Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Wir haben es geschafft! Planmäßig haben wir am 26. April 2010 unsere neuen Büroräume bezogen. Manche würden behaupten, dass es fast schon an ein Wunder grenzt, dass der Umzug derart reibungslos verlief und praktisch nichts zu Bruch ging und auch unsere Kommunikations- und EDV-Technik quasi auf Anhieb funktionierte. Doch wir wissen es natürlich besser. Es war kein Wunder, was uns hier geholfen hat, sondern die exzellente Umzugsplanung von Beate Hanne mann, dem "guten Geist" der LASER HOTLINE. Ihr und natürlich auch den tatkräftigen Helfern, die so tüchtig mitgeholfen haben, den Umzug von der Planung in die Praxis umzusetzen, gebührt ein ganz großes Lob und ein herzliches "Dankeschön!"

Und damit herzlich willkommen zu unserem ersten Newsletter, den wir in unserer neuen Arbeitsumgebung produziert haben. Wir sind also wieder "back to business as usual", wie man auf Neudeutsch sagen würde. Und mussten auch schon wieder mit der ersten Enttäuschung fertig werden. Denn als wir voller Freude die vor kurzem erschienene Kompilations-DVD FANTASY FILMFEST SHORTS dem DVD-Player in unserem Heimkino anvertrauten und erwartungsvoll die darauf befindliche Splatter-Komödie ARBEIT FÜR ALLE selektierten, staunten wir nicht schlecht. Denn das seinerzeit im Kino in bester Dolby Digital 5.1 Surround EX ertönte Kabinettstückchen deutscher Produktion weist auf der DVD leider nur dynamikbegrenzten, bescheidenen Monosound auf! Auf Nachfrage beim Lizenznehmer, den Machern des Fantasy Filmfests, wurde uns mitgeteilt: "...Der Ton auf der DVD entspricht dem digitalen Master das wir von den Produzenten erhalten haben. Ich vermute, dass für die 35mm Kopien eine andere Mischung angefertigt wurde..." Die Vermutung ist richtig. Nur fragt man sich zurecht, warum es die Produzenten jenes Kurzfilms nicht für notwendig erachteten, für die DVD ein heimkinotaugliches 5.1-Master zu liefern. So etwas wurmt natürlich nicht nur uns Filmsammler und Heimkinofans, sondern dürfte auch den Machern von ARBEIT FÜR ALLE nicht sonderlich gefallen. Denn dem großen Aufwand, den die beiden Regisseure in die Tongestaltung ihres Filmes gesteckt haben, wird diese DVD-Fassung bei weitem nicht gerecht. Eine Nachbesserung bei diesem DVD-Release wäre sehr wünschenswert. Ob das aber je passieren wird, steht in den Sternen.

Etwas frustrierend auch die Situation bei den Pressevorführungen in Stuttgart. Wenn Sie den Blog unseres Filmspezialisten auf den Seiten 4 und 5 anschauen, so werden Sie feststellen, dass die Menge an Filmbeschreibungen deutlich abgenommen hat. Das liegt nicht etwa daran, dass unser Filmblogger sehr stark in unsere Umzugsaktivitäten involviert war, sondern vielmehr an der stetig zurückgehenden Anzahl von Pressevorführungen in Stuttgart. Fast scheint es, als ob sich viele Verleiher mit ihren Produkten nicht mehr in die schwäbische Metropole trauen, da die leichte Gefahr besteht, dass ein Film durch die anwesenden Journalisten objektiv beurteilt werden könnte. Und mit objektiv meinen wir, dass die Stuttgarter Filmkritiker den Filmverleiher keinen Honig um den Mund schmieren, sondern unverblümt ihre Meinung zum Film kundtun. Und das könnte in Folge natürlich bedeuten, dass es nicht nur Meisterwerke der Filmgeschichte gibt, sondern womöglich auch schlechte Filme! Frei nach dem Motto "Lieber gar keine Kritik als eine schlechte". Die nächsten Wochen werden zeigen, ob es bei einer reduzierten Anzahl von Screenings bleibt oder ob die Stuttgarter wieder das volle Spektrum zu Gesicht bekommen.

Aber damit genug des Frustes – widmen wir uns lieber den angenehmeren Dingen. Und diese finden Sie wie immer auf fast 50 Seiten in diesem Newsletter! Viel Spaß beim Stöbern.

Ihr Laser Hotline Team

They Can Be A Great People, Kal-El, They Wish To Be

Eine gute Freundin von mir hat sich vor kurzem das Sprunggelenk gebrochen. Sie fragte mich, ob ich ihr ein paar gute Filme zur schnelleren Heilung empfehlen könnte. Ich scherzte "Ja, Rear Window!" Dann fiel mir in der Kategorie nichts mehr ein. Es gibt wesentlich weniger Filme mit normalen Menschen, die beeinträchtigt sind, als schnelle Hochglanz-Filme, in denen alle perfekt aussehen, perfekt kämpfen, perfekt lieben und, vor allem, perfekt gewinnen. Elephant Man wollte ich meiner Freundin nicht unbedingt empfehlen, sie ist schon traurig genug wegen ihres Unfalls. Wieso zieht es uns hin zu den Superhelden aller Art? Sie sehen so aus, wie wir nie aussehen werden. Sie beherrschen Kräfte und Kampfkünste, die wir nie erfahren werden. Sie gewinnen alles: das Mädchen, den Jungen, das Geld und den Kampf. Theoretisch müssten wir grün vor Neid sein. Doch das sind wir nicht. Wir beten unsere Leinwandgötter und -göttinnen an.

