DIGITAL EDITION

Nr. 291 - Mai 2011

editorial

Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Die Wellen schlagen momentan sehr hoch in Fankreisen. Grund dafür sind die angekündigten Blu-ray Erstveröffentlichungen von zwei der erfolgreichsten Serien der Kinogeschichte. STAR WARS und HERR DER RINGE. Erst vor ein paar Tagen wurden die Details zum Fox-Release der STAR WARS SAGA bekanntgegeben. Und die wollen wir Ihnen natürlich nicht vorenthalten. Die Pressemitteilung mitsamt Cover-Abbildungen gibt es ab Seite 15 in diesem Newsletter. Preise für die drei erscheinenden Varianten wurden seitens Fox leider noch nicht kommuniziert. Was die Informationen zum Warner-Release der HERR DER RINGE TRILOGIE angeht, so hält man sich hier noch etwas bedeckt mit Details. Nur eines ist gewiss: es handelt sich um die "Extended Versions" und nicht um die Kinofassungen. Alles was uns Warner Home Video bisher verraten hat, finden Sie auf Seite 11. Die Monate Juli und September sollten Sie also bereits jetzt in ihrem Heimkino für diese zeitlosen Blockbuster-Packages freihalten!

Doch was tun bis es soweit ist? Einen Vorschlag hätten wir gleich parat: wie wäre es mit einem Ausflug nach Karlsruhe? Dort findet in der Zeit vom 27.05. bis 29.05 2011 ein Event der ganz besonderen Art statt. Und das sogar in der dritten Dimension! BEYOND – 3DAYS OF DIMENSION nennt sich die erste Veranstaltung dieser Art, in der es um alle Aspekte dreidimensionaler Medien geht. Die Mitteilung des Veranstalters im Wortlaut: "Neben aktuellen Produktionen und Trends des stereoskopischen Films in Kino und Fernsehen sowie des 3D-Gaming, zeigt BEYOND Innovationen in den Bereichen der raumprojizierenden Medien, künstlerische Installationen und Performances. Durch die Verknüpfung mit akustischen Projektionen im Raum wird dies mit allen Sinnen erfahrbar gemacht. BEYOND präsentiert in „3 DAYS OF DIMENSIONS“ die Geschichte stereoskopischer Verfahren und deren Darstellungspotenzial. Auch 360°-Projektion, Holographie und Lasertechnologie sind Bestandteil des breiten Spektrums dieses Festivals, das

Technologien, Disziplinen und Menschen gleichermaßen zusammenführt. Das Publikum kann sich darüber hinaus über aktuelle Entwicklungen im Consumerbereich informieren und Zukunftsvisionen in den Bereichen Entertainment, Engineering und Education bestaunen.". Partner bei diesem Großevent ist natürlich auch die Schauburg, die an diesem Wochenende tief in die Filmkiste greift und ein paar dreidimensionale Schmankerl präsentieren wird. Besondere Beachtung verdienen dabei Alfred Hitchcocks Thriller BEI ANRUF MORD (1954) und Roy Ward Bakers Western INFERNO (1953), die jeweils als nagelneue DCPs zur Aufführung kommen werden. Ergänzt wird das Programm durch Screenings von RAPUNZEL (in der englischen Originalfassung inklusive Dolby Surround 7.1 Tonmischung!), CORALINE, CAVE OF FORGOTTEN DREAMS sowie dem ersten Ballettfilm in 3D, GISELLE. Informationen zu allen

Veranstaltungen finden Sie im Internet unter www.beyond-festival.com und www.schauburg.de

Also – man sieht sich in der dritten Dimension!

Lehramt Hollywood

Es wird oft behauptet, Hollywood trage zur Verdummung der Menschheit bei. In einigen Fällen trifft das auch zu. Z.B. wenn man bedenkt, wie viele Männer es für völlig normal halten, dass ihre Liebchaft morgens wie aus dem Ei gepellt das Bett verlässt. Perfektes Make-up, die Haare sexy und sanft verwuschelt. Als ob wir, wenn der Wecker klingelt, nur noch den Satz "I'm ready for my close-up" sagen müssten. Andererseits glauben viele Frauen – Ethan Hunt und James Bond sei Dank – jeder Mann, dem man einen Schraubenzieher und eine Zange in die Hand drückt, mutiert sofort zum MacGyver.

Ja, so ist das. Zum Kopfschütteln. Dabei können wir so viel von Hollywood lernen! Hier sind die wichtigsten Lektionen im Hollywood-Grundkurs zum (Über)Leben.

