himself into each individual character....And... all is achieved with compassion, and great humor.

William Kunstler: Disturbing The Universe

In William Kunstler: Disturbing the Universe filmmakers Emily Kunstler and Sarah Kunstler explore the life of their father, the late radical civil rights lawyer. In the 1960s and 70s, Kunstler fought for civil rights with Martin Luther King Jr. and represented the famed Chicago 8 activists who protested the Vietnam War. When the inmates took over Attica prison, or when the American Indian Movement stood up to the federal government at Wounded Knee, they asked Kunstler to be their lawyer. To his daughters, it seemed that he was at the center of everything important that had ever happened. But when they were growing up, Kunstler represented some of the most reviled members of society, including rapists and assassins. This powerful film not only recounts the historic causes that Kunstler fought for; it also reveals a man that even his own daughters did not always understand, a man who risked public outrage and the safety of his family so that justice could serve all.

Waiting For Armageddon

America's 50-million strong Evangelical community is convinced that the world's future is foretold in Biblical prophecy, from the Rapture to the Battle of Armageddon. Waiting For Armageddon explores this apocalyptic worldview, from the homefront in America to the future battlefield of Israel. By weaving Christian, Zionist, and Jewish perspectives along with telling archival materials, this eyeopening film also probes the potentially explosive alliance between Evangelical Christians and Israel...an alliance that may set the stage for what one Evangelical leader calls „World War III.“

Words Of Advice

In 1983, the counter culture icon and author of the cult classic Naked Lunch (1959), William S. Burroughs (1914-1997), traveled throughout Scandinavia making a series of personal appearances. Twenty years later, filmmakers Lars Movin and Steen Moller Rasmussen found never-before-seen footage of his Copenhagen visit and set out on the road to record new material, telling the story of the acclaimed author's later work - especially what is known as The Last Trilogy - and his unique performance skills. The result is Words of Advice: William S. Burroughs on the Road, a compelling portrait of one our most enigmatic public figures.