Vielleicht liegt es daran, dass, sieht man genauer hin, unsere Angebeteten eben doch nicht frei von Handicaps sind. Sie alle sind aus einem Trauma heraus geboren, die meisten begleitet es ein Leben lang. Ohne den Verlust beider Eltern gäbe es Batman nicht. Der junge Bruce Wayne, der keinerlei angeborene Superkräfte besitzt, hätte nie die Notwendigkeit gesehen zu trainieren, sich high-tech Gadgets zu basteln und in den Straßen seiner korrupten Stadt des Nächstens aufzuräumen. Der Tod seiner Eltern verfolgt ihn, macht ihm Liebesbeziehungen schwer, hindert ihn teilweise am Kämpfen! Dennoch legt er immer wieder das Fledermauskostüm an. Ohne den Verlust der Vaterfigur gäbe es auch Superman und Spider-Man nicht. Erst aus der Unfähigkeit heraus, einen geliebten Menschen nicht retten zu können, entspringt die Fähigkeit, alle Menschen retten zu können. Sicher, bei Spidey hat der radioaktive Spinnenbiss die Kräfte entstehen lassen, aber es sind Uncle Bens letzte Worte, die bei Peter Parker ein Verantwortungsbewusstsein wecken, das ihn fortan treibt.

Andere Helden werden durch Kompensation genötigt aufzublühen. Matt Murdocks Fähigkeiten gibt es nicht trotz seiner Erblindung, sondern wegen ihr. Und Matt ist ein armer Junge, ein Niemand aus Hell's Kitchen, dem schlimmsten Ort in New York, als aus ihm langsam, aber ganz sicher, Daredevil wird. Viele der X-Men haben Mutationen, die ihnen das normale Zusammenleben mit anderen erheblich erschweren. Cyclops kann nie jemandem in die Augen sehen; er würde die Person umbringen. Rogue kann niemanden berühren, ohne denjenigen in Lebensgefahr zu bringen. Nur dank Professor Xavier, der an den Rollstuhl gefesselt ist, lernen die Mutanten, sich selbst nicht zu hassen, ihre Kräfte für das Gute einzusetzen und ein würdiges Leben zu führen.

Andere Superhelden müssen das ultimative Handicap überwinden: den Tod. Elektra findet erst zum Guten, als sie von "Der Hand" wiedererweckt wird. Catwoman muss erst ermordet werden, bevor sie aus ihrem neuen Leben etwas Besonderes macht. Selbst Ellen Ripley aus der Alien-Saga wird im vierten Film aus dem Jenseits zurückgeholt und plagt sich plötzlich nicht nur mit dem Töten von Aliens oder dem eigenen Überleben herum, sondern auch damit, dass sie die Mutter des Oberaliens ist und ihr Kleines eigentlich gerne beschützen möchte.

All diese Handicaps, Fehler und Einbrüche in angenehme Leben machen aus Bruce, Clark, Peter, Matt, Scott, Marie, Charles, Elektra, Selina und Ellen die fantastischen, anbetungswürdigen Kreaturen, von denen wir scheinbar nicht genug bekommen.

Wir lieben sie, weil wir sie sein könnten.

Wir alle kennen dieselben Traumata, Ängste und, be-sonders wichtig, das Gefühl, nirgendwo hineinzupassen. Wie Rogue oder Cyclops haben wir unseren Körper alle schon einmal gehasst. Wie Superman oder Spider-Man haben wir uns unzulänglich, ohnmächtig gefühlt, etwas Wichtiges zu tun. Wie Elektra waren wir alle schon auf dem falschen, destruktiven Weg und haben uns, bewusst und schmerzhaft, umentscheiden müssen. Viele von uns sind immer noch auf dem falschen Weg und suchen nach einer Möglichkeit, davon abzukommen.

Die Superhelden stehen für unser aller Bestreben, uns zu verbessern und zu uns selbst zu finden. Wir haben diesen Wunsch als Individuen, aber auch als kollektive Menschheit. Und wenn wir das Glück haben oder hatten, zu uns selbst zu finden, dann können wir uns noch längst nicht ausruhen. Dann wollen wir die beste Version unseres Selbst sein. Die schiere Anzahl von Superhelden garantiert, dass für jeden ein Idol zur Identifikation dabei ist. Sie symbolisieren die Möglichkeit, dass es zu schaffen ist, etwas Besonderes, etwas Hervorragendes zu sein und sich trotzdem immer weiterzuentwickeln.

Einen kleinen Mord mit Grace Kelly an der Seite aufzuklären, das passiert immer mal wieder im echten Leben. Aber grinsenden Verbrechern das Handwerk zu legen oder ein neues Leben geschenkt zu kriegen, ist weitaus spannender. Und doch, so meldet unser immer idealistisches und träumendes Unterbewusstsein, nicht gänzlich unmöglich. Wir müssen uns "nur" selbst verwirklichen. Die Superhelden zeigen uns den ersehnten, leuchtenden Weg.