Lektion 1: Ohren auf!

Geräusche sind niemals nur Geräusche. Wer seiner Umgebung aufmerksam zuhört, hat ungleich höhere Überlebenschancen als die "Ist nur der Wind"-Sager. Die Basics zuerst: Hört man ein ungewohntes Geräusch, immer gleich den Baseballschläger zücken und sich auf die Pirsch nach der Quelle begeben. Starr vor Angst im Bett liegenzubleiben ist keine Option, da wird man nur etwas gemütlicher liegend abgestochen. Hat man sich auf die Pirsch gemacht und es stellt sich heraus, die Quelle war die Katze, die im Müll wühlt, sollte man sich keinesfalls in Sicherheit wähnen. Jetzt wird es erst recht kritisch! Denn das nächste Geräusch, auch wenn es genau wie die Müllkatze klingt, wird lebensbedrohend. Also: Weiterhin auf der Lauer liegen und alles, was sich bewegt, sofort erschlagen. Wenn es eine zweite Müllkatze war, dann hat die eben Pech gehabt. Für Fortgeschrittene gilt außerdem, der Versuchung zu widerstehen, lauthals Fragen oder Befehle zu rufen. "Ist da jemand?!" "Komm raus!" und "Zeig dich!" sind absolut tabu. Wir wollen schließlich unseren Standort nicht preisgeben. Denn egal wie die Antwort auf diese Rufe ausfällt, es endet immer gleich: Man ist tot. Deshalb Ohren auf, Klappe zu und möglichst in einen stählernen Baseballschläger investieren. Dann klappt es auch mit dem Überleben.

Lektion 2: Respektiere den Dresscode!

Mit dem richtigen Outfit erreicht man alles. Aber Vorsicht! Die Regeln für Männer und Frauen sind genau entgegengesetzt! Will Frau im Job was erreichen, muss sie sich ultra-stylish anziehen. So etwas wie nicht-grade-aus-der-Vogue-gefallen sollte es grundsätzlich nicht bis vor die Haustüre schaffen. High Heels sind zwingend. Als Mann darf man anhaben, was man will, aber es ist wichtig, zumindest ein peppiges Accessoire zu tragen, damit alle sehen, wie individualistisch man ist. Ein bunter Schal, ein ausgefallenes Lederarmband, eine hippe Gürtelschnalle. Schon ist der Erfolg in Sicht! Bei Männern gilt Kontinuität: IMMER dieses Accessoire tragen! Bei Frauen gilt es, einen großen Mülleimer sein eigen zu nennen. Jedes Outfit darf nur EIN EINZIGES MAL getragen werden. Sonst kann man gleich bei Aldi kassieren gehen. Beide Geschlechter müssen sich bewusst sein, dass die Menge des Stoffes in direktem Verhältnis zu den Überlebenschancen in heiklen Situationen steht. Männer sollten so schnell wie möglich den Oberkörper freimachen, denn damit ist Unverwundbarkeit quasi garantiert. Sie werden einige Blessuren erhalten, meine Herren, aber keine Sorge. Diese tun im Kampf nicht weh. Es sei denn, Sie begehen die Dummheit, einer Frau die Versorgung zu überlassen, anstatt sich selbst zu nähren. Außerdem hinterlassen diese Verletzungen sexy Narben, über die in absehbarer Zeit eine schöne Frau mit ihren langen Fingern sanft streichen wird. Win-win! Ladies hingegen sollten, sobald es brenzlig wird, die langen Hosen und festen Jacken anlegen (aber High Heels anlassen, sonst gilt es nicht!), denn je weniger frau anhat, desto schneller schwingt der Tod die Sense. Überleben in warmer Kleidung: Eigentlich eine freudige Nachricht!

Lektion 3: Immer weiterreden!