Symbole und Metaphern

Eine sehr ausgeprägte Bildsprache vermittelte die erste von nur zwei Pressevorführungen in dieser Woche.

WOMEN WITHOUT MEN (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Zanan-e Bedun-e Mardan

Verleih: NFP (Filmwelt)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Österreich, Frankreich 2009

Regie: Shirin Neshat

Darsteller: Orsolya Tóth, Fatemeh

Motamed-Aria, Mitra Ghamsari

Kinostart: 01.07.2010

Teheran 1953: ein geheimnisvoller Obstgarten bildet den Treffpunkt für vier Frauen, die ihren Problemen entfliehen wollen. Fakhri, eine Frau mittleren Alters, lässt ihren untreuen Gatten zurück. Zarin entflieht ihrem Leben als Prostituierte. Munis, in der eine politische Aktivistin schlummert, flieht vor ihrem patriarchalischen Bruder. Und Faezeh, die nichts lieber täte als Munis' Bruder zu ehelichen. Politische Unruhe liegt in der Luft... Der erste Spielfilm der Videokünstlerin Shirin Neshat besticht durch seine betörend schönen, mystischen Bilder, unterlegt mit der atmosphärischen Musik von Ryuichi Sakamoto und fasziniert in der ersten Hälfte. Doch je weiter der Film fortschreitet, desto surrealer und symbolbeladener entgleiten die Geschichte und ihre Bilder. Die vielen Metaphern drohen den Zuschauer zu überfordern. Weniger ist manchmal mehr – das gilt auch im Kino.

Wenn die Hölle losbricht

Die letzte Pressevorführung der Woche bot Apokalypse pur...

THE CRAZIES (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Crazies

Verleih: Kinowelt

Land/Jahr: USA 2010

Regie: Breck Eisner

Darsteller: Timothy Olyphant, Radha Mitchell, Joe Anderson

Kinostart: 27.05.2010

In einer kleinen amerikanischen Ge-meinde auf dem freien Land spielen die Einwohner plötzlich verrückt: ein Mann erscheint auf dem Baseballfeld mit geladenem Gewehr, ein anderer zündet das eigene Häuschen an mitsamt Frau und Kind. Der Sheriff und sein Deputy sind in Alarmbereitschaft. Die Situation eskaliert, als plötzlich die Armee auftaucht und die ganze Stadt evakuiert... Breck Eisners Film ist eine Neuauflage von George Romeros Klassiker aus dem Jahre 1973. Heute wie damals ist es ein Experiment, das aus dem Ruder gelaufen ist und die Bewohner einer Kleinstadt unmerklich verseucht und sie zu rasenden Bestien werden lässt. Anders als Romeros eigene Filme neueren Datums versteht sich Regisseur Eisner hervorragend darauf, seinen Film als durchaus spannenden Horrorthriller zu inszenieren. Eine Szene, in der die Protagonisten auf der Flucht vor dem Militär mit ihrem Auto in eine verlassene Autowaschanlage geraten, zeugt deutlich vom souveränen Umgang Eisners mit Ton und Schnitt und dürfte der grandiose Höhepunkt des Films sein. Für Genrekennner bietet dieses Remake natürlich nicht sonderlich viel Überraschungen, doch die Spannung bleibt trotzdem nicht auf der Strecke. Als kleines Zugeständnis an alle Gore-Fans und vermutlich als Verbeugung vor Horror-Altmeister Romero gibt es natürlich auch ein paar deftige Splattereinlagen. So wird die zweckentfremdete Mistgabel sicherlich für eine Freigabe erst ab 18 Jahren führen. Und das ist auch gut so.

Die Tanzgruppe und das Dienstmädchen

Die einstige Üppigkeit der Pressevorführungen in Stuttgart scheint vorbei zu sein: es gab nur zwei Screenings in dieser Woche. Ob sich die Filmverleiher nicht mehr nach Stuttgart trauen, weil hier Filme noch objektiv begutachtet werden?

STREETDANCE 3D (1:1.85, 2k Digital, 3D, PCM 5.1)

OT: StreetDance 3D

Verleih: Universum

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2010

Regie: Max Giwa, Dania Pasquini

Darsteller: Nichola Burley, Richard

Winsor, George Sampson

Kinostart: 03.06.2010

Als ihr Hauptakteur die Gruppe verlässt, übernimmt Carly die junge Streetdance-Gruppe, mit der sie zusammen bei einem Wettbewerb in London antreten will. Durch Zufall erhält sie das Angebot, ein paar Ballettschülerinnen und -schüler mitmachen zu lassen. Es kommt zu Rivalitäten... Ein Tanzfilmchen, das es maximal in die B- oder C-Kategorie schaffen wird. Die farblosen, eindimensionalen Charaktere und die dünne Handlung reichen leider für eine gute Bewertung nicht aus. Nicht einmal die Streetdance-Sequenzen sind gut in Szene gesetzt. Durch die vielen Schnitte und ungewöhnlichen Perspektiven lassen sich die interessanten Choreographien nicht erfassen. Immerhin wurde dem Film ein passabler 5.1-Mix gegönnt. (Anmerkung: der Film wurde in der Pressevorführung leider im falschen Bildformat präsentiert: 1:2.35 statt 1:1.85. So fehlten die oberen und unteren Bildteile und zerstörten die Cadrage!)