Hören Sie nicht auf Stimmen, die Ihnen sagen Sie seien schwer verletzt und schweigen täte da gut. Sind Sie tatsächlich schwer verletzt: Reden! Geben Sie wichtige Informationen weiter, bekennen Sie ihre Liebe (ob zu demjenigen, der neben Ihnen kniet, oder zu Ihrem Welpen ist egal) oder enthüllen Sie einfach das Rezept für Ihren preisgekrönten Apfelkuchen. Wie man es auch dreht, wenn Sie reden passiert auf jeden Fall Gutes. Entweder Sie retten jemandes Leben, Herz oder Kuchenwettbewerb oder Sie gewinnen die nötige Zeit, bis die Sanitäter zur Stelle sind. Reden hilft auch, wenn Sie der Retter sind. Sprechen Sie mit den Komapatienten und beschenken Sie ihnen wichtige Träume und Missionen für den Augenblick des Erwachens. Komapatienten wachen nämlich früher oder später immer auf, wenn man mit ihnen ... Sie ahnen es ... geredet hat. Machen Sie nicht nur die Herzmassage, sondern ... genau ... reden Sie auch auf den Verletzten ein. Sie werden sehen, in Nullkommanix wird Ihr Sorgenkind aufrecht sitzen und in Ihren Armen dankbar nach Luft schnappen. Hurra! Auch in Situationen, in denen es primär ums Gewinnen geht, ist Reden Gold wert. Sie haben ein Team oder eine Armee zu motivieren? Wenn Sie eine lange, metaphorreiche Rede vorbereitet haben, wird Ihre Seite gewinnen. Wieso? Weil die Konkurrenten eben nicht mit ihren Leuten geredet haben! Wir halten fest: Je mehr Gerede, desto höher die Gewinnchancen, im Leben wie beim Baseball. Also üben Sie!

Da ich gerade ein kratzendes Geräusch an meinem Fensterladen gehört habe und nur Unterwäsche trage, muss ich mich an dieser Stelle von Ihnen verabschieden. Mein Dank geht an Prof. Dr. Hollywood von der University of Tinseltown für ihre Hilfe bei dieser Kolumne!

Eine walisische Erfolgsgeschichte

Es gibt Geschichten, die sind so unglaublich, dass sie eigentlich nur wahr sein können. Eine dieser Geschichten gab es heute.

MR. NICE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Mr. Nice

Verleih: Koch Media (Neue Visionen)

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2010

Regie: Bernard Rose

Darsteller: Rhys Ifans, Chloë Sevigny, David Thewlis

Kinostart: 23.06.2011

Nachdem die Anfangstitel auf einen Bühnenvorhang projiziert wurden, öffnet sich dieser und gibt den Blick frei auf einen halbwegs gefüllten Saal. Ein älterer Herr betritt die Bühne und spricht zum Publikum: "Sind hier heute zufälligerweise Polizisten in Zivil anwesend?" Bei dem Herrn, der jetzt seine Lebensgeschichte zum Besten gibt, handelt es sich um Howard Marks, dessen Autobiographie zum Bestseller geworden ist. Und das nicht ohne Grund. Der Oxford-Student aus einfachen Verhältnissen steigt zum internationalen Drogenboss auf. Dabei kam er zu den Drogen so wie die Jungfrau zum Kind. Nach ersten Berührungen mit Hasch in studentischen Kreisen in Oxford muss er für einen Kumpel, der als Drogenkurier arbeitet, einspringen. Und er findet großen Gefallen daran. Nicht nur an den Drogen selbst, sondern auch an dem Adrenalinkick, den er als Drogenkurier erfährt. "Ich hätte alles am liebsten selber geraucht – aber es gab einfach zuviel. Deshalb habe ich begonnen, es zu verkaufen!", so Marks. Rhys Ifans spielt den charismatischen, aber auch etwas naiv wirkenden Drogendealer mit einer solchen lebenswerten Lässigkeit, dass man ihn einfach mögen muss. Seine schier unglaubliche Karriere, die er mit Hilfe eines IRA-Anführers sowie als Agent des MI-6 antritt, verläuft alles anderes als nach Plan. So stürzt Marks immer wieder in Katastrophen, kann sich aber dank seiner Verbindungen fast immer wie Münchhausen an seinem eigenen Schopf aus dem Schlamassel ziehen. Ein Film, der mit englischem (oder genauer: walisischem) Witz klarmacht, wo richtig Geld verdient werden kann!

Der Weg ist das Ziel

Zwei Filme – ein Motto. Während es im ersten Film tatsächlich noch um eine Art Pilgerreise ging, wartete der zweite Film mit einer altbekannten Story auf, bei der man als Zuschauer das Ziel kennt und auf den Weg gespannt sein sollte. In beiden Fällen aber war der Weg einfach zu lang.

DER MANN DER ÜBERAUTOS

SPRANG (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Arsenal (Filmagentinnen)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2010

Regie: Nick Baker-Montey

Darsteller: Robert Stadlober, Jessica Schwarz, Martin Feifel

Kinostart: 02.06.2011

Julian, ein charismatischer junger Mann, macht sich eines Tages auf den Weg von Berlin ins Schwabenland – zu Fuß. Er hofft, dass durch die durch sein Gehen freigesetzte Energie der schwerkranke Vater seines besten Freundes geheilt wird. Auf seinem Weg trifft er ein paar Menschen, die von ihm fasziniert sind und die sich ihm aus unterschiedlichen Gründen anschließen. Da ist Ju, eine Ärztin, die vor lauter Arbeit ihr Herz verloren zu haben scheint. Und Ruth, die von ihrem Ehemann unterdrückt wird. Was Julians Weggefährten allerdings nicht wissen: der sensible junge Mann ist aus einer psychiatrischen Anstalt ausgebrochen. So kommt Jan ins Spiel, der Polizist, der Julian wieder finden soll. Doch Jan hat selber Ärger – im Beruf und auch im Privatleben. Bald gehört auch er der wandernden Clique an... Der Regisseur über seinen Film: "Die Menschen, die Julian trifft, glauben nicht unbedingt, dass Julian die Macht hat, einen Menschen durch die Kraft des Gehens zu heilen. Vielmehr ist es so, dass sie in ihm jemanden erkennen, der an etwas glaubt. Oder noch besser: jemand, der an die Fähigkeiten der Menschen glaubt." So wird der Film zu einem spirituellen Roadmovie, an dessen Ende die Protagonisten wieder beginnen, an sich selber zu glauben, um so ihr festgefahrenes Leben ändern zu können. Mit einer Ausnahme sind die Charaktere der Protagonisten recht glaubhaft angelegt – die des Polizisten Jan. Sein Verhaltensmuster passt leider ganz und gar nicht zu einem Polizisten – private Probleme hin oder her. Eingefangen wird das alles in teilweise mystisch wirkenden CinemaScope-Bildern (Kamera: Eeva Fleig). Der Weg ist das Ziel – aber der Weg ist ein bisschen zu lang.

FREMD FISCHEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Something Borrowed

Verleih: Tobis

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Luke Greenfield

Darsteller: Ginnifer Goodwin, Kate Hudson, John Krasinski

Kinostart: 16.06.2011

Man kann Regisseur Luke Greenfield nur dazu beglückwünschen, dass er einen Film von gefühlten drei Stunden Spielzeit und einer effektiven Lauflänge von gerade einmal 110 Minuten abgeliefert hat. Da bekommen seine Produzenten wirklich mehr für ihr investiertes Geld als was sie bestellt hatten! Aber Scherz beiseite: FREMD FISCHEN ist mindestens eine halbe Stunde zu lange geraten. Das liegt leider an dem total einfallslosen Drehbuch, dessen Grundstory sicherlich schon ein halbes Dutzend mal verfilmt wurde. Seit sie Kinder waren sind Rachel und ihre beste Freundin Darcy unzertrennlich. Jetzt steht Darcys Hochzeit kurz bevor. Ihr zukünftiger Gatte soll ausgerechnet der smarte Dex werden, mit dem Rachel während ihres Jurastudiums dick befreundet war. Was Dex nicht ahnt: die gute Rachel war schon immer in ihn verliebt, hat es ihm aber nie gestanden. Als sich Rachel und Dex nach Rachels wilder 30er-Geburtstagsfeier treffen, funkt es endlich zwischen den beiden. Mit unausweichlichen Folgen... Was jetzt alles passieren wird, dürfte jedem Romantik-Komödien-Fan ganz klar sein. Und das macht ja auch gar nichts. Dumm nur, dass der Film keinerlei Überraschungen zu bieten hat und die Geschichte sich wie Kaugummi hinzieht. Das können leider auch nicht die Schauspieler wieder wett machen. Den richtigen Schock gibt's dann noch während den Endtiteln. Denn da gibt es noch eine Bonusszene, die mit dem Schriftzug "Fortsetzung folgt" endet. Da bleibt nur zu hoffen, dass das ein Scherz ist...

Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog

Wenn Blut an der Linse klebt

Einmal mehr gab es heute etwas auf der Leinwand zu sehen, was sich so tatsächlich zugetragen hat.