LA NANA – DIE PERLE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: La Nana

Verleih: Arsenal (Filmagentinnen)

Land/Jahr: Chile, Mexiko 2009

Regie: Sebastián Silva

Darsteller: Catalina Saavedra, Claudia

Celedón, Alejandro Goic

Kinostart: 17.06.2010

Seit nunmehr zwanzig Jahren arbeitet Raquel als Dienstmädchen bei ein und derselben Familie. Fast schon gehört sie zur Familie – aber nur fast. Tagtäglich wird sie von Migräneanfällen geplagt. Die Enge ihres kleinen Zimmers, in der sie fast wie eine Nonne lebt, drückt aufs Gemüt. Eines Tages stellt die Hausherrin ein zweites Dienstmädchen ein, um Raquel zu entlasten. Doch Raquel macht der Neuen das Leben zur Hölle... Durch den Verzicht auf Filmmusik und der Verwendung einer digitalen Kamera entwickelt Sebastián Silvas autobiographisch geprägter Film ein dokumentarisches Feeling. Die sorgfältig ausgewählte Besetzung tut ein Übriges, um diese Stimmung zu verstärken. Aber der Film leidet ein wenig an seiner Länge. Denn trotz seiner Spielzeit von nur knapp 100 Minuten fühlt er sich wie ein ganzes Leben an. Daher wird sich LA NANA nur einem ganz speziellen Publikum erschließen können.

Das Dienstags Triple Feature

Ich bin ja schon froh, dass wir in Stuttgart überhaupt noch Pressevorführungen zu sehen bekommen. Aber müssen alle Filme am selben Tag gezeigt werden?

MAMMUT (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Mammoth

Verleih: MFA (24 Bilder)

Land/Jahr: Schweden, Deutschland, Dänemark 2009

Regie: Lukas Moodysson

Darsteller: Gael García Bernal, Michelle Williams, Marife Necesito

Kinostart: 10.06.2010

Als ein vermögender junger Familienvater auf eine längere Dienstreise nach Thailand geht, verändert sich das Familienleben schleichend. Da die Mutter in der Nachtschicht der Notaufnahme bis zur Erschöpfung arbeitet und keine Zeit mehr für die kleine Tochter hat, wendet die sich immer mehr dem philippinischen Kindermädchen zu. Die jedoch hat selbst zwei Söhne, die bei der Großmutter auf den Philippinen leben... In seinem Film führt uns Regisseur Lukas Moodysson die ganze Perversion der Globalisierung sehr dezent vor Augen. Der reiche Vater, der seinen Thailand-Trip dazu nutzt, auszusteigen. Die arme Nanny, die ihre Schutzbefohlene als Ersatz für die zurückgelassenen eigenen Kinder sieht. Die Mutter, die sich mehr um ein verletztes Kind in der Notaufnahme sorgt als um die eigene Tochter. Mit beeindruckender Kameraarbeit und ungewöhnlicher Filmmusik entsteht so eine Kettenreaktion, die nach Veränderung schreit. Dabei erscheinen sind die einzelnen Szenenabfolgen zwar vordergründig als belanglos, enthalten aber bei näherer Betrachtung Zündstoff.

FEDERICOS KIRSCHEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Cenizas Del Cielo

Verleih: W-film

Land/Jahr: Spanien 2008

Regie: Jose Antonio Quiros

Darsteller: Celso Bugallo, Gary Piquer, Clara Segura

Kinostart: 06.05.2010

Bedingt durch eine Autopanne strandet ein Schotte in einem kleinen spanischen Dorf direkt bei einem echten Moloch von Kohlekraftwerk. Dort lernt er den alten Federico kennen, der sich schon seit 40 Jahren für die Stilllegung des umweltschädlichen Kraftwerks einsetzt... Eine kleine Öko-Komödie aus Spanien, die nicht so recht überzeugen kann. Die Schauspieler passen zwar gut in ihre Rollen, aber die Filmmusik mit ihrem irisch-schottischen Einschlag versucht per Holzhammermethode an den britischen Erfolg von LANG LEBE NED DEVINE! anzuknüpfen. Diesem Meisterwerk kann der spanische Film allerdings nicht das Wasser reichen.

HANNI & NANNI (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2010

Regie: Christine Hartmann

Darsteller: Sophia und Jana Münster, Hannelore Elsner, Katharina Thalbach, Heino Ferch

Kinostart: 17.06.2010

Obwohl sie unschuldig sind werden die Zwillingsschwestern Hanni und Nanni des Kaufhausdiebstahls bezichtigt und werden von ihren Eltern auf ein Internat gebracht. Dort müssen sich die beiden ihren Platz in der Mädchen-gemeinschaft erst einmal erkämpfen... Der nach Charakteren von Enid Blyton inspirierte Film entpuppte sich leider als der bislang schlechteste Kinderfilm der letzten Monate. Dem Spaß der Zielgruppe (Kinder bis 6 Jahren) dürfte das allerdings keinen Abbruch tun. Für uns Erwachsene bleibt bei dem Klamauk und Zickenterror nicht viel Brauchbares übrig. Da staunt man dann schon, dass immerhin die klassische Zwillingsschwesterproblematik (Dominanz der Einen über die Andere und deren Befreiung) angerissen wird.