THE BANG BANG CLUB (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Bang Bang Club

Verleih: Senator

Land/Jahr: Kanada, Südafrika 2010

Regie: Steven Silver

Darsteller: Malin Akerman, Ryan Phillippe, Taylor Kitsch

Kinostart: 23.06.2011

Im Jahre 1990 kommt der Fotojournalist Greg Marinovich nach Südafrika, um dort für Associated Press Bilder von den Unruhen in Soweto zu liefern. Bei seiner gefährlichen Arbeit lernt er drei weitere Fotoreporter kennen. Zusammen würden die vier bald in die Annalen des Fotojournalismus eingehen. Marinovichs Foto, das einen Unterstützer des ANC (African National Congress) dabei zeigt, wie er auf einen brennenden Mann der IFP (Inkatha Freedom Party) mit der Machete einschlägt, gewinnt den Pulitzer-Preis. Doch die vier Fotohelden sehen sich auch mit einem großen Dilemma konfrontiert: wie weit darf man gehen, um ein gutes Foto zu schießen? – "The Bang Bang Club" nannten sich die vier Unerschrockenen, deren Bilder es zu verdanken ist, dass die Welt über die Greueltaten in Südafrika informiert wurde. Südafrika war in jener Zeit gerade im Umbruch – die Apartheid endete 1994. Steven Silver zeigt in seinem Film, den er nach dem Buch zweier der überlebenden Fotografen inszenierte, welchen Konflikten die Kriegsfotografen Greg Marinovich, Kevin Carter, Ken Oosterbroek und Joao Silva ausgesetzt waren. Während Marinovich anfangs noch zögerlich mit seiner Kamera auf sterbende Menschen hielt, lässt ihn sein Pulitzer-Preis das Leid schnell vergessen und führt zu seiner Abstumpfung. Sein Freund und Kollege Carter versucht die inneren Konflikte mit Drogen zu überwinden. 1994 begeht er Selbstmord. Kurz zuvor erhält auch er den Pulitzer-Preis für ein Bild, das um die Welt ging. Es zeigt ein verhungertes Mädchen im Sudan, hinter dem bereits ein Aasgeier Platz genommen hat. Das Bild wirft viele Fragen auf, die Carter schließlich zu seiner folgenschweren Entscheidung veranlassen. Seine Figur ist die interessanteste im ganzen Film und wird von Taylor Kitsch hervorragend gespielt. Auch wenn es nach außen hin den Anschein hat, so ist THE BANG BANG CLUB kein Mainstream-Kino, sondern durchaus diskussionswürdig.

Kino mit Sogwirkung

Es gibt sie tatsächlich noch, die richtigen Filme, die einen nicht mehr loslassen. Der erste Film heute war ein solcher und dürfte einer der besten Filme sein, die ich in diesem Jahr sehen werde!

DIE FRAU DIE SINGT (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Incendies

Verleih: Arsenal

Land/Jahr: Kanada 2010

Regie: Denis Villeneuve

Darsteller: Lubna Azabal, Mélissa Désormeaux-Poulin, Maxim Gaudette

Kinostart: 23.06.2011

Bei der Verlesung des Testaments ihrer Mutter werden die Zwillinge Jeanne und Simon mit einer Überraschung konfrontiert. Sie erhalten zwei versiegelte Briefe. Einen sollen sie ihrem Vater übergeben, den sie nie kennenlernten, weil sie ihn für tot hielten. Ein weiterer ist an ihren Bruder adressiert, von dessen Existenz sie keine Ahnung hatten. Weil Simon mit der Sache nichts zu tun haben möchte, macht sich Jeanne alleine auf den Weg in die Heimat ihrer Mutter – in den Nahen Osten. Nach und nach lüftet sie das Geheimnis, das ihre Mutter fast zwanzig Jahre lang gut gehütet hatte... Denis Villeneuves für den Auslands-Oscar nominierte Film entfaltet hat eine ganz eigenartig hypnotische Sogwirkung, der man sich als Betrachter nicht entziehen kann. Auf zwei ineinander verschachtelten Zeitebenen erzählt er zum einen die tragische Geschichte von Nawal Marwan, die nach der Entbindung ihres unehelichen Sohnes aus ihrem Heimatdorf vertrieben wird und ihren Sohn zurücklassen muss. Zum anderen ist es die Spurensuche ihrer Kinder, deren Weg sie von Kanada in den Libanon führen und an deren Ende eine große Tragödie aufgedeckt wird – eine Tragödie über das Grauen des Krieges, der die Narben der Gewalt hinterlässt und auch über die unbezwingbare Kraft des Überlebenswillens. Der im Original INCENDIES (was soviel bedeutet wie Brandkatastrophe oder Großfeuer) betitelte Film ist emotional wuchtiges Kino, das tief unter die Haut geht. Ein exzellentes Ensemble, bemerkenswerte Kameraarbeit und sparsam platzierte Filmmusik machen den Film zu einem der Höhepunkte des Jahres und beweisen aufs Neue, dass Denis Villeneuve (POLYTECHNIQUE) einer der begabtesten kanadischen Filmemacher ist.