Eisenhart

Im Rahmen der FMX war ich zur Preview eines effektheligen Spektakels eingeladen.

IRON MAN 2 (1:2.35, 2K Digital, PCM 5.1)

OT: Iron Man 2

Verleih: Concorde

Land/Jahr: USA 2010

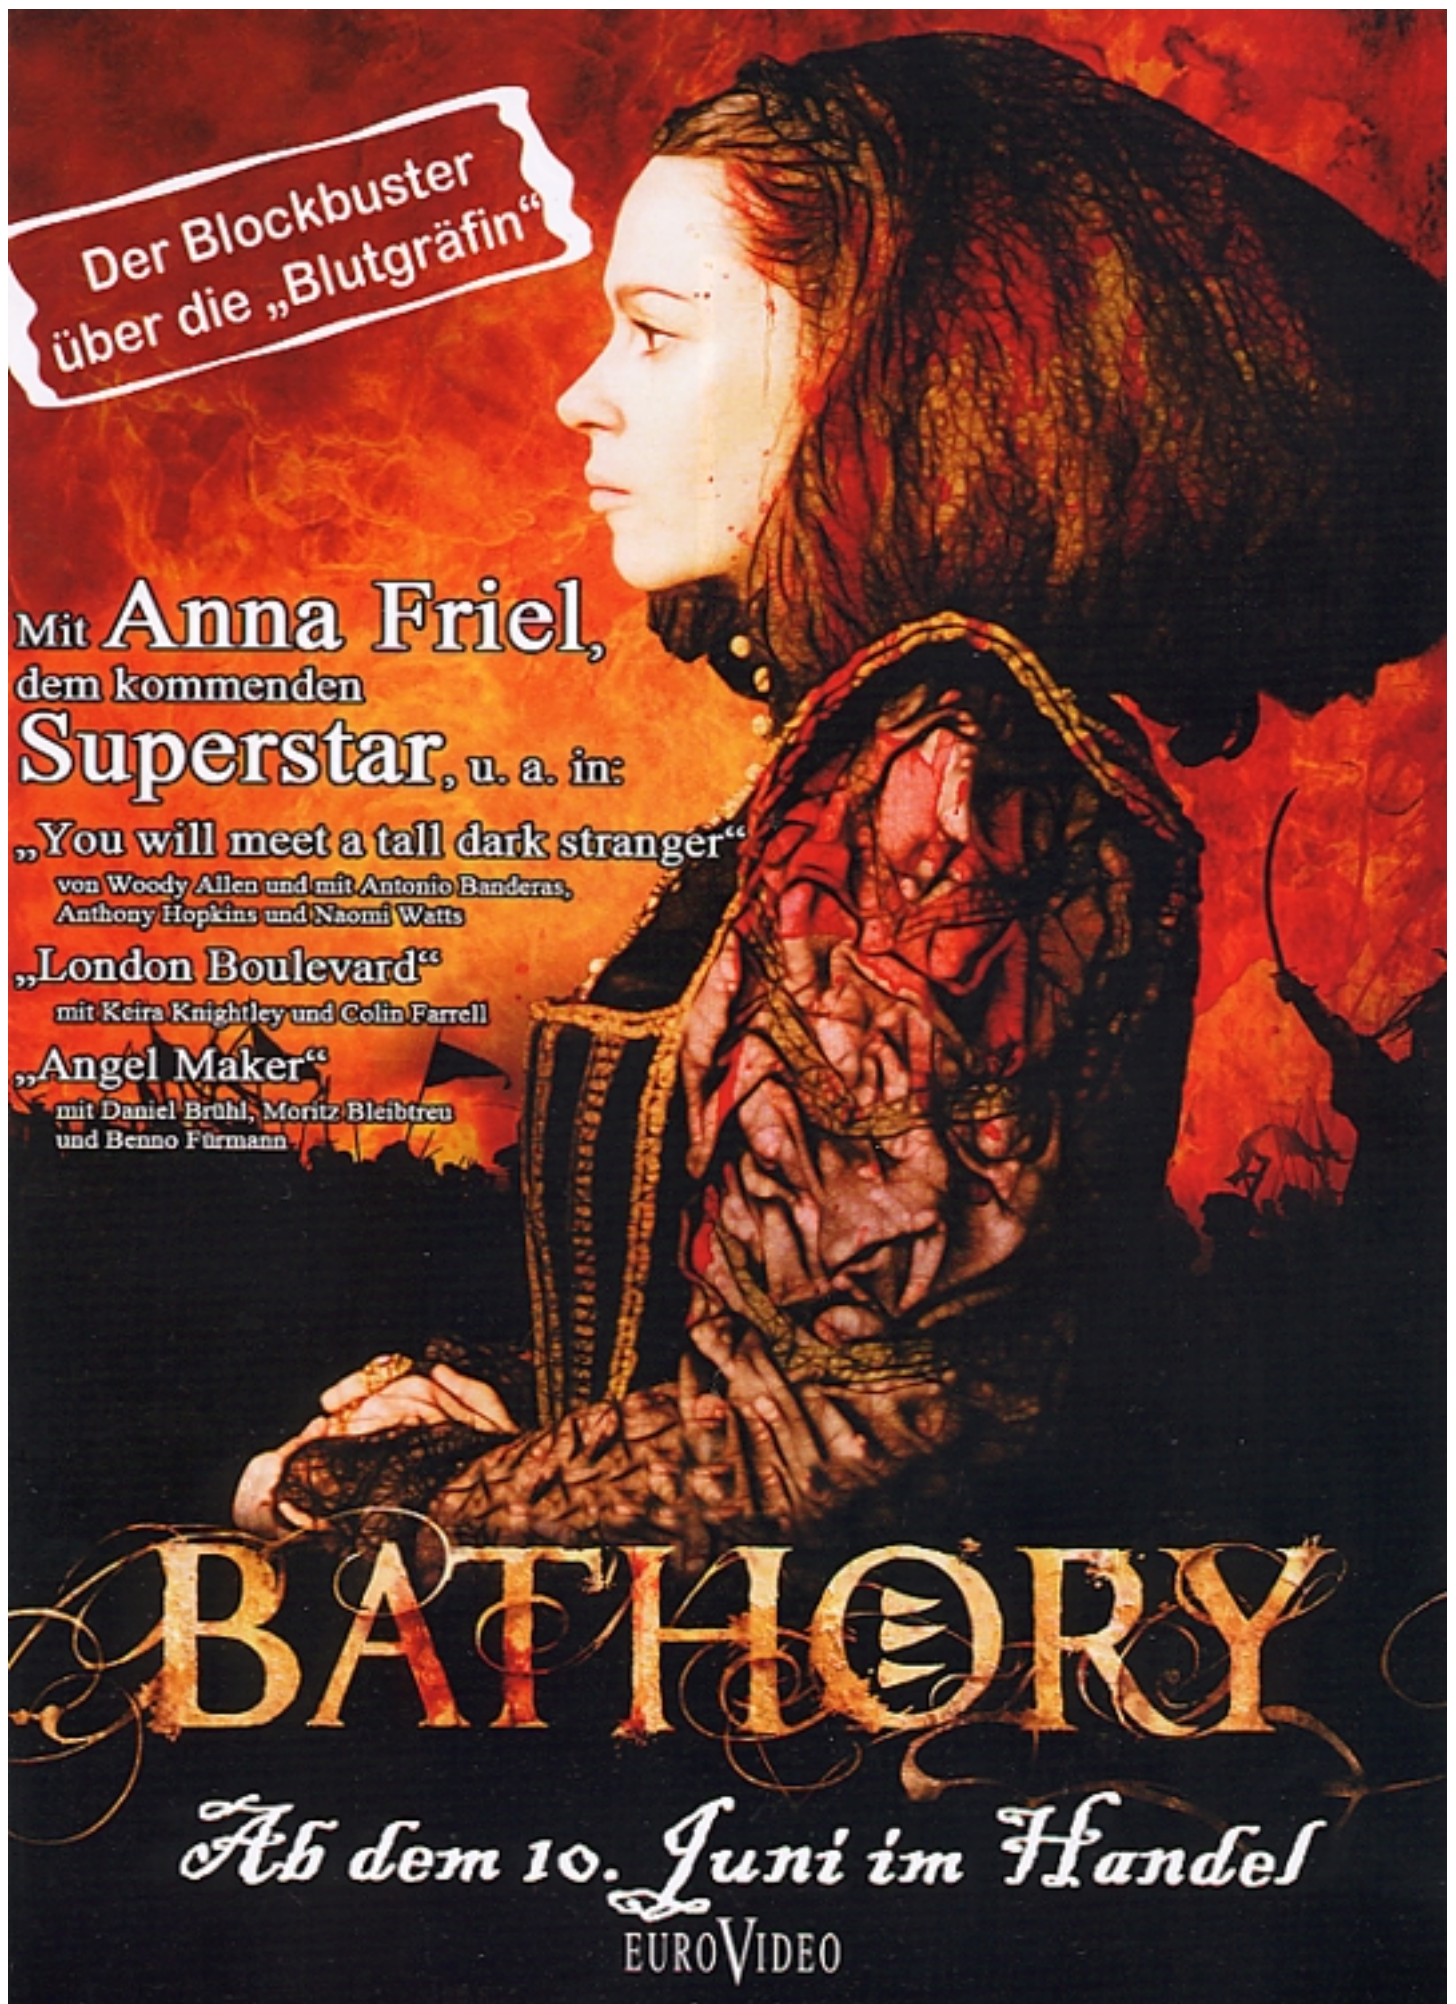

Regie: Jon Favreau

Darsteller: Robert Downey Jr., Gwyneth Paltrow, Don Cheadle, Mickey Rourke, Scarlett Johansson

Kinostart: 06.05.2010

Tony Stark alias "Iron Man" ist der gefeiertste Mann der Welt. Schließlich ist es seinen Superkräften zu verdanken, dass es Frieden auf der Welt gibt. Doch jetzt muss er sich nicht nur gegen einen Ausschuss behaupten, der seine Spezialausrüstung als gefährlich einstufen möchte, sondern auch noch gegen einen Russen, der ebenfalls über Superkräfte verfügt und ihm den Gar aus machen möchte... Wie immer in solchen Filmen sind natürlich die Spezialeffekte der eigentliche Star des Films. Und die sind gewohnt überzeugend. Dass die Story darunter leidet ist klar. Alles läuft hier nach Schema F und am Ende gibt es den langwierigen Showdown, bei dem alles zu Bruch geht. Was IRON MAN 2 jedoch sehenswert macht ist sein charismatischer Hauptdarsteller, der seine Rolle ganz offensichtlich in vollen Zügen genießt! Mit an Bord in Teil 2 der Comic-Verfilmung ist Scarlett Johansson (dieses Mal mit schwarzen Haaren), die in bester KILL BILL Manier gegen eine Überzahl groß gewachsener Bodyguards antritt. Und Mickey Rourke mit russischem Akzent und WRESTLER-Friseur gibt einen perfekten Bösewicht ab. Wer das Glück hat, den Film in einem tontechnisch guten Kino zu erleben, der wird an der Subwoofer orientierten 5.1-Mischung seine wahre Freude haben. Fazit: brauchbarer Mainstream.

Ah! My Goddess: Season 2

It's been almost a year since the Goddess Belldandy came to live with college student Keiichi Morisato, and he's almost gotten up the nerve to kiss her. Unfortunately, the encounter with the Lord of Terror damaged some of Yggdrasil's systems, and the contract binding Belldandy and Keiichi is among the lost data. The lovebirds can only hope the information can be retrieved before the Almighty One orders Belldandy back to Heaven. Naturally Skuld and Urd try to help, but it might be better if they didn't. Then, with Christmas at hand, Keiichi works himself to the bone to buy a present, and the rivalry with Sayoko may have driven Belldandy to drink?! A hidden gem of the French New Wave, Alain Cavalier's Le Combat dans l'île is as coolly modern as it is tensely gripping. Filled with thrilling plot twists, jazzy gun battles and stormy betrayals, this scintillating neo-noir unfolds against a backdrop of 1960s political turmoil and is strikingly shot in stark black and white by legendary cinematographer Pierre Lhomme (Army Of Shadows, King Of Hearts). The charismatic, surly son of a wealthy industrialist, Clément (Jean-Louis Trintignant, of Z and The Conformist) leads a secret double life as a member of a right-wing extremist organization. When he's ratted out after a failed assassination attempt on a prominent politician, Clément and his long-suffering wife Anne (the luminous German screen siren Romy Schneider) flee Paris to the idyllic country home of his childhood friend, Paul (Henri Serre, of Jules And Jim). While Clément embodies reactionary machismo, with his sudden outbursts of brutality, Paul - an artisanal printmaker by trade - is an easy-going, gentle pacifist. As affection blossoms between Paul and Anne, the emotional as well as political ten

Hamlet has the kind of power, energy and excitement that movies can truly exploit," award-winning actor/director Kenneth Branagh says. In this first-ever full-text film of Shakespeare's greatest work, the power surges through every scene. The timeless tale of murder, corruption and revenge is reset in an opulent 19th-century world, using sprawling Blenheim Palace as Elsinore and staging much of the action in shimmering mirrored and gold-filled interiors. The energy is electrifying, due to a luminous cast. The excitement of the Bard's words and an adventurous filmmaking style lift the story from its often shadowy ambience to fully-lit pageantry and rage

Robin Askwith, Michael Gough, Dennis Price, Skip Martin
The doctor will see you...dead!. The ultimate '70s UK horror-comedy is back like you've never seen it before! Legendary British actor Michael Gough - 'Alfred' in the Batman movies - stars as Dr. Storm, the depraved proprietor of a 'health hotel' in the English countryside. But when a burned-out rocker (Robin Askwith of Confessions of a Window Cleaner) and his sexy new girlfriend arrive for a relaxing vacation, they'll instead become trapped in a nightmare of psycho bikers, cheeky dwarves, rampant decapitations, gratuitous nudity, lethal luxury sedans and a diabolical plan to create a slave army of lobotomized zombies. Skip Martin (Vampire Circus) and Dennis Price (Theater of Blood) co-star in this bloody/campy cult favorite from writer/director Antony Balch, now transferred in HD from the original 35mm camera negative and featuring a revealing new commentary with producer Richard Gordon.

National Lampoon's Vacation (Blu-ray)

Chevy Chase, Imogene Coca, Christie Brinkley, Randy Quaid, John Candy
Everything is planned. Everything is packed. And everything is about to go hilariously wrong. The Griswolds are going on vacation. In the driver's seat, of course, is Clark Griswold (Chevy Chase), an Everyman eager to share the open road and the wonders of family togetherness with his wife and kids. Myriad mishaps, crude kin (Randy Quaid), encounters with a temptress (Christie Brinkley), financial woes, Aunt Edna (Imogene Coca) on the roof, one security guard (John Candy) and 2,460 miles later, it is indeed a wonder the Griswolds are together. There's never been a family vacation like it. Except perhaps for yours. And that helps explain why National Lampoon's Vacation remains so popular...and so very funny.

The Only Son / There Was A Father: Two Films By Yasujiro Ozu - The Criterion Collection

These rare early films from Yasujiro Ozu (Tokyo Story, An Autumn Afternoon) are considered by many to be two of the Japanese director's finest works, paving the way for a career among the most sensitive and significant in film history. The Only Son and There Was A Father make a graceful pair, bookending a crucial period in Japanese history. In the former, Ozu's first sound film, made during a time of intense economic crisis, a mother sacrifices her own happiness for her son's education; the latter, released in the midst of World War II, stars Ozu stalwart Chishu Ryu (Late Spring, Tokyo Story) as a widowed schoolteacher trying to raise a son despite financial hardship. Criterion proudly presents these nearly lost treasures for the first time on home video.