LIFE IN A DAY – EIN TAG AUF UNSERER ERDE (1:1.85, 5.1)

OT: Life In A Day

Verleih: Rapid Eye Movies HE

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2010

Regie: Kevin Macdonald

Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog

Darsteller: Cindy Baer, Matthew T. Irving, Caryn Waechter
Kinostart: 09.06.2011

Der Film, der als Experiment begann, kommt jetzt in die Kinos. Regisseur Kevin Macdonald und seine Produzenten hatten über das Internet Menschen in aller Welt dazu aufgerufen, einen Film über einen Tag in ihrem Leben zu machen und ein paar Fragen zu beantworten. Der Tag war der 24. Juli 2010. Zu ihrem Erstaunen erhielten die Macdonald und sein Team Zusendungen aus 192 Ländern und mussten über 4000 Stunden an Material sichten – eine Mammutaufgabe. Unter Mcdonalds Aufsicht wurden die besten Clips herausgepickt, in einen Kontext gestellt und mit einem Score ausgestattet. Das Ergebnis ist höchst originell. Da sieht man Menschen aus aller Welt bei Alltäglichem – ob beim morgendlichen Aufstehen, beim Zähneputzen, beim Arbeiten, beim Heiraten. Und es sind Menschen aus allen Bevölkerungsschichten – arm und reich. Viele der Bilder animieren zum Nachdenken, manche zum Schmunzeln, andere zum Weinen. Zu letzteren Bildern gehören mit Sicherheit jene der tragischen Love Parade in Duisburg. Damit auch authentisch bleibt was authentisch ist, wird der Experimentalfilm im Original mit deutschen Untertiteln in die Kinos gebracht.

Wenn das Fragezeichen über dem Kopf schwebt

Wochenausklank mit verstörender und leichter Kost. Aber ganz ehrlich: nach dem tollen Film von gestern konnte es heute nur schlechter werden.

BROWNIAN MOVEMENT (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Brownian Movement

Verleih: Filmlichter

Land/Jahr: Niederlande, Belgien, Deutschland 2010

Regie: Nanouk Leopold

Darsteller: Sandra Hüller, Dragan Bakema, Sabine Timoteo
Kinostart: 30.06.2011

Charlotte, gutsituiert mit Mann und Kind, führt ein Doppelleben. Wenn sie nicht als Ärztin an einer medizinischen Universität arbeitet oder mit Mann Max und Sohn Benjamin schöne Stunden verbringt, hat sie Sex mit unattraktiven Männern in einer speziell dafür angemieteten Wohnung. Als ihr Doppelleben auffliegt, muss sie sich einer Therapie unterziehen. Gleichzeitig verliert sie ihre Approbation. Der berufliche Umzug nach Indien soll dem Paar einen Neuanfang bereiten... BROWNIAN MOVEMENT ist einer jener Filme, für die ich nicht intelligent genug bin und die ich daher sehr gerne als Kunstkino deklariere. Ob ich damit richtig liege, das überlasse ich der Beurteilung meiner Kolleginnen und Kollegen. Mir jedenfalls hat sich dieses Drama nicht erschlossen. Warum der Film endlos lange Einstellungen beinhaltet oder warum sich Charlotte weigert, über ihre sexuellen Obsessionen zu sprechen, versucht die Regisseurin zwar im Presseheft zu erläutern, doch auch beim Lesen dieses Textes klingt es bei mir leider noch immer nicht. Wenigstens nutzt der Film das CinemaScope-Format richtig aus, indem es oft Personen nur am äußersten Bildrand erscheinen lässt und so eine Distanz zwischen den Personen und den sie umgebenden Raum schafft. Auch die Darsteller sind gut ausgewählt. Trotzdem bleibt es für mich persönlich vergebene Liebesmühe.