The Sun

Shiro Sano, Momoi Kaori
Alexander Sokurov continues his brilliant investigation into the lives of dictators with the „engrossing, supremely assured“ (Village Voice) The Sun. Following up his portraits of Hitler in Moloch (1999) and Lenin in Taurus (2001), the film is a mesmerizing tour of Emperor Hirohito's final days in power during the waning moments of WWII. Played by Lssei Ogata (Yi Yi) with „an impish wit“ (Variety), Hirohito wanders through his palace in a child-like state of denial. He spends his time studying marine biology and paging through a photo album of Hollywood stars. Hirohito's patients chamberlain (Shiro Sano) encourages his isolation through banal daily rituals, which include „time for private thought.“ But reality soon intrudes, as American soldiers overrun his manicured gardens and nightmare visions of Hiroshima invade his dreams. No longer a God among men, Hirohito is forced to kowtow to General MacArthur (Robert Dawson), who softly pushes the terms of the occupation and, even more dramatically, for the renunciation of Hirohito's divinity.

Vincere

Giovanna Mezzogiorno
Acclaimed Italian director Marco Bellocchio (Fists in the Pocket; Devil in the Flesh) delivers his boldest work yet, an audacious, visually stunning film that the Village Voice calls „a stylistic knockout“ about fascist dictator Benito Mussolini and the woman he loved, scorned, denounced and then wrote out of history. Rising actor Filippo Timi is magnetic in a dual role as both the steamrolling dictator and the son he refuses to acknowledge. And Giovanna Mezzogiorno (Love In The Time Of Cholera) delivers a career-making, award-winning performance as Ida Dalsler, the lover who wouldn't go away. Bellocchio is a master of eroticism and their scenes of abandon are so powerful and reckless (The Hollywood Reporter called them „steamy“), it's easy to understand why Dalsler could never give him up. His rise to power and her descent into an insane asylum are tragic counterpoints in a doomed romance. Dalsler may have been written off at the time, but Bellocchio and Mezzogiorno allow her a final, unexpected triumph in this cinematic masterwork.

What's Up, Doc? (Blu-ray)

Barbra Streisand, Kenneth Mars, Madeline Kahn, Michael Murphy, Sorrell Booke, Austin Pendleton
What's Up, Doc? joyously recaptures the bubbly style of 1930's screwball comedies - and firmly establishes Barbra Streisand and Ryan O'Neal as a romantic duo uniquely endearing in screen history. Included are a daffy luggage mixup plot, dippy dialogue exchanges, a marvelous example of the art of hotel-room demolition and one of the funniest chase sequences ever, all over San Francisco. Dexterously written with a surefooted sense of the ridiculous by Buck Henry. David Newman and Robert Benton, directed by Peter Bogdanovich with giddy affection and cast with awesomely hilarious players (including film-debuting Madeline Kahn).
What's Up, Doc? is no idle question. Among comedy movies, it's the top

Lost Concerts Series: Nat King Cole

A marvelous opportunity to immerse yourself in the silky smooth voice of the great entertainer Nat King Cole, seen performing a memorable selection of songs that helped set this massive talent apart from all others. His flair for all things musical surfaced at a very young age, learning to play the piano and organ at the tender age of 12 before going on to set up two groups, one named the 'Rogues of Rhythm' and the other 'Nat Cole and his Royal Dukes' in his early teens. But it was at the age of 16 when he began to take music seriously, and joined the 'Solid Swingers' playing keyboard, recording several songs with the mighty Decca Records along the way. In this superb DVD we see the results of his earlier ambition in a compilation of Nat's evergreen songs taken from rare television clips, providing 72 minutes of sheer listening and viewing pleasure.

Tannhauser

David Alden's production of Wagner's grand romantic opera was recorded at the National Theatre in Munich, with Bayerische Staatsoper, in September 1994. Shot over three days by leading opera director Brian Large, this recording benefits from the ideal technical conditions made possible by a closed session. Alden, one of the most iconoclastic interpreters of classical opera, stirs up the visionary, erotic, and archetypal elements in Wagner's work. The cold, forbidding aspect of the stylized and predominantly monochrome sets and costumes by Roni Toren and Buki Shiff manifests the strait-jacket of tradition from which Tannhäuser seeks to free himself in this powerful opera.

The Art Of The Steal

It's been called the greatest theft of art since the Second World War. The Art of the Steal reveals how a private collection of paintings became the envy of the Louvre, the Metropolitan Museum of Art and other major institutions - and the prize in a battle between one man's vision and the forces of commerce and politics. Founded in 1922 by wealthy American drug developer and art collector Albert C. Housed in Lower Merion, Pennsylvania, the Barnes Foundation was envisioned by Barnes as an art school, not a public museum, but ever since Barnes' death in 1951, the fight over its future has been underway. On one side are the artists, historians and lawyers defending Barnes' wish that the entire collection (valued at over $25 billion) never be moved, loaned or sold; and on the other side, the politicians, huge charitable trusts, tourism boards and rich socialites pushing to relocate it to downtown Philadelphia. This is a real-life David vs. Goliath story, a tale of suspense in which