DIE RELATIVITÄTSTHEORIE DER LIEBE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Otto Alexander Jahrreiss

Darsteller: Katja Riemann, Olli Dittrich, Leonard Carow

Kinostart: 26.05.2011

Fünf Frauen, fünf Männer, fünf Geschichten über die Liebe. Da gibt es den Agenturchef Frieder, dessen Frau sich längst schon einem Yogi verschrieben hat und der seit langem eine Affäre mit seiner Schwägerin hat. Da ist der libanesische Gastwirt Youssef, mit dem die graue Maus Peggy von der Gesundheitsbehörde anbandelt. Dann ist da noch Fahrlehrer Paul, der seit 35 Jahren mit der feurigen Südamerikanerin Gabriela verheiratet ist und ihrer eigentlich längst überdrüssig ist. Und schließlich ist da noch TV-Star Alexa, die Tochter von Paul und Gabriela, die sich nach Schwangerschaft sehnt und mit dem Tausendsassa Stevie zusammenprallt. Alle leben im Mikrokosmos Berlins und machen ihre ganz eigenen Erfahrungen mit der Liebe. Otto Alexander Jahrreiss' Film ist eine nette kleine Komödie inklusive melancholischer Einlagen, die jedoch leider ohne richtige Höhepunkte zwischen den verschiedenen Geschichten hin und her pendelt. Was den Film allerdings wirklich sehenswert macht, sind die beiden Hauptdarsteller Katja Riemann und Olli Dittrich. Denn beide sind in jeweils fünf unterschiedlichen Rollen zu sehen. Dank der perfekten Arbeit der Make-Up-Künstler verwandeln sich die beiden in die unterschiedlichsten Typen. Ob die einsame graue Maus Peggy oder die temperamentvolle Gabriela – es ist kaum zu glauben, dass beide Personen von derselben Schauspielerin gemimt werden. Oder der bierbäuchige Fahrlehrer und der aalglatte Werbefachmann – unterschiedlicher könnten die Charaktere nicht sein und werden dennoch vom selben Schauspieler gespielt. Wenn jetzt nur noch das Drehbuch nur halb so gut wäre wie die Darsteller, dann hätte das einen richtig schönen Film ergeben.

Das wohl magischste und spektakulärste Abenteuerpos der Filmgeschichte erwacht zu neuem Leben mit den erweiterten Editionen in unübertroffener HD-Bild- und Tonqualität. Jetzt kann die Trilogie in höchster Qualität erlebt werden: auf Blu-ray in HD!

Aufgrund der Länge der einzelnen erweiterten Filmeditionen und der hohen Bildqualität, wird jeder Film auf zwei Blu-ray-Discs präsentiert. Die mit Spannung erwartete Extended Edition erscheint auf Deutsch und Englisch im 6.1 DTSHD MA-Ton und enthält eine neue Abtastung von „Der Herr der Ringe: Die Gefährten“, remastered unter Verwendung der ursprünglichen 2k-Digital-Dateien. Die Collection enthält über 26 Stunden Specials, wobei die Hinter-den-Kulissen Dokumentationen von Costa Botes die Highlights bilden: Dieser Filmemacher erhielt von Peter Jackson die Genehmigung, die Dreharbeiten aller drei Filme zu begleiten. So gelang es Costa Botes, unmittelbare, mitreißende Eindrücke am Set mit der Kamera festzuhalten. Seine besondere Erzähltechnik – er lässt die Bilder für sich selbst sprechen – ergibt einen intimen und offenherzigen Backstage-Report mit all den Problemen, Vorbereitungen und sich formenden Freundschaften während der Produktion eines der größten Kinoabenteuer aller Zeiten. Die abendfüllenden Dokumentarfilme sind insgesamt über 4 ½ Stunden lang und konzentrieren sich auf komplexe Probleme und Situationen, mit denen die Filmemacher, Darsteller und Teammitglieder während der Dreharbeiten umgehen mussten. Aber auch besondere Situationen und persönliche Eindrücke am Set kommen nicht zu kurz. Costa Botes’ Dokus ergänzen die gefeierten Specials von Michael Pellerin, die bereits im Rahmen der ursprünglichen Veröffentlichungen der erweiterten Fassungen zu sehen waren. Dadurch ist dies die umfassendste Der Herr der Ringe-Zusammenstellung überhaupt.

- Die Kreaturen aus „Die Rückkehr der Jedi-Ritter“ (1983, Farbe, ca. 48 Minuten) – Ein Blick auf die Kostümgestaltung, bei dem Produktionsmaterial aus „Die Rückkehr der Jedi-Ritter“ mit Ausschnitten aus klassischen Monsterfilmen vermischt wird. - „Star Wars – Special Edition“: Entstehung der Taurücken-Szene (1997, Farbe, ca. 26 Minuten) – Die Spezialeffekte von „Star Wars“ wurden zwei Jahrzehnte später noch spezieller. George Lucas zeigt wie sein Team die original Taurücken-Kreaturen (Dewbacks) von unbeweglichen Gummifiguren (im Original von 1977) für die „Star Wars“ 1997 Special Edition in scheinbar lebende, atmende Kreaturen verwandelte.

The Horse Soldiers (Blu-ray)

John Wayne, William Holden, Constance Towers, Althea Gibson
A sabre-rattling good picture. "Los Angeles Times. John Wayne teams with William Holden and eminent western director John Ford for the frontier actioner „packed with laughter, romance and thrills“ (The Hollywood Reporter)! Written by John Lee Mahin and Martin Rackin, this faithful representation of one of the most daring cavalry exploits in history is both a moving tribute to the men who fought and died in that bloody war, and a powerful, action-packed drama. Based on an actual Civil War incident, The Horse Soldiers tells the rousing tale of a troop of Union Soldiers who force their way deep into Southern territory to destroy a rebel stronghold at Newton Station. In command is hardbitten Colonel Marlowe (Wayne), a man who is strikingly contrasted by the company's gentle surgeon (Holden) and the beautiful but crafty Southern belle (Constance Towers) who's forced to accompany the Union raiders on perhaps the most harrowing mission in the war.

Johnny Cash: The Great Lost Performance

June Carter Cash, Johnny Cash

On July 27, 1990, Johnny Cash took his revue to The Paramount Theatre in Asbury Park, New Jersey, and performed a truly unique and wonderful concert, captured on multi-tracks that lay dormant in producer Clark Enslin's Vault until recently mixed and edited for this near hour-long CD. Terrific performances of his greatest hits are here I Walk The Line, Ring Of Fire, etc. A wonderfully upbeat Cash and wife June Carter Cash's stories and introductions punctuate the music; June contributes a boisterous Jackson duet with Johnny; Recording Artist Lucy Clark duets on the first performance anywhere at the time of Johnny's What Is Man?; and Lucy Clark also adds her vocals on Forty Shades of Green, the singer performs the only recorded version anywhere of the classic gospel song Wonderful Time Up There. A great lost performance has been found. Produced by Clark Enslin and Johnny Cash.

Athens: Mother Of Western Civilization

Athens is still one of the liveliest cities in Europe, an ancient city which has stayed young. At an early stage the Athenians adopted a questioning attitude toward life and began to develop new ideas. Thus, about 2,500 years ago, in this city there emerged the idea of democracy, which has exerted a decisive influence on modern history. In this cultural environment, literary forms such as the satire, the drama and the comedy were created. The fine arts of Central Europe are deeply indebted to the metropolis of Athens. Many of the surviving statues and temples which have been preserved are among the finest examples of classical art. Here the roots and

Machete Maidens Unleashed

Joe Dante, Jon Davison, Colleen Camp, Marlene Clark, Roger Corman, Allan Arkush, John Ashley, Carmen Arganziano, Steve Carver, Alan Birkinshaw

Buxom beauties! Bizarre creatures! Gratuitous violence! To the exploitation filmmakers of the 1970s and 1980s there was no stunt too risky, no story too ridiculous, and no clothing that could not be removed in the name of mass entertainment. The name of the game was to move fast and cheap and to producers big and small the Philippines was the Promised Land, the Wild East of filmmaking where American producers were welcomed with open arms by an otherwise oppressive government and safety regulations were but a distant rumor from far off lands. With Machete Maidens Unleashed acclaimed filmmaker Mark Hartley (Not Quite Hollywood) dives head first into the hidden history of the American backed Filipino production boom. Filled with outrageous footage from this lost era and firsthand accounts from Roger Corman, Joe Dante, John Landis, Jack Hill and a host of others who experienced the madness live and in person Machete Maidens Unleashed is a delirious ride through one of the most exhilarating periods of film history.

Outlaws & Gunslingers (Collector's Tin)

The nation's bloodiest conflict, the Civil War, had just ended. It tore the nation apart, into North and South, Republican and Democrat. It spawned a new generation of weapons designed only to kill men, and it trained a generation of men to kill other men. From this year forward for the next 35 years, the South and the North would continue the war in the Wild West. Out of the devastated South rode the most famous outlaw gangs, the James-Younger and the Daltons. From the North rode the most famous of the lawmen Wild Bill Hickok, Wyatt Earp and Bat Masterson. All of these characters would clash in the hills of Missouri.....the cow towns of Kansas.....and the mining towns of Arizona. Towns such as Northfield, Minnesota; Deadwood, South Dakota and Tombstone, Arizona would blaze into American folklore.
